

THE STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B. SATURDAY, AUGUST 17, 1907.

BRILLIANT DISPLAY AT ROCKWOOD PARK HONOR OF GOVERNOR GENERAL

Twenty-five Thousand People Watched Demonstration Which Marked End of Earl Grey's Visit to St. John—Vice Regal Party Visited Ellinor Farm—Left for St. Andrews Last Night Where Sunday Will Be Spent.

At a quarter to twelve last night the Earl and Countess of Grey, accompanied by Lady Grey, the Ladies Sybil and Evelyn Grey, and suite left on a special for St. Andrews, where they will be guests at the Algonquin Hotel over Sunday. Ideal weather marked the last day of the visit of the representatives of royalty in this city.

Visited Ellinor Farm

Their Excellencies received a hearty country welcome when they visited the Ellinor farm at Nauygewauk. They were accompanied from St. John by Governor and Mrs. Tweedie, Mrs. G. Holt White, Mrs. Sears and Secretaries Sladen and Barber.

Sixteen young men from the village had formed themselves into a guard of honor and they led in the cheering that greeted the appearance of the visitors. Proceeded by this guard and accompanied by Miss Close, Earl and Lady Grey and their party walked to the house and when a short distance away, his lordship the Bishop Coadjutor, who with many others on the veranda, started God Save the King. Between ranks of smiling, singing children and men and women, the visitors slowly made their way.

Miss Close gave them a cordial welcome and introduced first the chairman of the local committee, Mrs. Elmon Armstrong, and other members, including Revs. Messrs. Whalley of Hampton and Daniel of Rothesay, and Messrs. Simeon Armstrong, R. G. Flewelling, Benjamin Hill and Miss Mabel Gilbert and H. Thompson of Rothesay.

Their Excellencies passed every one at their ease at once in a leisurely manner proceeded to inspect the house and farm. While upon this interesting mission the large number of ladies and gentlemen on the grounds did ample justice to the tea and good things provided for the occasion.

His Excellency and the Countess did not forget the children of the home. They were brought to them during their inspection trip with only the committee present and some inquiries made of each, and where each had come from. The children answered readily. His Excellency made particular inquiry as to whether their weights had been noted when they left the old country, and how much each had gained. To one particularly hearty and healthy girl he jocularly remarked that he was quite sure she was underfed.

His Excellency did not confine his interest to the children. The stock and horses claimed a share of his attention, and the prices paid for the animals was among the information asked for and given.

A little later he and his private secretary, accompanied by the guard of honor, walked briskly to the top of the hill and viewed the surrounding country. From that vantage point they could see nearly the whole of the 180 acres that are in the farm, and that part of it that is under cultivation.

Shortly after the return of His Excellency and after brief discussion of the dairy refreshments, his honor Governor Tweedie stepped forward and in a few words introduced the Governor General, who made a brief but short speech. He told them at the start how glad he was to be here. He had heard of the Ellinor farm in England, and had determined to pay it a personal visit. From the reports that reached him he was convinced that the ladies interested in this movement were doing a great work. Three parties were reaping the benefit—the children, England and Canada. Any one who had seen the children in the streets of London and then a year after and noted their physical condition could not doubt the ability of Canada to rear a vigorous and God-fearing race.

Miss Close had asked him, he said, to thank the people in the vicinity, the farmers, and their sons and daughters, who had assisted her so ably. They were willing and glad to accept the English children as neighbors, and he hoped the day would come when there would be many home farms such as this and thousands of children coming to Canada to occupy them and make their homes here in the future.

He was greeted with hearty applause throughout his speech, at the close of which he called for three cheers for Mrs. and Miss Close and the ladies who assisted them, which were heartily given.

There were cheers for the governor general and Premier Tweedie, and after the farewells the party proceeded to the waiting motor car. Here the Earl and Countess thanked and shook hands with their bodyguard and amid repeated cheering the car started for St. John.

