TWO L.R.C. RINKS AND PARIS AND WALKERVILLE QUARTETS IN RUNNING FOR LABATT MUG

Second Day's Play Sees Many Fine Combinations Go Under—McDougall Emerges From the Second and Third Rounds of the First Event by Sensational Bowling.

Friend Jup Pluv threatened to put the kibosh on the second day's play of the W. O. B. A. annual tournament at the London Bowling and Rowing Club, but he showed the better side of his disposition during the afternoon after making things rather uncomfortable in the morning, and the disgruntled skating was brought back to its original form.

Two London rinks managed to go through the first two days of play with but a loss, and are now in the semi-finals for the Labatt trophy. They are the L. C. quartet skipped by W. J. Snelgrove and J. S. McDougall. The remaining two fours are those from Paris and Walkerville, piloted by Jas. Smiley and Nat. Cornwall respectively.

The Paris aggregation won its third round game from A. Langford's London Thistles in the final end by one shot, being one down going into the last end.

McDougall vanquished Harry in one of the best games of the day. The latter was several shots up, but failed in the pinch, and McDougall won out by 15 to 10 scores.

The Taylor brothers succumbed to the attack of Snelgrove by three shots, while Cornwall and McDougall won over A. Laing of Windsor by 15 to 12.

The second round Labatt trophy games saw the only remaining Toronto rink beaten by Snelgrove in handy fashion. Those of the games in the final bowl, while the Taylor brothers won their contest from Dr. Jarvis' Elmwoods in the last end with a runner.

Effort Will Be Made to Convince Crowder on Question.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—Final decision as to when the work of the regulations shall be applicable to baseball players has been postponed until tomorrow. Representatives of the club owners were in conference today with President Marshall Gen. Crowder, who is expected to make a recommendation to Secretary Baker.

War department officials have begun a study of the regulations with a view to amending them to include all engaged in sport or amusements. It was done the other day when the picture industry might be re-worked.

PITTSBURGH, July 23.—Club owners and presidents of the National League will meet in Washington tomorrow for a conference with President Marshall Gen. Crowder and war department officials, on Secretary of War Baker's ruling that the work of the military applies to professional baseball.

According to the decision to go to Washington was reached at a meeting of club owners and presidents here this morning. At tomorrow's conference, Mr. Hermann said, an effort will be made to obtain the government's consent to continue baseball until the close of the season.

After a sensational finish in the second end and the two local combinations found themselves tied. The extra end was full of air-raising play. Ben Trick put his bowl against the jack for a starter and later knocked the jack out one foot to the side. Keene then laid his bowl two inches from the kitty, and Ed. Weid struck a runner.

A surprise was the showing made by Father Forster's aggregation against Frank Brown's strong four. Forster won the contest.

Tom Hennie, veteran bowler and courier, is the original and best specialist, so far as the W. O. B. A. tournament is concerned. He has been playing in the W. O. B. A. C. O. Knowles and Hennie, himself, comprising the Toronto Braves, it is expected that they would take a good crack at the premier honors, but no such thing happened.

The four Taylor brothers, two from Toronto and two from London, played a strong game. They were dished by Snelgrove's rink, however. The Taylor brothers, with John Farrow, William Hynd and William Turnbull, composed the Snelgrove rink, and they were the best of the four relations could do. "I'm dumb" was the terse answer a hitherto inquirer got from the London rink, when the latter was asked how his game was coming along. Other members of Connor's rink were not so rude, however. "We're going to win the consolation anyway," one of the gents said. "Winning the consolation is no consolation to me," the president of the W. O. B. A. remarked disgustedly, as his runner failed to find the cat by about seven feet.
