

GREATEST CURE FOR RHEUMATISM IS "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

"I Honestly Believe It," says Mr. Mills

Knowlton, P. Q., Oct. 12th, 1910. For many years I suffered from severe Rheumatism and the attacks were very distressing and prevented me from doing my ordinary work.

"Fruit-a-tives" not only strengthens and heals the kidneys—but also regulates the bowels, improves the action of the skin—and thus keeps the blood pure and rich and free from uric acid which causes Rheumatism.

FAMOUS GEMS OF PROSE

SCHEPTICISM OF EDUCATED MEN

By Ralph Waldo Emerson

From a lecture on "New England Reformers," in Armory hall, Boston, March 3, 1884.

WHEN the literary class betrays a destitution of faith, it is not strange that society should be disheartened and demoralized by unbelief. What remedy? Life must be lived on a higher plane. We must go up to a higher platform, to which we are always invited to ascend; there the whole aspect of things changes.

The text will suit me very well. I believe not in two classes of men, but in man in two moods—in Philip drunk and Philip sober. I think according to the good-hearted world, which is not a man, but a soul, is deprived of truth.

What is it men love in genius but its infinite hope which degrades all it has done? Genius counts all its miracles poor and short. Its own idea it never executed. The Iliad, the Hamlet, the Doric column, the Roman arch, the Gothic minister, the German anthem, when they are ended the master casts behind him.

PLAYS AND PLAYERS

Budget of News Concerning Stage Favorites Known to St. John Audiences.

Negotiations have been completed between H. J. Anderson, manager of the Opera House, and W. S. Harkins, whereby a big dramatic company will be brought here by Mr. Harkins, to play for two weeks at Christmas and New Year.

It is possible that Kyla Bell's great play, "The Thief," may be seen at the Opera House in December under the management of Spry and Matheson.

Caruso, the famous tenor, made three appearances at the Royal Opera in Berlin last week. Some idea of the singer's popularity may be had from the fact that every seat for these performances was sold out in twenty minutes at the lowest priced seats at the box office cost $7.50.

John McAdams is playing in New Hampshire at stock, heading his own company. They played last week in Claremont.

Miss Agnes Murphy, the Irish-American writer, has written a biography of Mme. Nellie Melba, in New York.

The city council of Victoria, B. C., has been considering the building of a citizens' theatre, to be placed near the beautiful Empress Hotel.

Joseph Gruner, and Fred C. Whitney are on the committee for the benefit concert to be given in aid of Marcus R. May, the noted impresario, in New York.

DEMOCRATS HAVE 29 MAJORITY IN NEXT CONGRESS

Chicago, Nov. 9.—Sixty-second congress. Democrats elected 225. Republicans elected, 164. Socialist elected, 1. Total, 391.

Complete returns on the election of representatives in congress indicate that the Democrats will have a working majority of 29 in the next house.

The number of Democrats elected to congress, according to the latest and most reliable returns, is 225. The Republican representation will be 164 or 165, or eight seats less than the Democrats have in the first congress.

Naughton has been engaged for Christie McDonald's support in the Sprudelle. The Alaskan, with Richard Carroll, Lewis Kendall and the crew who played here in touring Upper Canada.

It is reported that Henry Guy Carleton the dramatist is dying in the south. He has been an invalid for several years.

Boris Hanaburg, the cellist, will tour the United States this winter on his first visit to the country. His oldest brother, Mark, was heard here last year as a pianist, and his second brother, Jan, now in the States is a "cellist."

Avie Page, seen here last season in "The Farmer's Daughter," is starting this season "The Country Girl" and is winning no little success in the part. The tour of the company will extend to the Pacific Coast and back.

Henry B. Harris has arranged for Edmund Breece to star in Percy's troy I. eye's Mackrig the third in annual for Edmund Breece to star in Percy Mackrig's tragedy of the ludicrous, "The Scarecrow." It was Mr. Harris' original intention to present Edgar Selwyn in this play but, by reason of the success of "The Country Boy," which Mr. Selwyn wrote, he has decided that his activities in the theatrical world will be confined to the writing of plays.

Mr. Breece last appeared under the management of Mr. Harris in "The Third Degree," but lately played the principal role in "The Spendthrift."

Marie Dressler is going to give her entire company a Christmas party at her home in Windsor, Vt. The celebration will be the celebration on Christmas Eve, and the unique feature of this celebration will be the giving of presents to the company.

Mr. Dressler decided to have her company with her at Christmas time she immediately concluded that no ordinary indoor Christmas tree would meet the requirements of her guests. It was then that she struck on the idea of utilizing an immense apple tree which stands in the front yard close to the house and decorating it with all sorts of gifts.

The New York correspondent of the Times-Star writes: "In answer to a request the other day for her formula for retaining at 67 years of age the spirit and vim of a woman of forty, Sarah Bernhardt, the divine, cryptically responded: 'I preserve it by the real chair of perpetual youth, she says, and has the milk bath of Anna Held-beaten to a frazzle as an agent of immortality. When there is no squeezer handy, the distinguished French actress advises that the lemon juice be squeezed into the bath water to realize the slumping tissues and nerves and give poetry and zest to faded lips."