Through the foresight of the committee and the kindness of the I. C. R. management the Pacific express was stopped at the new siding and took the large number of visitors to Rothesay and St. John.

Among those present from the city and elsewhere were Senator Ellis, Judge R. J. Ritchie, L. P. D. Tilley, T. W. Bell, Leam Schofield, Dr. Warfield, Co-adjutor Bishop Richardson, John Porter, John Wainmanaker, Wm. Dodge, Isaac Saunders, Maxwell Lodge and J. C. A. Henderson of Moncton.

The guard of honor included Wilfrid Daniels, Reuben, Willie, Ralph, Guy, Lawson and Warren Wainmanaker, Roy Bonnie, Silas Alden, Geo. Dodge, Jr., Lee Dodge, Percy Dodge, John Duffy, Henry Henderson, Irvine and Linus Appleby.

They made a fine bodyguard and their appearance and prompt attention upon the occasion occasioned much favorable comment.

The absence of formality and the gracious tact of the visitors made the affair more enjoyable than any one had anticipated, and the afternoon will be long and pleasantly remembered by all who attended.

Their visit to Rockwood Park In the evening their excellencies visited Rockwood Park, and never in history did that popular place witness a more brilliant display of lights and special decorations made for the occasion. The fireworks and the illumination on the lake were much enjoyed by the assembled crowds.

The decorations on the pavilion which were designed by E. S. Cray were very fitting. The word "Welcome" was displayed in electric lights above the door while the windows of the balcony of the pavilion where they were witnessed the display of fireworks. Those in the party last evening were His Excellency Earl Grey, Lady Sybil and Lady Evelyn, Captain Newton, Mayor and Mrs. Sears, the Misses Sears and Miss Evelyn. Lady Grey was unable to be present owing to a slight indisposition.

As the party were being received a set piece of fireworks was shown on the lake. A procession of illuminated boats and canoes then took place while fire works were set off from a scow. The whole scene was one of great beauty the colored lights revealing the great crowd gathered on all points around the lake. A sham battle between the Kitties and the fleet of boats added to the effectiveness of the demonstration. Scarcely had a finer display of fireworks been seen in this city. A set piece showing a beaver was shown during the display, and later on with "Good Night."

Earl Grey and his party on several occasions expressed themselves as being delighted with the demonstration. His Excellency said he had been much impressed while visiting New Brunswick and hoped to visit it again in the near future.

The vice-regal party left the casino

Fall Opening!

Monday and Tuesday we open a new stock of Men's Suits, Fall Overcoats, Raincoats and other Ready-made Garments. We think we have the most stylish, best fitting, best tailored clothing to be had in Canada. 20th Century Brand—the opinion too, of those in the leading cities and elsewhere. We invite you to come in and see what we are showing for the fall season. We show other good makes of clothing, as well, but we are sole agents for 20th Century Brand.

Prices Range from $10 to $25.

Our showing of Fall Cloths for Custom Tailored garments is very comprehensive. A specialty is a $25 suit of Tweed, Worsted or Blue Serge, and a $25 winter Overcoat of Cheviot or Melton.

An Early Visit will be Esteemed.

A. GILMOUR, - 68 King Street,

CRUSHED TO DEATH BY FALLING DERRICK

NEWCASTLE, N. B., Aug. 16.—Further details of the accident at the Indian quarry this morning show that the derrick was too heavily loaded. The mast broke, and the boom, about eighty-seven feet long, fell, carrying away another derrick and striking the car, which was badly damaged. The derrick was broken in two, and the car was crushed to death. The driver, John O'Brien, had his back broken and head bruised. Steward had both legs broken twice, both arms broken, neck broken and the top of his head cut. Wm. Jardine and Addison Stewart were standing on the car and were knocked off by the falling boom. Jardine's leg was broken. Dr. Pedolin of Newcastle arrived and Dr. McManus, Blackville, attended to Stewart, and Dr. Coleman soon followed from Red Bank.

