Minister without portfolio, Hon. 22. The ministers will be sworn in before His Honor Sir John Gibson at the parliament buildings at 10 o'clock today.

The Hon, Sir Adam Beck will continue chairman of the Hydro-Electric Power Commission, but in accordance with the views entertained for some time by himself and the late government that it would be advantageous to have the provincial treasurer as a member of the Hydro-Electric Power Commission, Hon. I. B. Lucas will take the position on the commission that the act requires to be filled by a member of the executive council.

GERMANS SEE IMPENDING DEFEAT.

A Rotterdam despatch to The Daily Telegraph says:

"The Germans in Rotterdam are aghast at the tone of the German newspapers which arrived today (Thursday). Only one meaning can be attached to what they contain—they are preparing the German people for defeat and the ruin of their hopes.

"Official messages ask that judgment be suspended if news should arrive that the German troops have been compelled to abandon

"The British troops are mentioned as pushing on by the she ht of their masses, and the French are admitted to have taught severe lesson. A week ago such statements would have meant the suppression of the newspaper printing them."

DRIVEN FROM QUARRIES. A correspondent of The Daily Telegraph in France describes the fighting between the allies and the Germans in the quarries where the Germans have been entrenched.

Germans have been entrenched.

"From some of these natural fortresses," he says, "the Germans have been driven at last. It is rumored that they left others owing to the unburied dead, whose bodies poisoned the air. A quarry near the torest of Aigue was attacked under cover of a mist by the French, who drove out the defenders after desperate fighting. Another quarry was won similarly by the French, who set fire to several buildings and attacked the batteries under concealment of the smoke.

ALLIES WINNING EVERYWHERE.

"A prisoner taken here, who was formerly a professor in one of the universities, said that the casualties during the past fortnight have been terrible. French bayonet charges have left the plains along the Aisne strewn with dead.

"Victory everywhere has been with the allies. The enemy's resistance has been broken, and there must soon be another retreat to the north and east. But the Germans must hold this right flank at any cost until the last moment in order to save the centre, which has been shaken by the British."

INDIAN TROOPS IN FRANCE.

Cronje was. They are completely surrounded by French troops in some quarries, where they are cut off from all hope of rejoining their division, and are being shelled."

BRITISH UNMASKED DEADLY BATTERY.

A correspondent of The Daily Despatch, writing of the fighting at Peronne, says:

"Then came a new and decisive factor, and a complete surprise for the Germans. From the slopes to the northward three batteries of heavy guns suddenly opened fire on the Germans. After getting the range these guns destroyed completely the German battery with the first five discharges, and thereafter rendered untenable position after position that the German guns had tried to hold.
