

It is probable that a messenger will also be required when the Circulating Library is commenced ; but no other addition to the expense of maintenance is expected. In consequence of these additions, the expenditure for the Library during the current year will probably reach the sum of $2,700, which the Board consider the net revenue now justifies them in expending for that purpose.

J. J. C. ABBOTT,
President.

MONTREAL. September 30th, 1887.