Among those present from the city and elsewhere were Senator Ellis, Judge R. J. Ritchie, L. P. D. Tilley, T. W. Bell, Leam Schofield, Dr. Warfield, Co-adjutor Bishop Richardson, John Porter, John Wainmanaker, Wm. Dodge, Isaac Saunders, Maxwell Lodge and J. C. A. Henderson of Moncton.

The guard of honor included Wilfrid Daniels, Reuben, Willie, Ralph, Guy, Lawson and Warren Wainmanaker, Roy Bonnie, Silas Alden, Geo. Dodge, Jr., Lee Dodge, Percy Dodge, John Duffy, Henry Henderson, Irvine and Linus Appleby.

They made a fine bodyguard and their appearance and prompt attention upon the occasion occasioned much favorable comment.

The absence of formality and the gracious tact of the visitors made the affair more enjoyable than any one had anticipated, and the afternoon will be long and pleasantly remembered by all who attended.

Their visit to Rockwood Park

In the evening their excellencies visited Rockwood Park, and never in history did that popular place witness a more brilliant display of lights and special decorations made for the occasion. The fireworks and the illumination on the lake were much enjoyed by the assembled crowds.

The decorations on the pavilion which were designed by E. S. Cray were very fitting. The word "Welcome" was displayed in electric lights above the door while the windows of the balcony of the pavilion where they were witnessed the display of fireworks. Those in the party last evening were His Excellency Earl Grey, Lady Sybil and Lady Evelyn, Captain Newton, Mayor and Mrs. Sears, the Misses Sears and Miss Evelyn. Lady Grey was unable to be present owing to a slight indisposition.

As the party were being received a set piece of fireworks was shown on the lake. A procession of illuminated boats and canoes then took place while fire works were set off from a scow. The whole scene was one of great beauty the colored lights revealing the great crowd gathered on all points around the lake. A sham battle between the Kitties and the fleet of boats added to the effectiveness of the demonstration. Scarcely had a finer display of fireworks been seen in this city. A set piece showing a beaver was shown during the display, and later on with "Good Night."

Earl Grey and his party on several occasions expressed themselves as being delighted with the demonstration. His Excellency said he had been much impressed while visiting New Brunswick and hoped to visit it again in the near future.

The vice-regal party left the casino

At 10 p. m. amid hearty cheers and were escorted by the Scots Brigade, who acted as a guard of honor. His Excellency on behalf of his party thanked Col. Buchanan for the services the Boys' Brigade rendered. Leaving the park the party proceeded to the station escorted by Chief Clark where they boarded their private cars Cornwall and York.

Thanked Chief Clark

On reaching the station the Earl left his barouche and went over to Chief Clark, who was on horseback, and shook hands with him, thanking him heartily for his escort and saying he very much appreciated his kindness in keeping away some of the more inquisitive followers.

Left City at 11.45 P. M.

The Governor-General's special left at 11.45, immediately on the arrival of the Boston train, which was behind time. The train, which included four cars, was in charge of Conductor J. H. Napier. The engine used was 417, with Murray Campbell as engineer, Baggemaster Shaw and brakeman Geo. Costley formed the rest of the crew. Train Dispatcher Brown accompanied the party to St. John.

Yesterday's part of the programme was carried out with little discord, although for a time a repetition of the late troubles were expected. Through some misunderstanding arrangements were made by Mayor Sears for the park celebration without consultation with the Horticultural Association, and the directors are said to have been overpleased with the slight. The little difficulty, however, was overcome.

A most unfortunate misunderstanding prevented Earl and Lady Grey from seeing the supervised playgrounds on the Victoria grounds in full swing yesterday afternoon. On their return from Nauygewauk at six o'clock they went in a barouche, accompanied by Senator Ellis, to the grounds, expecting to find Miss Peters there, with the teachers and children. But Miss Peters, who had an interview with their excellencies at the Royal in the morning, had evidently misunderstood them, and had returned to Westfield. The car had left the grounds, and only Miss Robertson, one of the teachers, was there when the distinguished visitors came.

