he states that the facilities for doing this are not as good as formerly, owing to the fact that at present the Indians do not own many cattle. Such moneys as are collected will be paid over to the Massey Harris Company. While willing to facilitate the collection of debts contracted by Indians, the Department assumes no responsibility. I may add that I think it well to warn you that in future before you sell machinery to Indians, it would be well for you to communicate with the Department direct, or with the Local Indian Agent in charge of the Indians.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.
