Spice of Life

How Kind!—Phyllis—"Aren't the new Boston traffic-rules just lovely for us girls?"

Ethel—"How so?"

Phyllis—"Why, didn't you know they were going to have sophomores stationed at every down-town street-corner?"—Boston Transcript.

Those Happy Days.—"Remember the eyes of the nation are on you," exclaimed the constituent.

"I know it," replied Senator Sorghum. "And the nation's getting more acutely discerning every day. The time is gone when a man can assume an impressive pose and get by as an optical illusion."—Washington Star.

We Know Them.—"Twobble is always being mentioned for some kind of office. I wonder why he never gets appointed to one?"

"I suspect that's because Twobble's friends are the sort of people who wish you well without stopping to see whether their wishes are carried out or not."—Birmingham Age Herald.

Promising Career.—Jimmie Willis—"What are you going to be when you grow up?"

Tommy Gillis—"An American bandit in Mexico."

"But ain't that dangerous?"

"Naw. Neither side can shoot you for fear of causing international complications."—Life.

Minister—"I have just received a call to Chicago which I think I shall accept."

Parishioner—"I thought you had received one to Milwaukee?"

Minister—"The Chicago all is a trifle—er—louder."—Life.

"What is a dilettante?"

"Well, the term applies pretty well to the idea of cooking habitually in a chafing dish."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

"I can see at a glance, madam," said he, "that you would not be interested in the preparation I am selling, except possibly as a gift to some of your neighbors."

"What are you selling?" she inquired, with interest.

"A facial beauty preparation, madam," he replied.—Judge.

"Is it easy to learn to drive an automobile?"

"Yes, very. All you have to do is to knock off the garage door once or twice, break a few lamps and a fender or two; back through a neighbor's wire fence several times and get accustomed to the fact that telephone poles and trees can't dodge you. When you have done all this you may consider yourself an experienced driver."—Detroit Free Press.

"We often hear people say we're getting a taste of winter. What is a taste of winter?"

"Why, it's when the cold is biting, I suppose."—Boston Transcript.

"Mrs. Flubdub has left her husband."

"The poor thing! I must run right over and condone with her."

"S no use. She won't tell what for."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Henry—"I don't see your little son around any more."

Mrs. Dogmore—"No, Fifi simply cannot tolerate him, so I sent him away to his aunt for a month or two."

Hokus—"Scribbler has had no less than nine plays rejected."

Pokus—"What is he doing now?"
Hokus—"Writing essays on the decline of the drama."