They were greatly disappointed, as both Earl and Lady Grey manifested the keenest interest in the supervised playground work. It was also a great disappointment to the children, who were thus deprived of an opportunity to see their excellencies.

At 10 p. m. amid hearty cheers and were escorted by the Scots Brigade, who acted as a guard of honor. His Excellency on behalf of his party thanked Col. Buchanan for the services the Boys' Brigade rendered. Leaving the park the party proceeded to the station escorted by Chief Clark where they boarded their private cars Cornwall and York.

Thanked Chief Clark

On reaching the station the Earl left his barouche and went over to Chief Clark, who was on horseback, and shook hands with him, thanking him heartily for his escort and saying he very much appreciated his kindness in keeping away some of the more inquisitive followers.

Left City at 11.45 P. M.

The Governor-General's special left at 11.45, immediately on the arrival of the Boston train, which was behind time. The train, which included four cars, was in charge of Conductor J. H. Napier. The engine used was 417, with Murray Campbell as engineer, Baggemaster Shaw and brakeman Geo. Costley formed the rest of the crew. Train Dispatcher Brown accompanied the party to St. John.

Yesterday's part of the programme was carried out with little discord, although for a time a repetition of the late troubles were expected. Through some misunderstanding arrangements were made by Mayor Sears for the park celebration without consultation with the Horticultural Association, and the directors are said to have been overpleased with the slight. The little difficulty, however, was overcome.

A most unfortunate misunderstanding prevented Earl and Lady Grey from seeing the supervised playgrounds on the Victoria grounds in full swing yesterday afternoon. On their return from Nauygewauk at six o'clock they went in a barouche, accompanied by Senator Ellis, to the grounds, expecting to find Miss Peters there, with the teachers and children. But Miss Peters, who had an interview with their excellencies at the Royal in the morning, had evidently misunderstood them, and had returned to Westfield. The car had left the grounds, and only Miss Robertson, one of the teachers, was there when the distinguished visitors came.

They were greatly disappointed, as both Earl and Lady Grey manifested the keenest interest in the supervised playground work. It was also a great disappointment to the children, who were thus deprived of an opportunity to see their excellencies.

DROWNING ACCIDENT AT MAHONE BAY

HALIFAX, N. S., Aug. 16.—A drowning accident occurred at Mahone Bay, whereby Gilbert Wentzell lost his life, and John Rhodenizer was saved just as he was about sinking. The lads were out sailing and a squall struck the boat, and the sheet being lashed flat, the boat was unable to weather the squalls and sank stern first. Rhodenizer caught a piece of board, which kept him afloat until rescued, but he was in an exhausted condition. Wentzell kept afloat for a few minutes and then sank. The boys had their trunks packed ready to leave Friday for Winnipeg. Wentzell was just fifteen years of age.

Among those present from the city and elsewhere were Senator Ellis, Judge R. J. Ritchie, L. P. D. Tilley, T. W. Bell, Leam Schofield, Dr. Warfield, Co-adjutor Bishop Richardson, John Porter, John Wainmanaker, Wm. Dodge, Isaac Saunders, Maxwell Lodge and J. C. A. Henderson of Moncton.

The guard of honor included Wilfrid Daniels, Reuben, Willie, Ralph, Guy, Lawson and Warren Wainmanaker, Roy Bonnie, Silas Alden, Geo. Dodge, Jr., Lee Dodge, Percy Dodge, John Duffy, Henry Henderson, Irvine and Linus Appleby.

They made a fine bodyguard and their appearance and prompt attention upon the occasion occasioned much favorable comment.

The absence of formality and the gracious tact of the visitors made the affair more enjoyable than any one had anticipated, and the afternoon will be long and pleasantly remembered by all who attended.

Their visit to Rockwood Park

In the evening their excellencies visited Rockwood Park, and never in history did that popular place witness a more brilliant display of lights and special decorations made for the occasion. The fireworks and the illumination on the lake were much enjoyed by the assembled crowds.

