DICCESE OF PETERBOROUGH.

Downeyville, 28th[June, 1897. His Lordship Bishop O Connor, of Peter-borough, visited our parish last week. He was accompanied by Monsignor Laurent, of Lindsay, and his curate, Father McGuire, and was received by our respected pastor, Father Bretherton, and Father McColl, par-ish priest of Ennismore. He arrived on the aiternoon of Wednesday,23rd. inst., and after Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, the following address was read: ADRESS.

ADRESS. To the Right Rev. K. A. O'Connor, D. D. Bishop of Peterborough :

In reply, His Lordship expressed in words it gave him to be the recipient of the wel-come, respect and obedience contained in the words of the beautiful address he had just received. He referred to the ample evi-dence he saw of the sincerity of the words and sentiment it contained, in the efforts made to erect the beautiful temple they now had completed; and congratulated and ex-tolled them on thus making their church the most beautiful house in the parish. The harmony existing among the people and the confidence they had in their good pastor, father Bretherton, as evidenced in the satis-factory state of their finances, was a source of much gratification to him. The congratulations extended our Right we still to be the dimity of Domestic prelate of the Pope's household, together with the slight reference made in acknowledg ment of our obligations to him personally, called forth on his behalf words of praise and admiration from His Lordship, which we were much gratified to hear and which added so materially to our feeble efforts at doing justice to the worthiness of our Rey. friend to be thus honored. In reply, His Lordship expressed in words doing justice to the worthiness of our Rav. friend to be thus honored. Monsignor Laurent was quite unprepared for the kind words it pleased His Lordship and the people to bestow upon him. While he thanked them very sincerely for their kind mention, he disclaimed any special worthiness on his own part to the favor His Holiness had granted him; but rather at tributed bis elevation to the good dices of His Lordship, through whom the favor had been granted, and assured the people that what hey chose to call their obligation was his pleasure and that any credit due was to be attributed to his reverend friend, Father Bretherton, who went into the good diver wi 's heart and a half and to their own in-dive. Lefforts in coming to the front with theart. Is and their hearts in the right places—at is, with their hearts in their work and their hands in their placets. A large congregation filled the church on the following day, the feast of St. John the Baptist, and after the celebration of High Mass by Mgr. Laurent, the sacrament of confirmation was administered to a class of sixty-three children, following which a suit-able discourse was given by His Lordship the Bishop. Before leaving in the afternoon His Lord-ship was pleased to express his entire satis-faction with the thorouchness of the norepar-

Rev. Father Fitzpatrick, Rev. Father Scan-lan, Rev. Father O'Connell, Rev. Father O'Sullivan and Rev. Father O'Brien. The solemn and joyous Mass of thanks-giving was celebrated by Ven. Archdeacon Casey, with Rev. Father Twohey as deacon and Rev. Father McCloskey rs sub-deacon, and the service was unusually brilliant and impressive. THE SERMON

Impressive. THE SERMON was preached by Rev. Deam Harris, of St. Catharines, who spoke on the dignity and re-sponsibility of the priesthood. He said it must be very gratifying to Very Rev. Father Casey to see so many of his fellow clergy and so large a representation of his fock gathered around him to unife in celebrating the occasion of his silver jubilee; to unite in recognizing the great work under God which he had been permitted to do. It must be very gratifying to see the people among whom the had labored and to whom his good qualities as their pastor were best known, gather to offer with him thankgiving that his life had been so graciously spared for the post twenty five years. At his ordination the oil of consecrating Bishop, had specially separated and set him apart from the world. and when he had carried that sacred oil blamelese, one could easily understand the pattoring together of the people to do him honor, and to rejoice with him. Referring to the characteristics of the priesthood, the preacher described the priest as in a sense the saviour of his people. the preserver of the right be fittingly called the "salt of the earth." All things were subject to cor-ruption, but so long as a priest preserve di-prestruer of his people to advise, admonish and rebuke. The priest was different from his flock in the source and sometimes severe, it must be remembered that priests have an angelic conception of their dulies – they offer scriftces for the people as well as tor them-sour seturned back to the corruption from which Christ has died to rescue humanity. The preacher referred to the setting apart of Aron to the Jawish priesthood with great elaboration of form and ceremony. The people perfect in heart, body, soul and mind. All the creamony observed the use of the dial the vestiment worm was to show the people that these good men were spec-ially consecrated to do strong reacting the scribe of dod has serifice of the Mass. To the Very Rev. Archdeacon Jeremiah Casey, Rector of St. Peter's Cathedral, Peterborough, on the occasion of his silver jubilee :

