

large, but deducting the amount received from the award of fire claim, it will leave the expenditure under this head but little over the average yearly expenditure. The further renovation of the interior and the renewal of the roof covering of the church await to be proceeded with, once the debt was cleared and the funds provided. It only requires the continuous united effort of the whole congregation to have these and other things speedily accomplished.

The ushers for 1895 were attentive to their duties, and are eligible for re-election.

The managers retiring this year are Thomas Trow, Andrew Jeffrey, and James W. Brown.

Respectfully submitted,

J. W. BROWN,

Sec'y.

February 4th, 1896.
