WEDDINGS.

Master Harry Ball, aged 12, son of C. P. Ball, of Northampton, Carleton Co., recently obtained first prize for a story published in the Montreal Family Herald.

How is this?

The Sydney Herald of Feb. 10th says: "Our harbor is still beautifully clear and all incline to the opinion that the back-house of the 'Ice' is broken."

Wm. G. Clark, of Kentville, and Miss C. Gordon, of Cornwallis, were married on Tuesday. The bride is young, handsome and wealthy, and the groom is a young man.

Mrs. J. J. Davies yesterday morning showed a Carleton Examiner reporter some beautiful stalks of ribwort rye grass which she had raised in a small water tank.

Captain Thomas Starkie and Miss Mabel R. H., of this port, were married at 12 o'clock on Tuesday. The bride is young and beautiful, and the groom is a young man.

Mr. R. H. Tennant, No. 63 Charlotte street, is early to the front with all the latest novelties in gentlemen's finishing goods. Tennant's shirts have long led the lead in this market, and still stand unrivaled for excellence in English and French make.
