

Now's Your Chance!

Last week the great number of strangers in the city who were attracted to the Gigantic Sale of Boots and Shoes at our Union Street Store interfered to a large extent with city people. They crowded the store at all hours of the day.

This week we shall be in a better position to look after our city customers, and feel confident that the bargains we are offering are worthy of consideration. This large stock of thoroughly reliable footwear we were fortunate in buying at a very low price, and are determined on giving our customers a chance to provide themselves and families with needed footwear at a big saving.

Remember, that in many cases you can save, at least, half the original price on a pair of Boots.

Let's Listen to Reason.

Isn't it true that low prices alone fail to make clothing economical? Haven't you often noticed that a suit that was bought because it looked good, and was low in price, was rather unsatisfactory as an investment? Our many patrons know that the suits we sell are genuinely good, and that in that genuine goodness lies their true economy. But if YOU are not one of our patrons you may not realize the difference between such suits as our 20th Century line and others. The style may be the same or similar, but in the suits we sell there is something back of the outward and visible style—a firm foundation of solid worth—that keeps the suit shapely and retains its original elegance for an extremely long period.

We are now offering an extensive line of NEW Suits at $12.00, $13.50, $15, $18 and upwards to $28.00. We invite your most critical inspection, and in looking at them we want you to bear in mind that they will prove fully as good as they look. Really remarkable values in rain-or-shine Coats at $12.00 to $24.00. Fall Overcoats, $10.00 to $25.00.

KING'S VICTORY OVER SEAGRAM NOW ADMITTED

Nominated Amid Cheers MAKES FINE SPEECH
Membership Will Afford Him Greater Scope—Letter of Resignation

WATERLOO, Ont., Sept. 21.—W. L. McKenna King, Deputy-Minister of Labor, was unanimously elected to the North Waterloo Liberal convention held here this afternoon. The convention was largely attended and Mr. King's message of acceptance was received with prolonged applause. Mr. King spoke as follows:

My acceptance of the Liberal nomination in North Waterloo is a step which has not been taken without long and earnest consideration. My work of the past eight years, during which time the department of Labor has grown to be one of the most important departments of the government, has afforded me too many opportunities for public service and is too near my heart to be quickly or lightly parted from. Indeed, the serious responsibility involved in giving up a position of such great public usefulness has been realized so fully that were it not outweighed by the deepest of conviction as to what is at the present time a public duty, I would certainly not sever my connection with a department with which I have been associated from its very creation.

Affords Great Scope

Of these convictions there lies deepest perhaps the feeling that membership in the House of Commons would afford greater scope for furthering these very purposes for which the Department of Labor has been established—the promotion of industrial peace, the amelioration of social and industrial conditions, and the belief that the younger men of Canada should demonstrate their willingness to share more largely in their country's affairs and to be prepared to make sacrifices in order to bring about the realization of the better life. I have long felt that except as applied to the church, where their significance is perhaps more deeply felt, the duties of a citizen are not to be separated from the words of Goldwin Smith, that "Politics is the noblest of all callings, but it is the duty of all citizens to be prepared to make sacrifices in order to bring about the realization of the better life. I have long felt that except as applied to the church, where their significance is perhaps more deeply felt, the duties of a citizen are not to be separated from the words of Goldwin Smith, that "Politics is the noblest of all callings, but it is the duty of all citizens to be prepared to make sacrifices in order to bring about the realization of the better life."

FRENCH RESPECT MEMORY OF BISHOP CARMICHAEL

MONTREAL, Sept. 21.—A compliment was paid the English-speaking people of the city this afternoon when the city council adjourned as a token of respect for the memory of Bishop Carmichael, who died early this morning. The motion was presented by Alderman L. A. Lapointe, leader of the French section of the council, seconded by Alderman N. Gleroux, and read: "That this council has learned with deep regret of the demise of His Grace, Bishop Carmichael, and desire to offer to the adherents of the Anglican church of this diocese and the bereaved family, their most heartfelt sympathy in their sad bereavement. That the members of this council desire to place on record their appreciation of the sterling qualities of the deceased prelate, and that as a mark of respect for his memory this council do now adjourn."

This was unanimously adopted.

VERDI'S DIVINE AIRS ENTHRALL

Grand Opera Spectacularly Presented

IL TROVATORE
Miss Darling, Miss LeBaron and Others Score Tremendous Hits

Whether the experiment of grand opera in St. John will be sufficiently successful financially to justify the continuance of such productions is yet to be seen. There is, however, no doubt as to the appreciative qualities of local audiences nor of the ability of the Boston Opera singers to provide a thoroughly satisfactory interpretation of the best of this class of music. From the merits of the evening's performance it may be anticipated that the standard compositions billed for the week will all be produced in a manner at once entrancing and inspiring, and that St. John may hereafter be looked upon as a city in which the worthy efforts of accomplished singers will not lack due appreciation. This is St. John's first experience of grand opera, and although metropolitan surroundings are naturally not provided, yet the knowledge that annual engagements such as this may be enjoyed if the people do intense expressions, her rendition was beyond criticism.

Mr. Alberti, baritone, and Mr. Paul, tenor, received unstinted applause for their satisfactory work throughout. In Il Trovatore the principal vocal demands are made upon Leonore and Azucena, yet the count and Manrico were heard to fine advantage in several solo parts, and were well served of the applause which greeted them. Mr. Boyle, basso, rendered most acceptably a minor part.

