A MAGNIFICENT

One of the most tempting and beautiful display of cut flowers in the city is that of McLean & Charlton, 55 King street. There they have a full selection of all the flowers of the season at prices which are very moderate indeed, considering the quality of the flowers. Roses of all varieties in perfect condition may be had from $1.50 upwards, while there is a delightful selection of violets, carnations, marguerites, pansies, geraniums, daffodils; tulips and hyacinths. At this season when flowers are in great demand as a pleasant gift, one could not do better than call at these well supplied florists.
