January 8th, 1918.

Dear Sir -

Your File No. 649-T-6301.

#234643. Pte. John Taylor

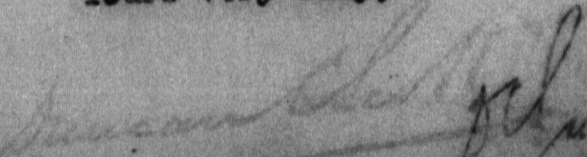

203rd. Battalion. C.U.E.V.

I have to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 7th instant, in reference to the pension for the widow of the marginally named soldier.

Immediately upon receipt of your previous communication, the Indian Agent at Griswold, Man., was written to and his attention again called to the necessity of a reply on the 20th December.

I presume that our agent is having some difficulty in obtaining the information asked for, but as soon as he is heard from, I shall communicate with you.

Yours very truly,

Deputy Superintendent General.
