

PREFACE

“When ‘Omer smote ‘is bloomin’ lyre,
‘Eed ‘eard men sing by land and Sea,
And what ‘e thought ‘e might require,
‘E went and took— the same as me.”

Acknowledgement is gratefully made to the Compilers of a smiliar book in aid of the Harvard Endowment Fund, for much of the material used in this hand book.

Each canvasser is particularly requested to read this book carefully from cover to cover. He is also requested to secure copies of all other publications issued by the Campaign Committee and is asked to read them carefully—then he will find himself in a position to go forth and get “A Million for Dal-housie.” She needs the money and will make the best possible use of every cent of it.

NOW! ALL TOGETHER—