Peterborough, on the occasion of his silver jubilee : Dear Father Casey, --In the name and on behalf of your parisitioners of St. Peter's we offer you our warmest felicitations and heartfelt congratulations on this your silver jubilee year--the twenty-fifth anniversary of your ordination to the holy priesthood. It is indeed a source of pardonable pride and extreme pleasure to this congregation to have as their pastor one so eminently fitted to fill an office of such importance. The life of a priest of the Catholic church is one of ardu-ous self sacrifice, filled with many labors and sorrows and regrets for the weaknesses of frail humanity. During the years you have ministered to the spiritual necessities of this large parish, most nobly has your part been done ; never have you faltered at the call of duty, always ready by night or by day to carry to those in distress the blessed conso-lations offered to her children by holy Mother Church. Nor have your good works been confined to spiritual charities only. Your boundless generosity to the poor, more especially in your tender application of the example of the Divine Master, whose minister you are, in your loving solicitude for little children, the lambs of your flock, is widely known and appreciated in every home, high as well as humble, where your pastoral visits have carried hope and comfort. Your many acts of kindness, your urban-ity and thuy Christian character have won as well as humble, where your pastoral visits have carried hops and comfort. Your many acts of kindness, your urban-ity and truly Christian character have won for you the veneration and affection, not only of this congregation, butas well, we be-leve, the respect and esteem of the whole community. Under your we and generous supervision as import. This is the respect and only of this paraminent edine and the dations of this paraminent edine and the work generation was the proof. This is the conduction was the proof. This is the work generation we are provid to see knowledge the many obligations we are under to you in this regard. Our carnest desire is that Divine Provi-ence may long spare you to ald, guide and minister to this congregation under the direction and sanction of our beloved fishop. It is the glorious privile ge of the priest, by virtue of his exalted office, to extend to humanity the greatest consolation and is the on man, in the Holy Sacrifice of the attar. This is your greatest consolation ands the trials and bardships, and anxieties which de-volve upon you.

SKETCH OF HIS LIFE.

A MATTER OF JUSTICE.

s The Way a Young Lady of New Brunswick Views it.-Suffered From Headaches, Pain in the Side and Heart Palpitation-She Thinks Similar Sufferers Should Know How She Found a Cure.

From the Frederiction Gleaner. Miss Alma Millar, of Upper South ampton, N. B., is a daughter of Mr. Ezra Millar, a wealthy and influential farmer, and the young lady is a general favorite among a wide circle of ac quaintances, who have had occasion to congratulate her upon her complete restoration to health, after a severe and trying illness. When a corres-pondent of the Gleaner called upon her, and requested that the facts might be given for publication, the young lady, though not at all anxious for publicity, neverthe-less gave her consent in the hope that her experience might prove beneficial to some of the many young girls whose condition of health is very similar to what hers was previous to her cure. Miss Millar stated that when her illness began her mother was unable to lock after the affairs of the household, and the duties largely de volved upon her. She felt herself growing weak and easily tired, but felt that she must keep up. She says : '' Notwithstanding my efforts I found myself growing worse and worse. My appetite failed, my complexion became sallow and my eyes sunken in my head. I was troubled with dizzi ness, shortness of breath and palpita tion of the heart until at times I felt as though I would suffocate. I was almost constantly troubled with a pain in the side, and severe headaches. When I went up stairs I was obliged to rest. Life had become almost a burden and at last I was forced to give up and keep my bed. My friends eared I was going into consumption and one remedy after another was tried with no beneficial results until I was induced to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial. In less than three weeks I was able to leave my bed and go about the house, and the use of the Pink Pills a few weeks longer com-pletely restored my health and strength and drove away all symptoms and JULY 10. 1897.