The decorations on the pavilion which were designed by E. S. Cray were very fitting. The word "Welcome" was displayed in electric lights above the door while the windows of the balcony of the pavilion where they were witnessed the display of fireworks. Those in the party last evening were His Excellency Earl Grey, Lady Sybil and Lady Evelyn, Captain Newton, Mayor and Mrs. Sears, the Misses Sears and Miss Evelyn. Lady Grey was unable to be present owing to a slight indisposition.

As the party were being received a set piece of fireworks was shown on the lake. A procession of illuminated boats and canoes then took place while fire works were set off from a scow. The whole scene was one of great beauty the colored lights revealing the great crowd gathered on all points around the lake. A sham battle between the Kitties and the fleet of boats added to the effectiveness of the demonstration. Scarcely had a finer display of fireworks been seen in this city. A set piece showing a beaver was shown during the display, and later on with "Good Night."

Earl Grey and his party on several occasions expressed themselves as being delighted with the demonstration. His Excellency said he had been much impressed while visiting New Brunswick and hoped to visit it again in the near future.

The vice-regal party left the casino

At 10 p. m. amid hearty cheers and were escorted by the Scots Brigade, who acted as a guard of honor. His Excellency on behalf of his party thanked Col. Buchanan for the services the Boys' Brigade rendered. Leaving the park the party proceeded to the station escorted by Chief Clark where they boarded their private cars Cornwall and York.

Thanked Chief Clark

On reaching the station the Earl left his barouche and went over to Chief Clark, who was on horseback, and shook hands with him, thanking him heartily for his escort and saying he very much appreciated his kindness in keeping away some of the more inquisitive followers.

Left City at 11.45 P. M.

The Governor-General's special left at 11.45, immediately on the arrival of the Boston train, which was behind time. The train, which included four cars, was in charge of Conductor J. H. Napier. The engine used was 417, with Murray Campbell as engineer, Baggemaster Shaw and brakeman Geo. Costley formed the rest of the crew. Train Dispatcher Brown accompanied the party to St. John.

Yesterday's part of the programme was carried out with little discord, although for a time a repetition of the late troubles were expected. Through some misunderstanding arrangements were made by Mayor Sears for the park celebration without consultation with the Horticultural Association, and the directors are said to have been overpleased with the slight. The little difficulty, however, was overcome.

A most unfortunate misunderstanding prevented Earl and Lady Grey from seeing the supervised playgrounds on the Victoria grounds in full swing yesterday afternoon. On their return from Nauygewauk at six o'clock they went in a barouche, accompanied by Senator Ellis, to the grounds, expecting to find Miss Peters there, with the teachers and children. But Miss Peters, who had an interview with their excellencies at the Royal in the morning, had evidently misunderstood them, and had returned to Westfield. The car had left the grounds, and only Miss Robertson, one of the teachers, was there when the distinguished visitors came.

They were greatly disappointed, as both Earl and Lady Grey manifested the keenest interest in the supervised playground work. It was also a great disappointment to the children, who were thus deprived of an opportunity to see their excellencies.

At 10 p. m. amid hearty cheers and were escorted by the Scots Brigade, who acted as a guard of honor. His Excellency on behalf of his party thanked Col. Buchanan for the services the Boys' Brigade rendered. Leaving the park the party proceeded to the station escorted by Chief Clark where they boarded their private cars Cornwall and York.

Thanked Chief Clark

On reaching the station the Earl left his barouche and went over to Chief Clark, who was on horseback, and shook hands with him, thanking him heartily for his escort and saying he very much appreciated his kindness in keeping away some of the more inquisitive followers.

