

Bill to enable the Inhabitants of the Seigniory of Grosbois in the County of St. Maurice to provide for the better regulation of the Common in the said Seigniory.

Preamble.

WHEREAS certain Inhabitants of the Fief Grosbois situate in the Parish of Ste. Anne de Yamachiche County of St. Maurice, interested in the Common appertaining to the said Fief, have by their Petition to the Legislature prayed that they might be authorized to provide rules and regulations for the better government of the said Common, and for the preservation of their interests in the same, which for want of efficient authority for that purpose are frequently infringed upon: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, &c. &c. :—

The Inhabitants of the Fief Gros Bois authorised to choose a Chairman and four Trustees to manage the business relating to the Common.

And it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for the Inhabitants of the said Fief Grosbois, interested and having right of Common in the Common of the said Fief in the aforesaid Parish of Ste. Anne de Yamachiche, of the yearly value of forty shillings sterling, to assemble and meet at the Presbiterè or Parsonage-house of the Parish of Sainte Anne d'Yamachiche, on the first Monday of the month of May next ensuing the passing of this Act, between the hours of ten o'clock in the forenoon, and one o'clock in the afternoon, then and there to choose by a majority of votes of the Inhabitants there present and qualified as aforesaid, a Chairman and four Trustees for the sole purpose of managing and directing the business relating to the said Common in conformity with this Act, and none other; and the Chairman and Trustees, who shall be so chosen, shall be, and they are hereby made and declared to be a body politic and corporate, by the name of "The Chairman and Trustees of the Common of Grosbois," and as such shall have perpetual succession, and may have a common seal, and shall, and may sue and be sued, and may do and execute all and whatsoever relating to the trust hereby reposed in them it may be necessary and lawful to do and execute.

Created a body corporate and politic.

II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, that it shall be lawful for any of
