It is good policy to send, as it has been decided to do, a very strong delegation from this city to Ottawa, to lay the case board of education recognized the justice of this port before the federal governof the claims of the women teach ment. There is every reason for prompt making the minimum salary $400 and the action in so equipping the port that it shall be able to handle all the traffic that may offer. Along with that development must go the expenditure by the Canamoney in enlarging the capacity of the money in enlarging the capacity of the Atlantic division to handle traffic. As the company will spend between $6,000,000 and $7,000,000 on new work in the west, this year, it may be taken for granted the properties of the capacity of the teachers beginning this year will reach the maximum in ten years, those who have already served from 12 to 30 years, are barred from at once receiving that benefit. An appeal is now made to have this that as it is required its eastern equipment will be made equal to the demands of the larger western business which will seek an outlet.

SACKVILLE

SACKVILLÉ, Jan. 20-Alexander Ford SACKVILLE, Jan. 20—Alexander Ford Senior died at 8 a. m. yesterday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. L. Anderson. Deceased had reached the ripe old age of seventy-seven years. Three daughters survive, Mrs. E. L. Anderson, at whose home his death took place. Mrs. C. W. Corey, of Malden, Mass. and Miss Katie Ford, of Sackville. Mr. Ford was an active church worker and an elder of Sackville Presbyterian church. He will be much missed in the community. Funeral takes place at 2.30 tomorrow. Rev. Dr. Stewart will conduct the service. The Knights of Pythias of Moncton will be in attendance. Interment at the rural cemetery.

The funeral of the late Mrs. W. Avard was held Sunday and was very largely attended. Rev. Dr. Chapman of Amherst conducted the service assisted by Rev. Chas. Flemington. Interment took place at Grew. Shemogue cemetery.

The concert in Beethoven Hall on Friday evening was an unqualified success. Miss Kate Hemming of the conservatory faculty delighted the audience with a vocal solo. A vocal quartette by Misses Midsig Smith, F. Lydiard and Messrs Davidson and Black was a pleasing number. A vocal solo by Miss Ruggles was much appreciated, Miss Booth rendered a piano solo very effectively. The seonic representation of The Dream of Fair Women was particularly well rendered. Oswyn Bull gave an interesting lecture at Beethoven Hall Saturday on Life and Manners at Cambridge University. The discourse was illustrated by stereoptican views which added much to the pleasure of the occasion.

THE GETTING OF WEALTH

A SUCCESSFUL BUSINESS

(The Engineering Magazine.)

We hear much today of the advantages that one competitor secures over another through the "secret rebate," special "shipping privileges," unfair "rate classifications," "secret agreements," etc.

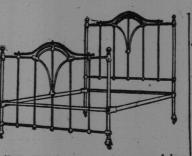

In a manufacturing business these advantages count for little against a company with an effective organization of the working force, stimulated by a desire to work not only for self but for the good of the concern, aided by up-to-date mechanical methods and tools especially adapted to the quick, accurate and ecnomical manufacturing to the proposition to give Senator Kirchoffer a lease for certain swamp lands in Manitoba accurate check upon the cost of produced; supported to the proper course to pursue in order to secure still greater economies — a system of manufacture that enables the management to feel certain that the most economical plan of putting the manufacture.
