THE NINETEENTH ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

BRITISH COLUMBIA

PROTESTANT ORPHANS' HOME.

In submitting to the subscribers their annual report for the past year, the Committee have to thank-y acknowledge the liberal support given to the me, and the expressed willingness of many to inase their support should it be required.

It is with unfeigned sorrow that we have to ord the death, during the past year, of our muchoved President, Mr. A. A. Green. Only those o have known and witnessed his kind deeds, not y in connection with the Orphanage, but also in business relations, can understand how truly his vices were a work and labor of love and how great ss the Institution has sustained in his departure in our midst.

The management of the Home by the Matron, a. Walker, has been most satisfactory. The housed arrangements have received very careful atten-
