Curling The Draw For ... Hockey League Scores

Note and Comment

Here is the draw for the single rink melect. It looks as interesting as in former years, and again history is likely to repeat itself, inasmuch as several promising teams are nkely to 20 down and out on preliminary night.

Davy Tope, the manager of the Hamilton Tigers, is out with a new amendment to the Rugby rules. He does not want much, merely suggesting that after a goal from field, the hall be kicked off at the 40-yard line, instead of from centre field, as at present. Davy evidently expects the Interprovincial to let Kid Smith stay off the Tigers' line-up. The union meeting is in Ottawa next Saturday.

Jacobson and Lawrie are still tide for the checker championship after three meeting. Last Saturday they hegotlated two draws. On Monday there was nothing hut action, each winning two. Last night they met again, result two draws, leaving the score to date as follows: Jacobson, 2 won; Laurier, 2 won; drawn, 4. The experts will endeavon again to-night to break the tie at the rooms of the Chess and Checker Club, Jarvis and King-streets.

Left-handed pitchers do not bother good-left-handed hitters, as is generally believed. Ty Cobb's record against the southpaws shows that he, like several other good hiters, do not have to worry when facing a left-handed pitcher. Cobb was compelled to face left-handers 187 times last year. He hit 380 against this. Baliey of the St. Louis' Browns was the easiest mark for the Georgian. He slammed out ten hits in 23 times that he faced Bailey.

out of the Eastern Baseball League, to give way to some more convenient town. They deny it in Persoupville, even is Richmond is in the field for such a vacancy.

Joe McGinafty of the Newark Club, is telling that if Montreal is ever dropped Richmond will be substituted. "Richmond would make an ideal city. It is only four hours' ride from Bakitmore, and the rivalary would be intense," says McGinnity. "I still have faith in Montreal, however, as a baseball town. If I were running the team I would try to get a couple of French-Canadians. The fans up there rave about their own players, why, I remember one game last year when Dubec, who is a Canadian, came to bat, and I was pitching. Some fans in the grandstand bet Wish Egan that Dubee would get a homer. Dubec struck out and Egan blew the boys to cigars at the hotel that night. bubec would get a homer. Dubec struck out and Egan blew the boys to cigars at the hotel that night. I suppose that Ed Holly will be the real manger, while Lichenhein will pull the strings.

The Iron Man has Jimmy Frick slated for the difficult corner in his Newark team, to replace Zimmerman. McGinnity syas: 'Some people apparently think that Frick is a weak hitter, but he will hit as good as Zimmerman, and the fact is that he had a better batting average than Eddle last year. As a fielder you will find that he is there. I want men who will fit in as cogs in a baseball machine and who will play together, not a bunch of stars who are never dependable."

Twice the Islanders got away with a crowd in the grand stand to its feet, and might have scored in one case at least had it not been for the University team's misunderstanding—to put it charitably—of the rules with respect to a tackling interference with players who have the ball at their feet. And towards the finish the Reds relieved the pressure, made glad the hearts of their supporters with several wing three-quarter plays which were responsible for substantial gains and blought the game to a conclusion with play about midfield.