Silver Jubilee of Archdeacon Casey

Examiner of June 29

Examiner of June 29. Ven. Archdeacon Casey, Reactor of Peter-borough, would be singularly unresponsive of soul if his pulse did not quicken and his heart swell with exultant happiness over the auspicious circumstances under which the Silver Jubilee - the twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood-was cele-prated today. Standing in front of the was beart sweil with exaitant happiness over the anspicious circumstances under which the Silver Jubilee—the twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood—was cele-brated to day. Standing in front of the mag-nificent new altar, fresh from the hands of the consecrating prelate; in the splendidly renewed church, surrounded by a distin-guished gathering of his priestly confreres, and by a devoted and joyous congregation of his flock, assembled to testify their devotion and respect, and join in the jubilation the oc-casion called for; under the approving smile of his chief pastor, and with every omen aus-picious, he has reason to leel that apart from the blessings that have rested on his past life as a priest, the occasion of his Silver Jubilee was one that specially called for gratinde and thank-giving. This morning at St. Peter's Cathedral, of which Yen. Archdeacon Casey is rector, there was gathered a very large congregation, including a large num-ber of Protestants, to assist in the solemn Mass of thank-sgiving that was celebrated by Nev, Father Casey. Within the sancturary there were seated the Bishop, on his throne, and the following clergy, representative not only of the Diocess of Peterborough, but the Diocesse of Kingston and Toronto as well Monsigner Farelly, Belleville, Yiear General St. Cather Conway, Norwood ; Rev. that they spake not slightingly of his great office. THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS. At the close of the Mass the Bishop said that the Holy Ghost tells us to honor and re-spect him who hath spoken the word of God, and the apostle tells up that he who has labored faithfully is worthy of double honor, especially a priost, whose life is raised far above that of his people. He is an ambassa-dor—another Jesus Christ in the offering of the Mass. A priest to be worthy to appear at the altar must be pure and holy, a priest must make sacrifices and live a life of self denial, must obey the higher powers. His life is not his own, but one of self denial and withdrawal from the world. He must endure all hardship and be a model of piety to his flock. A priest's life being such, when he has faithfully followed that life proved worthy of his calling for twenty five years, he is worthy of double honor, and for that reason we thank Almighty God for one (Rev. Father Casey) who has proved faithful, and whose work has been blassed with so much grace, bestowed upon the several hocks among whom he has labored, and during his stay in Peterborough all had seen what taithful work he had done, and we therefore come to congratulate him upon his silver jubilee, and to pray that he great zeal: and fidelity of the past twenty five years. It was our duty to give thanks and congratulations, and to express our gratitude and personal feelings of jove and respect for the deep and faithful interest Ven. Archdeacon Casey has shown in the sal-vation of souls. A toaching tribute was paid to the purity of his holy life and the good ex ample Archdeacon Casey has shown in the sal-vation of souls. A toaching the hope that he might be spared many years to bear fruit to the glory of God and His Church, and that when his earthly labors were ended he might be called to enjoy a glorious crown, surrounded by the many souls his faithfulness as a priest has been the means of saving.

THE JUBILEE IN CORNWALL.

In the Jubiles celebration at Cornwall the Separate school boys formed a most interest. Separate school boys formed a most interest. Shalled by Mr. John Keating, the head master, and marched splendidly, being formed into a number of companies, each commanded by one of the older boys. But apart from their excellent marching there was another feature of their preparation for the event which added greatly to the inter-est of the procession. Upwards of a hundred pains which had made my life so mis erable. I feel that it bringing this matter before the public I am but doing simple justice to suffering humanity, and I hope that those afflicted as I was will give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a fair trial. I might also add that other members of our family have used Pink Pills with equally good results."

What Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for Miss Millar, they will do for thousands of other young girls throughout the country whose condition is similar. They restore the glow of health to pale and sallow cheeks, correct functional derange ments, and create a feeling of new life and energy. The genuine Pink Pills are sold only in boxes, the wrapper around which bears the full trade mark, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People." Refuse all pink colored imitations and other medicines said to be "just as good."