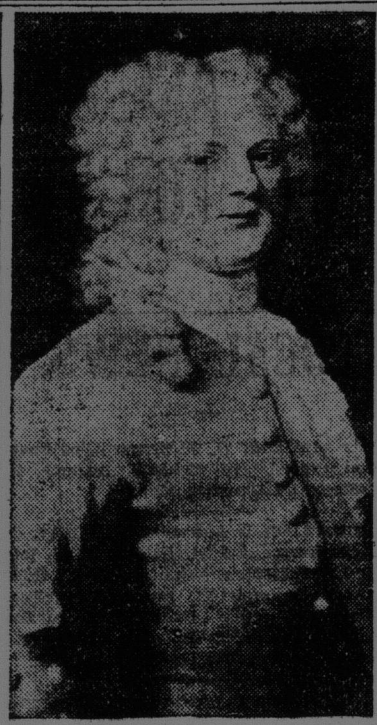

Left City at 11.45 P. M.

The Governor-General's special left at 11.45, immediately on the arrival of the Boston train, which was behind time. The train, which included four cars, was in charge of Conductor J. H. Napier. The engine used was 417, with Murray Campbell as engineer, Baggemaster Shaw and brakeman Geo. Costley formed the rest of the crew. Train Dispatcher Brown accompanied the party to St. John.

Yesterday's part of the programme was carried out with little discord, although for a time a repetition of the late troubles were expected. Through some misunderstanding arrangements were made by Mayor Sears for the park celebration without consultation with the Horticultural Association, and the directors are said to have been overpleased with the slight. The little difficulty, however, was overcome.

A most unfortunate misunderstanding prevented Earl and Lady Grey from seeing the supervised playgrounds on the Victoria grounds in full swing yesterday afternoon. On their return from Nauygewauk at six o'clock they went in a barouche, accompanied by Senator Ellis, to the grounds, expecting to find Miss Peters there, with the teachers and children. But Miss Peters, who had an interview with their excellencies at the Royal in the morning, had evidently misunderstood them, and had returned to Westfield. The car had left the grounds, and only Miss Robertson, one of the teachers, was there when the distinguished visitors came.

They were greatly disappointed, as both Earl and Lady Grey manifested the keenest interest in the supervised playground work. It was also a great disappointment to the children, who were thus deprived of an opportunity to see their excellencies.

LONDON, Aug. 16.—The above portrait of William Penn, the founder of Pennsylvania, painted by Sir Godfrey Kneller, is at present on exhibition at the Graves Gallery in Pall Mall, and has been admired by hundreds of American tourists this summer. It was discovered hanging in an old rectory in Westmorland, where it has been for more than eighty years, and its existence had almost been forgotten. By a peculiar coincidence, the painting was hung in this city on the two hundredth anniversary of William Penn's entrance into the Fleet prison. It will be remembered that in 1707 William Penn was committed to mortgage his American property rights and eventually make overtures for the sale of them to the crown.

Among those present from the city and elsewhere were Senator Ellis, Judge R. J. Ritchie, L. P. D. Tilley, T. W. Bell, Leam Schofield, Dr. Warfield, Co-adjutor Bishop Richardson, John Porter, John Wainmanaker, Wm. Dodge, Isaac Saunders, Maxwell Lodge and J. C. A. Henderson of Moncton.

The guard of honor included Wilfrid Daniels, Reuben, Willie, Ralph, Guy, Lawson and Warren Wainmanaker, Roy Bonnie, Silas Alden, Geo. Dodge, Jr., Lee Dodge, Percy Dodge, John Duffy, Henry Henderson, Irvine and Linus Appleby.

They made a fine bodyguard and their appearance and prompt attention upon the occasion occasioned much favorable comment.

The absence of formality and the gracious tact of the visitors made the affair more enjoyable than any one had anticipated, and the afternoon will be long and pleasantly remembered by all who attended.

Their visit to Rockwood Park

In the evening their excellencies visited Rockwood Park, and never in history did that popular place witness a more brilliant display of lights and special decorations made for the occasion. The fireworks and the illumination on the lake were much enjoyed by the assembled crowds.

