An Autumn Litany

By Augustus Wight Bomberger

Lord of the fallen year—as of the spring,
Oh, help me look to Thee unwavering;
With faith serene, and love that hath no fear—
Lord of the fallen year!

Lord of the fallen year—but yesterday,
It seems I fared me forth upon life's way;
And, lo, the end hath come!—Yet be thou near—
Lord of the fallen year!

Lord of the fallen year—each dying leaf
Hath from the sunset sky no sign of grief;
But hues of heaven to hearten me and cheer—
Lord of the fallen year!

Lord of the fallen year—still may I stand
Close to Thy side and feel Thy father hand;
So shall the night be beautiful and clear—
Lord of the fallen year!
