Debates of the House of Assembly, 1873.

THE COMMITTEE appointed to receive Tenders for reporting and publishing the DEBATES OF THE HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY during the next Session, and to conclude arrangements for carrying the same into effect by acceptance of the lowest Tender, or otherwise, as the Committee may determine, announce that:—

Sealed Tenders will be received at the office of Dr. Alward, Waterloo street, St. John, until noon on MONDAY, the twenty-third day of December, 1872.

1st. Tenders for publishing debates to state distinctly the rate per sheet for five or ten thousand copies, Imperial Quarto, with three columns to each page, solid columns, and otherwise in all respects similar to the Debates of 1870—the Debates to be published three times a week at least, from matter to be furnished by the Reporter, and to be delivered in some room in the House of Assembly Buildings, or mailed from the Publishing Office.

2nd. Tenders for Reporting the Debates to state the sum per day—the Reporter to furnish promptly from day to day a full and accurate report of the Debates, and to prepare the manuscript in a proper manner for the printer, and to complete the same within three days after the close of the Session.

Tenders to be strictly in accordance with the requirements of this advertisement.

Security will be required for the due performance of the Contract.

Nursery Rhymes--No. 19.

A BALLAD OF YE OLDEN CHRISTMAS TIME.

Long years have sped since Chaucer wrote and England's Wither sung,
And Edmund Spenser's voice is hushed, and
silent is his tongue;
The blazing Yule no longer burns in palace or
in hall,
And roundabout the wassail bowl is hung a darksome pall.

The good old days have passed away since
England's Knights would dare
To brave the tilting tournament in fence of lady fair.
And genial Christmas is no more: St. Nicholas,
too, is dead:
The olden time is of the Past—the merry days
have fled.

THE THIRD ACT.

Mr:. Putnam to Mrs. Bowe.

MRS. PUT.—I was down to J. W. MONTGOMERY'S yesterday, and I bought a very fine Grebe Muff for $5.00; it is a real beauty,—and a Collar to match only $1.00. I am sure they could not be got in any store for double the amount.

MRS. ROWE—Why, yes, his very best Alpine Hats is only $2.00, and his best Black Silk, (new Black) is the cheapest I ever saw. Mrs. Childs, Mrs. Young and Mrs. Brown, and all the ladies around say go to MONTGOMERY'S.

[Enter Mrs. Fitchwayer.]

MRS. FITCHWAYER.—Good morning, ladies: I have come over in a great hurry to tell you what is in town on Tuesday. Well, going down King street, I seen Dry Goods stores out in the street. Well, looking for a door to go in, I went into MONTGOMERY'S. Well, do you know, he astonished me at his prices—all Wool Scarlet Flannels only 25 cents per yard, and very fine Dress Goods, New Greens and New Browns, 25 cents per yard: in fact, all kinds of only 12 cents per yard: in fact, all kinds of Woollen Goods cheap. I tell you he is the man.

[Enter Mrs. Fullimor.]

Mrs. FULL.—Good morning, ladies; you will please pardon me this morning for making such an early call, but I could not help telling you the news: if you want first-class Dry Goods of any kind go to MONTGOMERY'S. Do you know the ladies over where I live turned out that very stormy day, and three women came very near jumping in and swimming across the harbor.

MRS. ROWE—Let us act, and not talk. I am ready. Come, get up, ladies, and put on your Shawls and bring your monies.

MRS. PUTNAM—What is his number?

MRS. BUNDERDELWICH—Mrs. Putnam, why you ought to be ashamed of yourself; there is very few but knows his store, in the country. It is 3 King street.

The Popular Family News paper of New England.

The Boston Weekly Journal FOR 1873.

THE TIME IS AT HAND FOR OLD FRIENDS TO RENEW THEIR SUBSCRIPTIONS.

Postmasters and Agents Rally Your Clubs.

Now Friends, Subscribe for a Live, Wide Awake Weekly, which will

Keep You Posted

Upon all matters which a well informed man desires to know about, and at the same time will supply

THE FAMILY CIRCLE

With a vast amount of interesting, entertaining and valuable information relating to what is going on in this busy world of ours.

By making up a club, a man can secure for THREE CENTS A WEEK, a

Thirty-Six Column Newspaper,

Which is filled with news, reports of markets, articles upon agriculture, business, trade, politics; essays, poetry, short stories, pen sketches of events in real life, and practical hints upon all topics of interest, which are carefully prepared for THE BOSTON WEEKLY JOURNAL, which is the CHEAPEST NEWSPAPER published in New England.

The Publishers call attention to

What the Reader Gains by the Recent Enlargement of the WEEKLY JOURNAL.

On the 1st of June the Publisher of THE WEEKLY JOURNAL increased the size of the paper, without increasing the price. This enlargement was equivalent to adding

OVER SEVEN COLUMNS OF READING MATTER

To each issue of THE WEEKLY JOURNAL. In fifty-two weeks the number of additional columns given is 364, which is equivalent to about twelve extra copies of THE WEEKLY JOURNAL of the old size. The subscribers therefore receive at THE SAME PRICE this large amount of additional reading matter.

We shall continue during the coming year all the old features which have given the WEEKLY the large and substantial support which it enjoys in New England, and we shall add such novelties as may strengthen its hold upon the reading masses.

Specimen copies sent upon application.

All Postmasters are requested to act as agents. Though the enlargement adds materially to the cost of production, the price will be

NO CHANGE IN THE RATES OF SUBSCRIPTION.

The success achieved by this weekly visitor to the fireside of thousands is owing less to the extremely low terms at which it is furnished, than to its excellence as a weekly companion of news and information, which is read by young and old with pleasure and gratification.

One copy, by mail.....$2 00
Five copies to one address.....7 50
Ten copies to one address.....15 00

The Museum is open every Monday evening from 7 to 8 o clock.

The initiation fee for members is Two Dollars, which, with the payment of an annual subscription of Three Dollars, will entitle a member and two of his family to all the privileges of the Institute, including attending the Lectures, and the Library, Museum and Reading Room, when open.

☞ Tickets for a single Lecture will not be issued.

N. B.—In order to prevent unpleasantness and confusion at the door, the Directors have resolved to issue three tickets to each member, which must invariably be shown to the Doorkeeper; and owing to the limited capacity of the Hall, the rule providing admission to the holders of these tickets only, must be rigidly enforced. Members have the right to introduce Non-Residents to any of the Lectures—the name of the person introduced and of the Member introducing him being written on a card and handed to the Doorkeeper.

☞ Boys unaccompanied by their parents or guardians will not be admitted to the gallery.

Tickets, Programmes of the Concert and Course of Lectures, and all information concerning the Institute, may be obtained from the Curator at the Institute from 4 to 6 o'clock daily (Sundays excepted.)

☞ Doors open at 7 o'clock on Lecture evenings.