Mr. J. C. Williamson of Australia, with whom she is still under contract. Florence Roberts, seen here often in support of her husband, Lewis Morrison, has bought a home near Van Cortlandt Park, New York. It is half house and half ranch.

The big rooms, the sun bath and the stationary quality of the baths have so bewitched Miss Roberts that she bridges every moment she stays away from them and she says, fully believing her own statements, that she will retire in four years so that she may enjoy her home in peace.

Rumors that the Passion Play and Passion Players will be brought to America in their entirety, which crop up now and then only to be denied later, have doubtless been quieted for another ten years by the absolute denial of any interested home-towns on the part of the Oberammergau peasant players by Sebastian Bauer, Mayor of Oberammergau, chairman of the Passion play committee. Mr. Bauer declares that the performance of the Passion Play outside of the Bavarian village of Oberammergau or often than once in ten years is impossible, according to their ancestors' vows.

Henry Crosby, Frances McHenry, and Walter Seymour are distinguishing themselves in the Ingersoll stock company at Salt Lake City, Utah.

Genevieve Reynolds is playing again this season with the Robert Mantell company. She has played with them for a number of seasons.

Giovanni Caruso, a younger brother of Enrico Caruso, the tenor, arrived in New York this week. He is a double for his famous brother. "But I am not a great singer like my brother," he said through an interpreter. "I am a writer for magazines, and am coming here to spend the winter. My brother will arrive soon, and I expect to stay with him most of the time. I have heard a good deal of New York and am anxious to see all the places of interest."

If Price Webber and the members of the Boston Comedy company left this week for Worcester, Me., where the last rehearsal will be held, and the season opens, Mr. Webber would tilt the election interest should end its rivalry.

Clarence Bennett, who last season starred in the Holy City of which he is the playwright, left Burlington, N. J. recently for New York, to join the Squaw Man company.

Mrs. Bennett has also been assigned a prominent part in the company.

Franklin Ritchie is meeting with much success in the part he is playing with Clara Lipman company in "The Marriage of Figaro."

Another grand opera song bird, Emma Trentini, has forsaken the more pretentious form of musical art for the more popular field of comic opera. That human nature

YOUR TIME IS NOT YOURS

It Belongs to Those Depending on You—For Their Sakes Preserve Health and Strength.

You never thought of it just this way before. While not feeling well you have neglected to take active means of restoring health, thinking all the time that you were the only one to suffer by delay.

Not so. For who among us has not someone depending on him for comfort, happiness or the means of livelihood? When you lie awake nights, worry over little things, get nervous and irritable, have indigestion, paralysis or locomotor ataxia lays you low, such is the natural and inevitable result of neglected nervous energy.

Time is not yours to delay. You must call a halt to the wasting process. Otherwise you will have a rude awakening some day, when prostrations, paralysis or locomotor ataxia lays you low, such is the natural and inevitable result of neglected nervous energy.

No Man is Stronger Than His Stomach

A strong man is strong all over. No man can be strong who is suffering from weak stomach with its consequent indigestion, or from some other disease of the stomach and its associated organs, which impairs digestion and nutrition.

For when the stomach is weak or diseased there is loss of the nutrition contained in food, which is the source of all physical strength. What a man doesn't eat just right, he doesn't get it. He has an uncomfortable feeling in the stomach, is languid, nervous, irritable and despondent, he is losing the material needed to make strength.

Such a man should use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a cure for diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enriches the blood, invigorates the liver, strengthens the kidneys, nourishes the nerves, and GIVES HEALTH AND STRENGTH TO THE WHOLE BODY.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic medicine of known composition, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit. Ingredients oriented on wrapper.

MISS PURVES' LECTURE

Second in Series of Course Given by Ladies' Association of Natural History Society

The second lecture in the "Folk-Lore in Opera" course, given by the Ladies' Association of the Natural History Society was delivered yesterday afternoon.

The speaker, Miss Purves, of St. Stephen interpreted Wagner's Niebelungen Ring in a most charming and lucid manner. The lecture was illustrated throughout by music, excellently rendered by Mrs. Spangler, bringing in the principal motives where they belonged, or short musical sentences.

"The plot of the Niebelungen Ring hangs on the magic ring which the Niebelungen, or dwarfs living in the interior of the earth, forge from the Rheingold. The ring is stolen from the Niebelungen by the giants who live on the surface of the earth. A curse has been put upon the ring by the Niebelungen, that its charm bring death to whoever wears it, may he possess it as a ward task to get an appointment of forty-five thousand dollars for human education.

In the last congress a bill appropriating $1,000 for child study was defeated, and immediately afterward, $15,000 was appropriated for studying child. Evidently, the public and congress need to get a better informed regarding the science of human welfare, and the possibilities of its extension and of the practical applications that may be made of it.
