INFO:

Career Planning Groups are beginning soon. These small groups are designed to help you learn skills for making academic and career decisions. For more information and registration, call 424-2081 or drop by the Counselling and Psychological Services, 4th Floor, S.U.B.

A programme on how to relax and think more clearly during tests and exams is being offered at the Counselling Centre. This free, six-session programme will be of particular interest to students who find that tension disrupts their performance while preparing for or writing exams. Phone 424-2081 or come in person to the Centre on the 4th Floor of the S.U.B.

The Mature Students Association is resuming its lunch-time meetings on Tuesdays between 12 and 1:30 in Room 422, S.U.B. (Counselling Services). The meetings will be partly social and partly informational.

Career Planning is the topic that will be discussed during the informational part of the meeting for the next few weeks.

Bring your lunch, meet others, and pick up some information.

"STORY HOUR" is a CKDU weeknight presentation featuring plays, short stories, and readings from novels, ranging from romance and comedy to mystery and science-fiction. We are presently looking for original written works by members of the Dalhousie community which might be suitable for CKDU production. Also, anyone who is interested in reading for "Story Hour" should contact us immediately! If you would like more information come up and see us on the fourth floor of the SUB or contact Mike Wile at 424-2487.

Can't decide how to impress your gourmet friends? Have unwelcome guests invited themselves to lunch? Either way, a Cricket Pot Pie or a Honey Bee Souffle could solve your problem. All you need is the new book Entertaining with Insects (641.6T) available from Dartmouth Regional Library. If finding canned bumble bees or frozen ants is a problem this all-round guide tells you how to rear your very own insects. The perfect coffee table book to induce anxious looks from your guests. Of course this announcement is for real—would your library lie to you?

WORKSHOPS FOR THE WRITERS OF THESES & DISSERTATIONS. Suffering from the stress and mental anguish of writing your thesis or dissertation?

Then these workshops are designed for you. They are open to M.A. and Ph.D. students in all disciplines who are currently writing their thesis or dissertation.

Topics included are: How to handle unrealistic expectations and mental blocks against writing; how to utilize task analysis and set manageable time-limited sub-goals; how to attain a balance between work time and non-work time; how to use your support for you instead of against you.

Sessions will be arranged for groups of eight beginning the week of March 3rd. For more information and/or registration please call 424-2081 before February 25. All sessions will be led by Dr. Brad McRae, author of "How to Write a Thesis and Keep Your Sanity," at the Dalhousie Counselling and Psychological Services Centre, 4th Floor, S.U.B.
