It will be impossible to state with any degree of accuracy what the grand total amounts to, until the whole situation has been carefully checked. Owing to the late hour at which many canvassers finished work, hundreds of applications will be turned in Monday morning to Toronto headquarters, while the local banks, which had a record day Saturday, will not be able to report their figures to us until Monday afternoon.

The result of the Toronto campaign will be announced at the public meeting in Convocation Hall, but the executive feels confident that, when the figures are totaled up, Toronto's objective—and it was an exceedingly high one—will have been reached.
