DYKEMAN'S

OUR NEW FALL
Coats and Suits

have now been opened up for your inspection. It is one of the best displays we have ever made and every garment is marked at a price in harmony with the reputation of this store. It has been our idea to gather together a collection of coats and suits that would give service and not so much for their low price, and yet the prices are most attractive, and more especially have we selected these garments with the idea that their use would make a name for the store.

At $10.00—Over one hundred coats at this popular price. They are made from teryco, tweeds and beavers, and come in a good range of colors. Neatly trimmed, perfect fitting and richly tailored.

Reversible Cloth Coats with shawl collar at $14.90, made from extra good quality of soft wool cloth, plaid lining which harmonizes with the outside, splendid models and perfect fits.

We have other prices from $5.50 up to $25.00.

Suits in the very newest styles from $12.95 to $25.00.

CHATHAM MAN FOUND DEAD IN THE RIVER

Wm. Keenan Had Been Missing Since Last Thursday—Identification of Victim of Maine Accident as Joseph Currie

(Special to Times)

Chatham, N. B., Aug. 29.—The body of a man, supposed to be William Keenan of Chatham, was found in the river today at Newcastle, a little below the ferry slip. The discovery was made about 9 o'clock in the morning. Caretaker Malby took charge of the body. Mr. Keenan was about forty-three years of age and single. He was a son of John Keenan of Chatham. He had been missing since Thursday last.

A message received this morning left no doubt that the man, killed on the B. & A. railroad, near Davidson, as told in the Times, was Joseph Currie of this town. His son George Currie was speaking over the long distance telephone to the Davidson coroner, and the identification was complete. The body will be brought here to-night or tomorrow.

ST. JOHN LADIES IN THE MARITIME GOLF MATCHES DO WELL

Several Quality For Championships on Opening Day of The Turo Meet

The annual meet of "The Maritime Ladies" Golf Association opened at the Turo Golf Course on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with upwards of thirty entries. The competitors represent the St. John, Moncton, Amherst, Windsor, Halifax and Turo clubs.

The stars lowest scores made on Monday qualify for "The Ladies' Championships," the next sixteen for "The Consolation Cup."

Miss Frances Stetson, of the St. John club, made the lowest qualifying score. Miss Sidney Smith and Mrs. E. A. Smith, also of the St. John club, are well in the championship round. Miss McGivern and Mrs. Schofield, with many other good players, were counted in the second sixteen and will play in the consolation match.

Yesterday afternoon was beautifully fine and the course in excellent condition, and altogether the opening of the tournament was all that could be desired.

IN THE POLICE COURT
Thirteen on the Bench This Morning. Nearly all on Drunkenness Charge

No less than thirteen prisoners faced Judge Ritchie in the police court this morning. Eleven of these were arrested on drunkenness charges, and the other two had more serious charges to face. Those charged with drunkenness were Harry Stackhouse, Cornelius O'Leary, Daniel O'Leary, Seymour Cole, James Finnegan, Subal Carvell, Wilfred Wannamaker, Brant Gibson, Harry Trzasa, Joseph Barry and Thomas McCann. All pleaded guilty except Wannamaker and Gibson, and were fined $8 or thirty days in jail. Daniel O'Leary was fined an additional $8 for profanity. Gibson and Wannamaker were both remanded.

Gibson is a negro, and tried to commit suicide in his cell in the police station last night by hanging himself from a girder. He was discovered by Policeman McLaren and was cut down. In court this morning he appeared to be very repentant.

The other two prisoners were John Durham, charged with being drunk, profane and resisting the police, and Chester Graham, charged with being drunk, resisting the police and also with stealing $45 from the court that he came down from Sussex yesterday. He said he did not know anything about resisting or profanity. Police-constable Moran told of the charges on the charge of resisting.

Graham pleaded not guilty to all three charges. County Constable Moran told of the making the arrest yesterday morning. He said that Graham was drunk and that he also resisted. Harris had told him that Graham had taken his money.

