INSANITY PLEAS BECOMING FARCE

Justice Lennox Tells of Filmy Excuses Upon Which Accused Persons Are Freed.

LONDON, Ont., March 28.—"This thing of insanity pleas in murder trials is becoming a farce," declared Justice Lennox in his address to the grand jury at the opening of the Spring Assizes of the Supreme Court. There were no criminal cases before the court, and the judge felt free to speak his mind in the light of instances of insanity pleas within the past year in various parts of Ontario. He told the jurors an instance of a farmer informing his wife that a prisoner's defense proved insanity by 18 counts, to which the lady replied, "Well, Timothy, you have nine of them."

A year ago, in the Topping case, the judge recalled, he had expressed his mind to the doctors who gave evidence for the prisoner, who was subsequently convicted and hanged.

"These filmy excuses of insanity deposed to by members of the prisoner's family are a means of defrauding justice," he declared. "Well disposed citizens should be careful in this matter. The jurors of our country must find the guilty guilty and the innocent innocent." Topping, he said, had held Didsdale, another Londoner, up as a hero in Strathroy because Didsdale had killed a girl in a supposed love affair and had escaped on the plea of insanity.

AWARD NEW SUIT TO RUNAWAY HERO

Bravery of Invalid Veteran Recognized Handsomely by Triple C. Tailors.

Walter Gallagher risked his life, bruised his body and ruined his clothes dragging a hundred yards from the rear of a stampeding horse yesterday afternoon. But he saved the helpless woman in the carriage.

Unfortunately, the thanks of the rescued lady and that of the rig owner could not include a new suit, and so the returned soldier continued on his way from the County Hospital home to Sussex.

Today, however, the war-bent invalid is being notified that his extraordinary heroism is more than its own reward. The Triple C Tailors, a Saint John exponent of first prominence, have sent Mr. Gallagher their congratulations and an invitation to select any suit he likes, with their compliments. This is by no means the first time this season that these popular tailors have donated clothing to the deserving. It is understood the special circumstances of the case make their generosity most welcome.

Beer and Better Roads Are Counted Big Drawing Cards.

ST. CATHERINES, Ont., March 27.—With beer on this side regarded as palatable to Americans, and with highways better advertised than ever before, word was received by the Chamber of Commerce today, that the tourist traffic on the Niagara Highway system would smash all records this coming summer. St. Catharines will co-operate with the Hamilton Chamber of Commerce in bringing blossom week in the fruit district, to the fore, while an energetic mercantile programme is mapped out here to take advantage of the increasing tourist trade.

CONFER ON GRAND FALLS POWER PLAN

Premier Meets N. B. Commission Members in Return From Van Buren.

BY D. LEO DOLAN
Special correspondent of The Times-Star
FREDERICTON, March 27.—Premier Veniot this afternoon held a brief conference with Hon. Dr. E. A. Smith, chairman of the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission; H. G. Acres, consulting engineer; S. R. Weston, chief engineer, and J. D. P. Lewin, solicitor of the Power Commission.
Hon. Dr. Smith and his colleagues returned here at noon from Van Buren, Me., where they were attending the hearing before the joint International Waterways Commission of the province's application respecting the proposed Grand Falls hydro development.
The Premier said after the conference today that matters relating to the development and the hearing at Van Buren had been discussed at some length, but declared there was nothing further to give to the public at this time.

King Cabinet Appeal Hinted By McMurray

WINNIPEG, March 27.—A Federal election some time during the present year is anticipated in a letter sent to the Manitoba Liberal Association by Hon. E. J. McMurray, Solicitor-General.

The communication, which was read at a meeting of the organization today, suggested that an appeal to the country would be most auspicious following prorogation of the House.

At an endurance test, the audience grew less and less until a speaker arose with only one man in front of him. "My dear sir," began the speaker, "the courtesy you have shown me in remaining to hear my speech," "Oh," replied the man addressed, "I deserve no thanks, I'm the next speaker."

Winds and Complexions
How quickly the Spring winds dry up your skin and make it rough and coarse!

At no other season of the year must you be more careful if you are to preserve the beauty of your complexion.
The use of Hinds Honey and Almond Cream should become a part of your daily program. At frequent intervals during the day, rub a few drops into the skin with the tips of the fingers. The results are almost magical. Every particle of roughness and redness is removed. The bloom of glorious youth comes to your cheeks and stays. The skin is refreshed, invigorated; kept soft, smooth and clear, and protected from the scorching punishment of wind and sun.
Keep a bottle of Hinds Cream in bathroom, bedroom and kitchen. Apply it frequently during every day. It will help you retain a youthful complexion.
