VICTORY BONDS FOR FIFTY CENTS

If you cannot afford fifty dollars for a war bond, buy a fifty cent ticket for the grand patriotic drawing. You may win a three hundred or a one hundred dollar bond, or free return ticket to Vancouver and several other prizes, including a year's pass to the Imperial and a ton of Radio hard coal. Tickets on sale at deForest & Co's stores, both Prince William and Charlotte streets, A. G. Brown at Dufferin barber shop, Gardner's bookstore, corner Duke and Sydney streets, or at headquarters, Imperial Theatre lobby, F. W. Munro, 357 Main street, John Frodsham, Royal Hotel; Geo. K. Bell, druggist, 297 Charlotte. All proceeds for the local Red Cross and the navy.

AFTER TEA FREE PRESENTATIONS OF BRITISH WAR HERO SPOONS

As many have been unable to avail themselves of the opportunity of obtaining, absolutely free, a British Hero Souvenir Spoon with each order for Hero Special Sundae, at the Grape Arbor of the Garden Cafe at the Royal Hotel, during the afternoon, the management have decided to extend this exceptional offer to the evenings as well, so that after tea, as well as during the afternoons, one of these dainty spoons—bearing a relief portrait of one of the British War Heroes, will be presented free to each person, with every order for Hero Special Sundae, in the Grape Arbor of the Garden Cafe at the Royal Hotel. Entrances on both King and Germain streets.

It's better to buy a Semi-ready Suit with a reputation for honesty than gamble on a garment which lacks the same record of good tailoring. From the wool to the workshops the worth of each garment is known. There is no mystery about tailoring good clothes-but cheap-jack work can be hidden from a buyer by the lining. So can cheap wool and shoddy.

Semi-ready-Tailored Clothes are shape-stayed and inside-tailored so carefully and precisely that you will always look upon the label in the pocket with pride.
