DR. GAVEN TESTIFIES

But Dr. Bruce Smith Doesn't Think
Old Man Understood Marriage Contract.

Doctor W. P. Caven. who recently examined old Michael Fraser, in Midand, declared in Divisional Court Saturday afternoon that the old brides groom is perfectly sane. Fraser knew his name, age, when he was born, when he was married, and generally answered questions intelligently.

Dr. Caven, however, stated that his physical condition was none too sound, and it would be dangerous to move him down to Toronto to give evidence. Dr. Bruce Smith declared that he was convinced that Michael Fraser did soft appreciate the ceremony he went thru on Jan. 13, 1910, as a marriage contract.

He was married in the early morning, and a man his state would be confused at the time, due to abnormal cerebral-circulation. When witness examined Fraser on June 13 last there was certainly evidence of senile decay, and he had no hesitation in saving that he was suffering from the care and he answered in a firm witnesses Must Appear.

Mendecal certificate from Dr. Auding susta Stowe-Gullen was produced stating that Mrs. R. T. Menlicoll, sister of Mrs. Fraser, was too ill to underso cross-examination.

cerebral circulation. When witness examined Fraser on June 13 last there was certainly evidence of senile decay, and he had no hesitation in saying that he was suffering from that aliment. When he saw him later, however, the old man was brighter.

Counsel asked Dr. Smith if he thought Fraser was capable of managing himself.

Dr. Smith replied that from the evidence he had heard, he thought that those nearest to him had no faith in his ability to manage himself.

"As a specialist, would you consider Fraser, by the evidence brought before the court, was capable of managing his affairs?"

Dr. Smith, in reply, said a commit-

Dr. Smith, in reply, said a committee should have been appointed long ago to manage Fraser's affairs.

Counsel for respondent asked witness if he thought the testimony he had given to-day was consistent with the two affidavits.

"I have no intention of altering any cialists.

In answer to a question by Mr. King, Dr. Caven considered Fraser was not suffering from senile dementia. Chief Justice Mulock asked the doctor if Fraser stake of his property. "He spoke of his grounds," replied "Yes."

"Did he assume to be the owner?"

"Yes."

"Did he say anything to indicate that he had parted with his property?"

"No."

In reply to a question from Mr. Justice Teetzel, Dr. Smith stated that when he saw Fraser on June 24th his mental improvement was remarkable. "But would senile deterioratia occur again?" asked the judge.

Doctor Said That Sometime He Would Never Come Out of One-

Many people may be unaware of hav-ing anything wrong with their heart till some little excitement, overwork, or confinement in an overheated or overcrowded room or public building makes them feel faint or dizzy. If you neglect the warning the slight iceling of dizziness gives you, and fail to take treatment, there will be a gradual progression to something more serious. There is no reason you should wait till your case becomes desperate before you avail yourself of a perfect cure by using Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. Mr. F. S. Chute, Wheatley, Ont. writes:—"It is with gratitude I tell how your Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills benefited me. I was very weak and run down, and had headache, nearly every day and would very often faint away. 'In fact, my doctor said that sometime would never come out of one of them. Not a Weak Man.

"Do you believe Fraser a weak man, and that he could be easily led to do anything?"

"I do not think so."

"If you again examined him, might not your former opinion be shaken?"

"On the contrary, it would be strengthened."

Under cross-examination Dr. Caven acknowledged that it would be advantageous to make a second examination of Fraser, and to compare his opinion with that of the other specialists.

the two affidavits.

"I have no intention of altering any of my statements, sir," replied the dector hotly. "Have not you changed your mind?"

"Not in the slightest."

In reply to counsel, Dr. Smith stated that he thought Fraser knew he was being married, he would have married anybody. He would only have known what was taking place in a mechanical way.

before him, what would become of him?"

"His life is dependent on me," repliced the witness.

Matter for Criminal Law.

Referring to the manner in which the Robertsons had stormed the old man's castle, Justice Teetzel said: "If the criminal code is not strong enough to reach an affair of this kind, it ought to be."

Mr. Fraser has the art of making friends among men used to dealing with big affairs. Did he care, he could penplicture burly John McMartin to the life, and that would mean telling his marvelous story of Hollinger. He knew F. Aug. Heinze in Butte, Montana, and helped to bring him to Porcupine. He is a large acquaintance with capitalists in New York and is understood to be watching Porcupine progress in their interest.

he came to Dundas as pastor of the Presbyterian Church. Miss Robertson had asked witness to assist her to get an unmolested interview with Michael Fraser, who had proposed to her and had been accepted. Conspirators, she said, were keeping the old man under the influence of dope or whiskey.

"I know if, I get him in-his good sense outside of the dope or drink, he will marry me," she had said.

strong plea for the famine stricken in China.

"The problems of relief are still as great as of vore," he said. They are thrust upon us. But the Christian cannot dismiss them. "The law of nature is that the weak shall go to the wall, but that of Christ rescues the halpess. It is not by talking or writing a book on the subject, but what can we do? The hard thing with Christ was not to feed the multitude, but to get the disciples to bring forth what they had. Husky Men Wanted.

Counsel Creswicke, for the McCormick waction, asked why Constable Taylor and ex-Constable Engleman had been enlisted to the storming party.

"Because they were kind of merry," answered witness.

Mr. Meldrum added that after the guards had been surprised and routed, old Michael Fraser said, "I'm going to marry this little girl," and when the sirl's ministerial sire asked, 'Will you take this woman for your wedded wife?" a splendid smile lit up the disciples to bring forth what they had. The church's difficulty is not in converting the heathen, but in deepening the convertion of Christians. How many say: 'Oh leave us alone, why bother us?' But Christ will not allow us to be free from our duty. He asks what can you bring to this work.
