Local Market.

London, Tuesday, May 23.
Today's market was an inactive one, offerings being very light. Green stuffs were not so plentiful, but there was no great demand. Eggs remained firm, and butter was a trifle higher than on Saturday. Little of either was offered. Only a couple of loads of hay were offered. The meat market was dull, with offerings light. Cattle were in prices. No poultry was offered. Some odd lots of flowers were offered and sold briskly.

Wheat, white, per bu	69c to 71c
