The Governor General has Ordered Royal Commission --- Public Opinion on the Pacific Scandal--- The Opposition Members to Muster in Force. OTTAWA, July 31. His Excellency Lord Dufferin has or dered the issue of a Royal Commissio to investigate the Huntington charges The Commission will be composed of the Chief Justice or leading Judge of different Provinces, to be named when the House meets. The Grit petitions here to the Governor General praying him not to prorogue the House are a failure. The leading canvasser is a well known Fenjan. The opinion is gaining ground that the Government will clear themselves of every charge if allowed an opportunity The Opposition members will muster in force on the 13th of August, and move that the enquiry proceed by a parli amentary committee. t.
