(72))

which were ever fet on Foot against him.

That the Peace it felf may teftify this for them ; wherein , they not one ly oblig'd the King of France, to thruft him, the Pretender, out of his Kinge dom ; but oblig'd him to engage; that he should never suffer him to return; bringing the faid French King to acknowledge the Succession of His prefent Majefty, in the ftrongeft Manner poffible; and engaging him, under the most facred Ties of Honour never to give any Difturbance, directly or indirectly, to the faid Protestant Succession; or to aid, affist, en> courage, or support any that should offer to disturb it. 80

ť

t

t

t

K

Ca

p W

S

bi

pl of U th

an

E

th

th

They fay, That they left nothing undone, which it was in their Power to do, to fecure the Hapover Succellion, by these Engagements; as for their employing Jacobites in several Offices, Ge. it is known, they could employ none who did not take the Abjuration Oath; and as they complain now of the Hardship of being judg'd, and wrongfully centured; fo they thought it hard, to adjudge any Man to be a Jacobite, who, in all the most folemm