

its publication, 53.—Special Notice respecting Toll Bridge Bills, 54.—Notice to be posted up in the Committee Rooms and Lobbies by the first day of the session of the time limited for receiving Petitions, Private Bills and the Reports thereon, 52.

2. During the Progress of Bills—a week's notice for Council Bills, and twenty-four hours' notice for Assembly Bills, is to be given, before they can be taken into consideration by the Committee, 62.—One day's notice is required of any important amendment offered in Committee of the Whole, or at the third reading, 70.

Due notice is required, except in urgent cases, of every motion to dispense with a Standing Order, 72.—Notice of the reference of every Private Bill and Petition, specifying the time and place of meeting, is to be hung up in the Lobby, 74.

Notices of Motions.—One intermediate day's notice is required in all special cases, 31.

O

Oaths—taken at the opening of a New Parliament and of every subsequent session, 3.

Obeisances—by Members to the Chair, 15.

Objectionable or Offensive Words, 19.—See Debates.

Officers of the House :—None to appear before the Assembly or send an answer without leave from the House, 104.

Official Gazette.—See Notices.

Opening of Parliament—tickets of admission required at the, 6.

Order and Decorum—required of Members, 15.

Orders of the Day—Not disposed of, take precedence, on the next sitting day, 10.

Orders of the House—must be read before they can be entered, 34.

P

Parties to Bills—may be required to appear before Committees, 64.

Patents.—See Letters Patent.

Personal Abuse—or Quarrels prevented, 20.

Personal Allusions—A Member may not refer to another by name, 17.