James Harris of Silver Falls, told of meeting the defendant and several other men on Sunday afternoon last and of taking several drinks out of a bottle that they

EARLY OUT TO BID FAREWELL TO THE PREMIER

Crowd Gathered at Prince Rupert Wharf—Sir Wilfrid, From Deck, Views Scenes of Harbor Improvements

Quite a number of people, men and women, on the early hour and the dampness of the morning, assembled at the D. A. R. pier before the sailing of the S. S. Prince Rupert this morning to wave a farewell to Canada's greatest son, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, as he left St. John on his way to Dabry, N. S. Several interested eyes took in his every movement, and "Here he is," or "There he is," "How well he looks," or "Other similar expressions were heard on all sides.

Accompanied by Hon. Charles Macle, Mr. Lemaire, his secretary, and Mr. Wall, his assistant secretary, Sir Wilfrid drove in a cab to the wharf, and went aboard the steamer. Several newspaper correspondents who have been accompanying the party on their tour, also went with them today. Fog had settled quite heavily, so that the try did not promise to be pleasant so far as the weather was concerned, but the premier staid on the deck until the boat was well out of the harbor, viewing the scene of the many improvements which his party had made since his last visit here.

The Prince Rupert was taken up to within hauling distance of the I. C. R. piers before the turn in the harbor was made, and then she steamed gracefully on her way across the bay, presenting a picturesque appearance, belocked in streamers, flags and bunting, and carrying on the world's greatest statesman on his triumphant tour through the maritime provinces.

ATTENDANCE AT THE PLAYGROUNDS AVERAGED 91

Greatest Number on Centennial Grounds in One Day 681—Report of the Supervisor

Miss Maxwell, supervisor of the Centennial playground, has submitted the following report for the season—

To the Committee of the Centennial Playground:

I submit herewith the following report for the months of July and August of the present year. As you probably know, it is the aim of the playground supervisor and her assistants to direct the children in their play without interfering with their enjoyment and to afford them also an opportunity for instruction in work that is both useful and pleasant.

Those visiting the playgrounds find the children happily engaged in croquet, swinging, sand work, basket ball, other games, or they gather under the tent to make some article which they may carry home. This work consists of weaving mats, sewing cards, making paper chains, stringing straws and beads, crocheting berles, and making quilts and bags of all of which you may see samples up stairs.

The working of baskets under direction of Miss Bertie Turner, has been very gratifying. The older boys and girls have shown great interest in the work, and have fashioned eighty-eight baskets, sixty-three raffia baskets, besides hat pins, coat hangers, and dolls' hats.

The average attendance has been 491. The largest number present on a day being 681. Among this large number the behavior has been uniformly good, and with the older boys and girls there has been a general disposition to be helpful.

In conclusion I wish to acknowledge the efficient aid and constant co-operation of my fellow workers, Miss Bertie Turner, Mrs. Chisholm, Miss Jean Maxwell and Mr. Hill, and express our thanks for all gifts and donations made to the playgrounds through us.

Respectfully submitted,
JANET MAXWELL,
Supervisor.

Two Navy Men Killed

Washington, D. C., Aug. 29.—Word received at the navy department today is that two seamen, Wm. A. Creech and Wilton D. Mckey, had been killed on the battleship Ohio, as the result of an accident to the anchor gear. The Ohio is in Chesapeake Bay participating in the practice of the Atlantic fleet.

had. He said he then fell asleep and when he woke up he missed $15. He would not swear that Graham took the money, and said that he did not want to prosecute the prisoner. He was told, however, to be in court tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock when the case will be continued.

Alexander Hargarten was charged with assaulting Sterling Kennedy, a young boy, on the corner of Camden and Portland streets on Sunday night last. He pleaded not guilty. Kennedy swore that the defendant came along and kicked him on the hip. His brother Robert corroborated this evidence. Hargarten sought to have the case adjourned in order to secure some witnesses. The request was granted, and the case will come up tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

James Boyd, charged with not having a light on a pile of lumber belonging to him in Wentworth street on Thursday night last, was fined $2.
