BALDNESS.

A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR is the grandest ornament belonging to the human frame. How strangely the loss of it changes the countenance, and prematurely infacts on the appearance of old age, which causes many to recoil at being uncovered, and sometimes even seems society to avoid the jests and sneers of their acquaintance; the romance of their lives is consequently spent in retirement. In short, nothing tends more to pop up this the greatest blessing to youth, with that beauty adorning grace to the head of his fellow-creatures, than the unpleasant circumstances. ELDRIDGE'S BALM OF COLUMBIA stops the hair from falling off on the first application and a few bottles restores it again. It likewise produces eyebrows and whiskers; prevents the hair from turning grey, makes it curl beautifully, and leaves it free from scurf. No encomiums certificates of the first respectability, in support of the Virtues of Eldridge's Balm are shown to the proprietors.

☞ Read the following:

Robert Wharton, Esquire, late Mayor of Philadelphia, has certified, as my best recommendation to the high character of the following gentlemen:

The undersigned do hereby certify that we have used the Balm of Columbia discovered by J. Eldridge, and have found it highly serviceable not only as a preventive against the falling off of hair, but as a certain restorative.

John D. Thomas, M. D. 103 Race st.
John S. Ferris, 108 Spruce st.
Henry McCreary, 228 South 7th st.
John Gass, Jr., 123 Arch st.

It will certainly raise its virtues in the estimation of the public, when it is known that three of the above signers are more than 50 years of age, and the others not less than 30.

MORISON'S UNIVERSAL MEDICINE.

NOTICE.

THE subscribers, general Agents for Morison's Pills, have applied to WILLIAM WHITTAKER, now Vent for the Upper Town, No. 27 St. John Street.

LEGGE & Co.

That the public may be able to form some idea of Morison's Pills by their great consumption, the following calculation was made by Mr. Wood, Clerk to the Stamp Office, Somerset House, in a period of six years, (part only of the time that Morison's Pills have been before the public,) the number of stamps delivered for the medicine amounted to three millions, nine hundred, at 1 one thousand.

The object in placing the foregoing before the public is to deduce therefrom the following powerful argument in favour of Mr. Morison's system and to which the public attention is directed, namely, that it was only by trying an innocuous purgative medicine to such an extent that the truth of the Hygeian system could possibly have been established. It is clear that all the medical men in England, or the world, put together, have not tried a system of vegetable purgation to the extent and in manner prescribed by the Hygeist is. How, therefore, can any (much less individually) know any thing about the real merit of its properties