The orchestra in large and capable, the conducting was all that could be desired, and the singers appeared to be perfectly at home in their work. The only criticism that can be offered is that there were a number of untidy chairs in the theatre. All should have been filled. Such opportunities as the present one are rare in St. John, and if a grand opera season is to become an annual feature, generous patronage must be extended. There should be a crowded house this evening, when Gounod's masterpiece, Faust, will be presented.

commendations from the leading American booking houses. Mr. Courtain, the newly engaged baritone, made an excellent impression in a pretty illustrated solo entitled, "There Never Was a Girl Like You." This was Mr. Courtain's first appearance and he has made a decided success. The Broncho Buster is a wild western song that is nicely illustrated, and sung as only the ever popular Harry Newcombe can render it. Four very strong pictures are shown, "The Organ Grinder's Dream" is a film that shows some very clever acting, and this dramatic picture is exceptionally well set. "The Ill-famed MUI" is a melodramatic picture that shows some most pathetic and startling scenes. "A Poor Family Holiday" is the title of a comedy picture that is full of fun.

"The Inane Mother" is the title of a dramatic picture that is most pathetic, and deals with some very touching scenes. The Princess programme is an exceptional one that warrants big houses for the remainder of the week.

HAPPY HALF HOUR.

The new programme at the Happy Half Hour was witnessed by large crowds. Miss Holmes by request sang Bobolink, and, as before, made a hit. Mr. Buchanan sang Jean in his usual splendid manner, both singers receiving applause. The Steeple Chase Race was promised to see here, and it is to see a field of 20 horses start off, jumping hedges, fences and ditches with every few minutes a horse and rider down is certainly exciting. A number of local horsemen came to see this picture, and one said "It's worth a half a dollar, and I'd give five dollars to have seen the original race." Australian Sports and Pastimes is another picture that caught the crowd. In the chopping contest the audience were enthralled, but when the "bucking broncho" contest, in which the horses are tamed, was shown the excitement was intense. The Fencing Master's Sweetheart is a 500 foot long colored picture similar to The Three Guardsmen. Prof. Titus sang "If I Build a Nest Will You Share It With Me" and Harry LeRoy sang "When the Nightingales are Nesting, Sweet Irene, both singers receiving generous applause. Owing to unexpected difficulties with the customs authorities Adeline's lions were not on exhibition last night as promised, but it is expected that the difficulty will be overcome today or tomorrow and due announcement will be made through the press. Don't miss today's show, the last time tonight.

AMUSEMENTS.

TREMENDOUS CROWDS AT NICKEL.

It was like the good old midsummer nights at the Nickel last evening, despite the chilly air and the threatening skies and good-natured crowds filled the large auditorium from 7 until 10:30 o'clock. There is absolutely no abatement in the public interest in this form of entertainment and hearty applause greeted singers and players alike. The chief feature was Miss A. Edna's newest hit, "Tales the Searchlight Told," or Coney Island after dark. All the attractions at this resort, the whole place illuminated at night, the funny scenes and surf bathing were shown in detail and it was worth a great deal more than the cents to sit back and drink in the fun. Two Paths comedies of late vintage kept the laughs going, and the songs, "Polly Primrose," by Miss Felix, and "The Road to Yesterday," by Mr. Weston, were artistic successes surely. And the orchestra rose to the occasion as a bonus.

COMPLIMENTS SHOWERED UPON THE BIJOU MANAGEMENT

YESTERDAY.

If the management of the Bijou Theatre, the new Union street picture house, ever had reason to feel proud, it was last night, and it was the many compliments and remarks passed upon the good lot of pictures they are showing that caused the comment. We join the multitude that visited the Bijou in extending our congratulations and extend our warmest wishes, which are: Such a crowd today that it will keep them standing, and we feel it in our bones that such will be the case. Never we say; let us repeat that Never! more such a realistic production of any of the old-time stories of fiction been presented to the picture loving public, as the picture "All Baba and the Forty Thieves," the picture presented last night and to be repeated today. In it are seen All Baba, the king of thieves, his tried and trusted band, their cave or repository filled with precious jewels of all kinds, money in heaps, boxes, and the whole picture depicting the story twice, hundred feet long, gorgeously colored. We won't tell the story, as to see the picture brings back recollections of childhood days most vividly. Two good comedies and an excellent drama complete the interesting picture programme and Miss Smith is heard in "Beautiful Isle of the Sea," and Mr. Higgins in "Good-bye, Sweet Heart, Good-bye." Much pleasure is guaranteed at the Bijou today, so don't miss it.

THE PRINCESS PROGRAMME A GREAT SUCCESS.

There was standing room only that met some of the patrons at the Princess Theatre last night when the citizens turned out in hundreds to witness the big vaudeville performance given in this popular family theatre. The musical team, Goldie and Good, who arrived yesterday from New York, proved to be all that was said about them in the advance notices. The team were loudly applauded after each selection and made a decided hit with the excellent manner in which they performed on the banjos, guitars, mandolins, piccolos, cornets, xylophones, musical bottles, accordions, musettes, organ pipes, bagpipes, etc. It is a musical act that has the best re-
