

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE.

HEAD QUARTERS.

QUEBEC, 3" April, 1815.

GENERAL ORDERS.

IS Excellency the Commander of the Forces announces to the Army ferving in British North America, that he has received the Commands of His Royal Highness the Prince REGENT to return to England. .

In taking leave of an Army he had the honor to Com and from the commencement of Holtilities with the United States to the termination of the War, His Excellency has great satisfac-tion in expressing his entire approbation and acknowledging the high sense he entertains of the zeal, courage and discipline that has been so eminently displayed by this portion of His Majesty's

It has fallen to the lot of this Army to struggle through an arraous and unequal Contest, reremote from succour, and deprived of many advantages experienced in the more cultivated Countries of Europe; yet. His Excellency has witnessed with pride and admiration, the firmness, intrepidity and patient endurance of fatigue and privations, which have marked the character of the Army of Canada. Under all these circumstances, valour and discipline have prevailed, and although local considerations and limited means have circumstribed the War principally to a dealthough local confiderations and limited means have circumicribed the War principally to a defenfive fyftem, it has, notwith tanding, been ennobled, by numerous brilliant exploits, which will adorn the page of future hiftory. At Detroit, and at the River Raifin two entire Armies with their Commanding Generals were captured, and greatly fuperior Armies were repulfed. The feveral Battles of Queenstown, Stoney Creek, Chateauguay, Chryllter's, La Colle, Lundy's Lane, near the Falls of Niagara, and the subsequent operations on that Frontier, will ever limmortalize the Heroes who were on those occasions afforded the opportunity of distinguishing themselves. The Capture of Michillmackinac, Ogdensburg, Oswego and Niagara by Affault, are trophies of the prowess of British Arms. The names of the respective Officers who led His Maiestw's Troops to these several achievements whe already known to the world, and will the Majesty's Troops to these several achievements are already known to the world, and will be transmitted by the faithful historian with glory to a grateful posterity.

Reviewing past events, it is with exultation His Excellency restects on the complete success which has crowned the valour, exertions, and perseverance of this gallant Army, by terminating each successive Campaign in the complete deseat and discomsture of all the Enemy's Plans, in which the utmost energies of the Government of the United States have been exhausted in vain efforts to accomplish his avowed object, the Conquest of these Provinces. (Lieut. General Sir John C. Sherbrooke, and the Army under his immediate orders, are entitled to the highest praits for the bravery and promptness displayed in the occupation of a large District of the Enemy's Territory, and His Excellency requests the Lieuts General will accept His Thanks for the my's Territory, and His Excellency requests the Lieuts General will accept His Thanks for the cordial affiftance he has at all times afforded him.

To Lieut General Sir Gordon Drummond, on whom the Command of the Canadas devolves, His Excellency's best Thanks are due, for his unwearied exertions and support under circumstances of peculiar difficulty: To the General Officers, General Staff, and Officers and Soldiers His Excellency seets himself highly indebted, and duly appreciates their respective metals. To Major General Baynes the Adjutant General, and Major General Sir Sidney Best. WITH the Quarter Mafter General, and to the Officers of his personal Staff, His Excellency Thanks are also due for the judgment, alacrity and zeal evinced in the discharge of their several

His Excellency has every reason to be satisfied with the conduct and exertions of the Public Departments of this Army, and he feels it an Act of Justice to express particularly his approbation of the very efficient manner in which the Commissariat has been conducted under the zealous and judicious arrangements of Commissary General Robinson.

His Excellency will have peculiar gratification in representing to His Royal Highness The PRINCE REGENT the Services and Talents of the Officers of this Army, to the honorable Survivors of which Lieut. General Sir George Prevort offers the heartfelt Tribute of his warmest Thanks:
