

WEDNESDAY?

Vital, Healthy People Attract All.

A man may learn the degree of his social importance by the attraction that for those who know him. If you are not "magnificent" if you are nervous, strong, and lack nerve and courage, men and women naturally pass you by. The full-blooded, clear-eyed, even-tempered fellow, whose every power, magnetism and electro-vital force make him the centre of all attention. Thousands are said, in effect, "You Hercules gave me back my courage and ambition. It made me bubble with life and spirits; it gave me a foundation of renewed strength to rely upon."

Mr. H. Gifford Sinclair, 2904 Market street, Wilmington, Del., writes: "I would be great pleasure to say that your Hercules has restored my nerve. I was a complete nervous wreck, and it is very gratifying to know that this little instrument is capable of supplying new vitality and nerve power in natural and unobtrusive way."

Why Use a Body Battery?

A party asked the other day why it is a faradic battery and static machine is not give the same up-building results my electric body appliance.

That's because you can't stand the treatment for more than a few minutes at a time. A nervous person can't even sit long on account of the shock. When a man tries that method and finds that it does not help him he naturally concludes that electricity is no good.

Now, my system is different. With my plan a current is sent into the body several hours every day, or night, usually while the person sleeps.

The delicate nerves are not jarred or shocked by this current, as it goes in as gently as a drizzling rain saturates a well plowed field. They absorb it, sink it in, and as it is their very life energy, grow strong with it.

Poor digestion, inactive liver, constipation, sluggish heart, slow thinking, nervous energy and laziness are all due to lack of electricity. Understand that electricity is the motive power of the human machine, the power that keeps organs active and you will see what I mean. In such cases you will see my appliance can put energy into a body. It renews the electric life of nerves and transforms the sluggish to a bundle of vigorous energy.

Because you have experimented with faradic batteries, or taken electric treatment, without success, is no reason why you should not try my Body Battery. The ordinary battery can only be applied for few minutes at a time, and that is not enough. Besides, that method is inconvenient and expensive. My appliance is used all day or all night without interfering with your work or rest. It keeps you none of your time.

Rejoice Against Advertised Treatments.

There is a whole lot of prejudice against advertised remedies, due no doubt to the large number of quacks and charlatans that have foisted worthless medicines on the public.

If it were not for this prejudice I could not be able to handle all the business that would come to me. The many remedies advertised by charlatans have made many people sceptical, but I know that I have a good thing and will never away until everybody knows it.

I claim any remedy that does not put art that lacks the necessary vitality to the work as nature intended, can be stored by this electrical treatment, explaining of course, conditions which require a physician's attention.

It gives strength, it makes the blood rich and warm, it vitalizes the nerves and puts vim into the brain and muscles, just makes a good man out of a bad one in every way.

My appliance overcomes rheumatism, neuralgia and other weak nerves, general debility and any other trouble which can be cured by restoring the life force.

No matter where you live, you can use my Body Battery successfully as if you were here in my office.

Brooklyn Eagle Calls German's Claim Preposterous—Futile Even if Bridge Had Been Destroyed.

(Brooklyn Eagle.)

This country is not at war with Canada and cannot be made either a base of operations or an asylum for those who are the claim that the set of Horn, a German officer, in attempting to destroy a railroad bridge just across the Canadian border is a political offense; and therefore not one for which the perpetrator now under arrest in this country can be extradited to Canada in violation of the warrant either of law or common sense. It is preposterous.

If Horn's fight to claim the protection of the United States after committing the act were once admitted it would mean that any German who cared to cross into Canada and levy war on the people might do so with impunity, provided he escaped capture and punishment while on Canadian soil. Aeroplanes might cross the boundary anywhere between Sault Ste. Marie and the Thousand Islands on the Great Lakes; between Montreal and Quebec, New Hampshire and Quebec, and between Maine and New Brunswick, do incalculable damage, and fly back again to American soil, the aviators confidently claiming that their acts being purely political they must be allowed to go scot free. It is quite possible that money will be found to fight Horn's extradition right through to the United States Supreme Court, but there can be no doubt as to the final decision.

The fulfilment of the man's effort is not exactly measured by its failure. Had he totally destroyed the bridge, the work that could have happened to the railroad service would have been about an hour's delay in using the alternative route by way of Debec Junction. In addition to this route the line of the Intercolonial running entirely through Canadian territory from Quebec to Moncton and Halifax and the John's route would supply all the fuel required for the shipment of supplies.

In this connection it is worth while noting that a portion of Mr. Bryan's recent letter to Secretary Stone was a reply to the allegation that this division of the Canadian Pacific route which is within the boundaries of the state of Maine had been unlawfully used for the transportation of military supplies and troops. Mr. Bryan stated that the government was without proof of the correctness of the charge preferred by Mr. Stone. If the line had been used for the transport of troops it would be a violation of American neutrality for which the United States might demand an explanation and apology. If it were used merely for the transportation of military supplies the case would in no degree differ from that of our own railways which are constantly in use for the same purpose without in any degree affecting the neutral status of the government.

CANADA'S REVENUE STILL DECREASING

Ottawa, Feb. 9.—A falling off in revenue of about $2,000,000, and a slight falling off in expenditure, as well as, indicated by the government financial statement for the month of January, just issued. The revenue for the month was $9,807,694, as compared with $11,229,759 in January, 1914.

The total revenue for the ten months of the fiscal year, from March to January, inclusive, was $100,538,607, as compared with $109,101,515 for the corresponding period of 1914-15. Customs revenue for the ten months declined by more than $18,000,000, and excise by about $1,000,000, in spite of the increased tax on liquors and tobacco.

The expenditure for January, 1915, was $16,804,721, and for the ten months $168,826,866, as compared with $17,160,445 and $168,687,971 in 1914-15. Expenditure on capital account, including public works and the like, decreased from $5,847,112 for the month, and $46,976,009 for the first ten months of the last fiscal year to $4,078,421 and $36,750,359 for the first ten months of the present fiscal year.

The total net debt increased $18,684,832 during January, and now stands at $82,579,516, as compared with $63,894,684 on Jan. 31 of last year.

CONDENSED NEWS LOCAL GENERAL

During last week the births of three boys and six girls were reported to J. B. Jones, registrar. Six marriages were recorded during the week.

Contributing her mite to the patriotic funds, a widow in Queens county on Saturday sent to Mayor Frink a delicately worked counter piece which she directed should be sold and the proceeds used for the funds.

At the board of health officers this week fourteen deaths were registered from the following causes:—Pneumonia, four; heart failure, two; septicæmia, one; convulsions, heart disease, premature birth, diabetes mellitus, cerebral thrombosis, inflammation of bowels, one each.

The postmaster and his friends at Germantown, Albert county, have donated to the Belgian Relief Fund the sum of $125.00 being the proceeds of a bean supper given in aid of the most worthy cause and it has been received by Mayor Frink and sent to the Canadian Red Cross Society.

Mayor Frink has received for the Relief of the Belgian Children, subscriptions from the Tipperary Club, St. Stephen, Miss Edna Murdoch, $20; Children of Great Salmon River, for the Belgian children, Miss Anne E. Lang, Salmon River $11. A subscription of $25 received through Mrs. Charles Eusey from the Ladies' Aid of the Baptist church, Wickham, Carleton county, was previously acknowledged as $5 in error.

Attention has been called to the difficulty experienced by men of the first Canadian contingent in changing Canadian money for the use of the old country and the suggestion is being made to all men of the second Canadian contingent that they buy postal or express money orders for the use of the old country with the bulk of their money, and carry enough coin to defray their expenses on the voyage. This course, if followed by the boys who are going, will save them a great deal of unnecessary trouble. In case they land in London, however, with Canadian money in their pockets they should be able to get the larger Canadian banks there where our currency will be exchanged for pounds, shillings and pence at par.

The handsome thirty-two room summer dwelling owned by John O'Regan at Spruce Lake was destroyed by fire on Saturday evening. Nothing remained of the splendid building after 6 o'clock in the morning when the owner arrived on the scene except two chimneys. The building was valued at $8,000 and Mr. O'Regan has only $4,000 insurance on it and nothing whatever on the furniture, worth about $1,000. It is not the building which was destroyed which so keenly hit the destruction of his own work for since 1911 when the building was first started he spent all his spare money on it and had hopes of having it known that all the interior finishing was done by himself.

A party of young people enjoyed a drive to Spruce Lake and had supper there on Wednesday night, leaving there about 10 o'clock. They took great care on leaving the house, however, to see that all fires were out and besides they had a careful inspection of the building itself. There was a rumor of incendiarism about, but there were no facts available to substantiate this theory.

It was about 4:00 o'clock Thursday morning when William Smith and his family were awakened by the crackling of a fire in the chimney. Mr. Smith, who was in bed, saw the fire in the opposite direction and the large barn was not a prey to the flames. Word was telephoned to the city to Mr. J. Sutherland, who was on duty at the time he arrived there, remaining nothing but the smouldering ruins.

THINKS END OF WAR IS STILL A LONG WAY OFF

An interesting letter from the theatre box has just been received by J. Ed. L. Jones, of Black Harbor, along accompanied several English regular officers on a successful moose hunting trip to Charlotte county in the autumn of 1914. The letter is from a major in the regular British army—Alfred W. Parsons. The letter follows:—

A. Squadron, 8th Hussars, 8th Division, British Expeditionary Force, Jan. 10, 1915.

Dear Mr. Connors, I received your Christmas card and good wishes forwarded by Mrs. Archer-Shee. I thank you so much for thinking of sending it. I cannot send you one as we cannot get letters of men ready to go. I have a little thought that in a year's time I should be on the warpath. It is not such good sport as moose hunting! I am glad to say I have kept very fit so far. Have been at it now since Aug. 20, at 200 out here right at the beginning and so was in line for the retreat from Mons. The weather has been very good and I can stand a good long day. The three majors are all out here of course. I do not see much of the other two as my regiment is split up in three parties. We do meet occasionally. The weather here has of course been very bad lately, nothing but rain. The mud is wicked. However, every one is full of good cheer and no doubt we shall get a hustle on again in the spring, when I hope we shall make short work of the job, though I am afraid it is a long way from being over yet. I saw one of the Canadian regiments marching through here a few days ago. They looked a good sight. From all reports you seem to be doing well and men ready to go and give us a hand. Remember me to John Hunter and George the cook if you see them. I hope all your family are well and everything flourishing at Black Harbor. Well, good-bye, the best of luck and good sport to you and I hope we may kill another moose together another day.

Yours truly,
ALFRED W. PARSONS.

DR. GRENFELL'S PEOPLE DOING SHARE TOWARDS RED CROSS

From far away Newfoundland comes the news that the people who are under the charge of Dr. Grenfell, the well known missionary, are assisting the Red Cross in its work of mercy during the present grave national crisis and that recently the poor men and women of the "French Shore" on the northern point of the island held a fair at which more than $400 were raised. The success of this fair was due to the efforts of Dr. Grenfell who visited the fishermen in the locality where the "cash" was raised and exhorted them to do their share in providing comforts for the soldiers of the empire who are willing to give their lives for the freedom of Europe.

From far and near the fishermen came with their wives and children, most of them on dog sleds and among their offerings were simple home-made goods. Others brought fish and one man, with that spirit of self-denial so evident at the close of the hunting season, brought a gift from his brother physicians and surgeons, and Dr. Duffy read a complimentary address which was given by the following physicians and nurses:—F. C. McGrath, W. S. Loggie and the Hon. J. H. Macdonald, Dr. Joseph L. Losier.

Dr. Losier responded in a very touching manner, thanking all for their appreciation of his services and for their very pretty souvenirs of the occasion.

CHATHAM PHYSICIANS HONOR DR. LOSIER

Chatham, N. B., Feb. 8.—Capt. A. J. Losier, who is in command of the Army Medical Corps reinforcements, sailing from Halifax on the S. S. Zealand, Feb. 7 for the front, was the guest of honor at a banquet given in his honor at the Hotel St. James last evening. The guests included all the attending physicians and nurses and Rev. Father Hart. At the close of the banquet Dr. Losier, who is a native of Chatham, was presented with a military watch valued at $100. Dr. Losier responded in a very touching manner, thanking all for their appreciation of his services and for their very pretty souvenirs of the occasion.

TWO SOLDIERS ARRESTED IN FREDERICTON BARR

Fredericton, Feb. 7.—(Special)—The police last night raided a house on Regent street and arrested the proprietress another woman and two soldiers. Officers and men of the Divisional Ammunition Column attended divine service at the Methodist church this morning with the Fredericton brass band heading the parade. The sermon was preached by Rev. Thos. Marshall, formerly of St. John.

DR. LOSIER'S PEOPLE DOING SHARE TOWARDS RED CROSS

From far away Newfoundland comes the news that the people who are under the charge of Dr. Grenfell, the well known missionary, are assisting the Red Cross in its work of mercy during the present grave national crisis and that recently the poor men and women of the "French Shore" on the northern point of the island held a fair at which more than $400 were raised. The success of this fair was due to the efforts of Dr. Grenfell who visited the fishermen in the locality where the "cash" was raised and exhorted them to do their share in providing comforts for the soldiers of the empire who are willing to give their lives for the freedom of Europe.

From far and near the fishermen came with their wives and children, most of them on dog sleds and among their offerings were simple home-made goods. Others brought fish and one man, with that spirit of self-denial so evident at the close of the hunting season, brought a gift from his brother physicians and surgeons, and Dr. Duffy read a complimentary address which was given by the following physicians and nurses:—F. C. McGrath, W. S. Loggie and the Hon. J. H. Macdonald, Dr. Joseph L. Losier.

Dr. Losier responded in a very touching manner, thanking all for their appreciation of his services and for their very pretty souvenirs of the occasion.