The decorations on the pavilion which were designed by E. S. Cray were very fitting. The word "Welcome" was displayed in electric lights above the door while the windows of the balcony of the pavilion where they were witnessed the display of fireworks. Those in the party last evening were His Excellency Earl Grey, Lady Sybil and Lady Evelyn, Captain Newton, Mayor and Mrs. Sears, the Misses Sears and Miss Evelyn. Lady Grey was unable to be present owing to a slight indisposition.

As the party were being received a set piece of fireworks was shown on the lake. A procession of illuminated boats and canoes then took place while fire works were set off from a scow. The whole scene was one of great beauty the colored lights revealing the great crowd gathered on all points around the lake. A sham battle between the Kitties and the fleet of boats added to the effectiveness of the demonstration. Scarcely had a finer display of fireworks been seen in this city. A set piece showing a beaver was shown during the display, and later on with "Good Night."

Earl Grey and his party on several occasions expressed themselves as being delighted with the demonstration. His Excellency said he had been much impressed while visiting New Brunswick and hoped to visit it again in the near future.

The vice-regal party left the casino

At 10 p. m. amid hearty cheers and were escorted by the Scots Brigade, who acted as a guard of honor. His Excellency on behalf of his party thanked Col. Buchanan for the services the Boys' Brigade rendered. Leaving the park the party proceeded to the station escorted by Chief Clark where they boarded their private cars Cornwall and York.

Thanked Chief Clark

On reaching the station the Earl left his barouche and went over to Chief Clark, who was on horseback, and shook hands with him, thanking him heartily for his escort and saying he very much appreciated his kindness in keeping away some of the more inquisitive followers.

Left City at 11.45 P. M.

The Governor-General's special left at 11.45, immediately on the arrival of the Boston train, which was behind time. The train, which included four cars, was in charge of Conductor J. H. Napier. The engine used was 417, with Murray Campbell as engineer, Baggemaster Shaw and brakeman Geo. Costley formed the rest of the crew. Train Dispatcher Brown accompanied the party to St. John.

Yesterday's part of the programme was carried out with little discord, although for a time a repetition of the late troubles were expected. Through some misunderstanding arrangements were made by Mayor Sears for the park celebration without consultation with the Horticultural Association, and the directors are said to have been overpleased with the slight. The little difficulty, however, was overcome.

A most unfortunate misunderstanding prevented Earl and Lady Grey from seeing the supervised playgrounds on the Victoria grounds in full swing yesterday afternoon. On their return from Nauygewauk at six o'clock they went in a barouche, accompanied by Senator Ellis, to the grounds, expecting to find Miss Peters there, with the teachers and children. But Miss Peters, who had an interview with their excellencies at the Royal in the morning, had evidently misunderstood them, and had returned to Westfield. The car had left the grounds, and only Miss Robertson, one of the teachers, was there when the distinguished visitors came.

They were greatly disappointed, as both Earl and Lady Grey manifested the keenest interest in the supervised playground work. It was also a great disappointment to the children, who were thus deprived of an opportunity to see their excellencies.

At 10 p. m. amid hearty cheers and were escorted by the Scots Brigade, who acted as a guard of honor. His Excellency on behalf of his party thanked Col. Buchanan for the services the Boys' Brigade rendered. Leaving the park the party proceeded to the station escorted by Chief Clark where they boarded their private cars Cornwall and York.

Thanked Chief Clark

On reaching the station the Earl left his barouche and went over to Chief Clark, who was on horseback, and shook hands with him, thanking him heartily for his escort and saying he very much appreciated his kindness in keeping away some of the more inquisitive followers.

Left City at 11.45 P. M.

The Governor-General's special left at 11.45, immediately on the arrival of the Boston train, which was behind time. The train, which included four cars, was in charge of Conductor J. H. Napier. The engine used was 417, with Murray Campbell as engineer, Baggemaster Shaw and brakeman Geo. Costley formed the rest of the crew. Train Dispatcher Brown accompanied the party to St. John.

Yesterday's part of the programme was carried out with little discord, although for a time a repetition of the late troubles were expected. Through some misunderstanding arrangements were made by Mayor Sears for the park celebration without consultation with the Horticultural Association, and the directors are said to have been overpleased with the slight. The little difficulty, however, was overcome.

A most unfortunate misunderstanding prevented Earl and Lady Grey from seeing the supervised playgrounds on the Victoria grounds in full swing yesterday afternoon. On their return from Nauygewauk at six o'clock they went in a barouche, accompanied by Senator Ellis, to the grounds, expecting to find Miss Peters there, with the teachers and children. But Miss Peters, who had an interview with their excellencies at the Royal in the morning, had evidently misunderstood them, and had returned to Westfield. The car had left the grounds, and only Miss Robertson, one of the teachers, was there when the distinguished visitors came.

They were greatly disappointed, as both Earl and Lady Grey manifested the keenest interest in the supervised playground work. It was also a great disappointment to the children, who were thus deprived of an opportunity to see their excellencies.

EXCELLENT WORK OF ST. JOHN MEN AT MEET OF P. R. ASSOCIATION

J. F. Archibald Captures Governor General's Medal—Capt. Forbes First in Grand Aggregate—Smith and Bartlett Tie for Second Place—Latter Wins in Shoot Off.

SUSSEX, N. B., Aug. 16.—The forty-first annual meet of the P. R. A. was brought to a close this afternoon, with the finishing of the Governor General's cup competition.

A large number of people attended the closing matches, which hung on until such a late hour that the presentation of prizes was made without ceremony, several of the riflemen wishing to leave for home on the 7 o'clock train.

This afternoon's proceedings were the busiest of the meet, two matches having been shot and several extra series were held. The success of the St. John riflemen is already well known and they increased their number of victories this afternoon.

Eight first prizes were taken by them during the meet. The winning of the grand aggregate contest by Capt. W. E. Forbes of the 73rd Regiment, places him the champion of the meet. He won first places in the McLean, Pugsley, grand aggregate, and D. O. C. matches.

Sergeant I. F. Archibald, of the 3rd R. C. A. of St. John, won three first prizes. He captured the Prince of Wales, Governor General's, and Robertson championship cups.

Sergeant Archibald is, therefore, a double winner of the P. R. A. meet. The following of Capt. Forbes' Pugsley match was commenced at 2.30 this afternoon. Capt. Forbes won it with 48 points.

The tie in the Fowler match, shot this morning, between H. H. Bartlett of the 74th Regiment and James Anderson of the 74th Regiment, was shot off this afternoon, after the Pugsley match. Mr. Bartlett won, defeating Mr. Anderson, 11 points to 3. Bartlett, therefore, won the Fowler cup.

The Governor General's medal was won by I. F. Archibald, who had a score of 245. James Anderson secured the medal in that contest, with 45. With the completion of the Governor General's match the final stage in the Robertson championship was ended. Sergeant I. F. Archibald was first, with 184 points, and Major J. T. Hart was second, with 182. H. H. Bartlett of the 74th Regiment, and Capt. E. A. Smith, R. L. of St. John, were tie for second place in the grand aggregate.

They shot off at 4.30 and Bartlett won. When these matches had been finished it was six o'clock and the winner of a cup procured their trophies without ceremony. A large number of riflemen left for their homes on the evening train. Captain S. S. Ogilvy has been range officer during the meet, and his assistance given to the press is appreciated.

Extra Series B.

Sergeant S. W. Smith, 6th Regiment, 110, 25 points; J. C. Sampson, Florenceville, 88, 25; Capt. J. Manning, St. John, 88, 25; Lieut. A. H. Meigs, 74th Regt., 88, 25; C. H. Kinnear, Moncton, 84, 25; Capt. H. E. Golding, 74th, 84, 25; P. A. Tolson, St. Stephen, 84, 25; F. R. Harty, Moncton, 83, 24; H. T. Douglas, Stanley, 83, 24; Major J. H. McRobbie, 83, 24; Major J. S. Harty, 83, 24; Major J. H. Arnold,