

Fridays. Three take part in Sunday School work. They give special care to preparing children for First Communion, and help to organize processions. If in any other way their services are required they have always shown themselves willing workers.

This gives but a poor idea of the devotedness and zeal of the Sisters of St. Joseph; it is but a bald enumeration of kind offices, but it serves to show the indebtedness of the parish to those who have so ably aided the pastor in the training of the young under his care.

When Rev. Father Soulerin was recalled to France in 1865, Rev. Father Vincent was appointed Superior of St. Michael's College, and, in consequence, parish priest of St. Basil's. Rev. Father Ferguson continued to be his delegate until 1872.

Rev. M. J. Ferguson was a noted preacher, and of a kindly and sympathetic nature. Great regret was felt in St. Basil's parish when he went to fill an important post in Assumption College, Sandwich, the first off-
