SHARKEY LOOKS LIKE A FIGHTER.

SHARKEY LOOKS LIKE A FIGHTER.
Chicago, Aug. 3.—Tom Sharkey, the big naval cadet of San Francisco, who gave Corbett the ugliest fight of his life not long ago, arrived in Chicago yesterday. He is on his way to New York, accompanied by his backer, D. J. Lynch. Sharkey looks like a fighter. He has immense shoulders and a huge neck, while even the lines of his face indicate great muscular strength. Then, too, Sharkey suggests the fighter in his talk more than the average big pugilist. He talks like Steve Brodle, with quick, short sentences. Sharkey is not boastful in his manner, but it is apparent that he has abundant confidence in his ability to defeat Corbett or anyone else. "My short fight with Jim awhile ago," said he, "is only an indication of what I can do when I meet him for a fight to a finish next September."

BOB WRENN BEAT STEVENS.
Long Branch, N.J., Aug. 3.—There was a large crowd at the opening of the Norwood tennis tournament to-day. There were but three contests, however. The other match, between Fischer and George Wrenn, was left unfinished on account of darkness, with the score two sets each.

AUSTRALIANS' AMERICAN DATES.

Philadelphia, Aug. 3.—The Australian cricketers will arrive here about Sept. 16, and, according to the present schedule, will play their first match at Philadelphia on the following Friday, Saturday and Monday. The dates proposed for the New York match are Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 23 and 24. The team will again play the Gentlemen of Philadelphia on Friday, Saturday and Monday, Sept. 25, 26 and 28, while a third game will be played against the Quaker City cracks on Oct. 2, 3 and 5, the grounds for these three matches being those of the Belmont, Germantown and Merion. The Executive Committee of the Metropolitan Cricket District League of New York has decided not to arrange a contest with the Australians, who have made such a remarkable record in England this season. Although the league has considerable surplus in the treasury, the management is so conservative that it will not be responsible for any game where there is a possible risk of financial failure.
