The Bishop of London who has gone to Khartoum to consecrate the cathedral there which is being erected in memory of the late General Gordon will be absent until the Monday in Holy Week. From Khartoum the Bishop will go down the Nile to Cairo and then across to Jerusalem where he will stay for ten days with Bishop Blyth and occupy his stall as one of the Episcopal Canons in the Cathedral Church of St. George in Jerusalem. From thence he will journey slowly up Palestine visiting the mission stations on the way until he reaches Beyrout, whence he will return via Alexandria and Marseilles to London.

In connection with the campaign of resistance to Home Rule, the Primate of All Ireland, the most Rev. John Baptist Crozier, after consulting with the Archbishop of Dublin, the Most Rev. Joseph Ferguson Peacock and other bishops, has resolved to call a special meeting of the General Synod of the Church of Ireland, at Dublin, on March 21, to consider the crisis. The general belief is that before this date the government will have presented the Home Rule bill in parliament, so that its outlines will be in the hands of the synod. The Primate during the course of a recent interview, said that the prospect of another Home Rule bill was doing incalculable injury and has practically divided Ireland into two hostile camps. It has also accentuated religious differences, he said, to an extent unknown in recent years.

Recently a most handsome cope and mitre were presented to the Lord Bishop of Chichester as a "Coronation year gift," by the clergy and laity of the diocese. This is for the use of the present Bishop and his successors in the See. The presentation took place in the Chapter House of the Cathedral. Out of 380 parishes in the diocese no fewer than 338 sent contributions toward the purchase of the cope and mitre. The presentation was made to the Bishop in the presence of a large and influential gathering by the Very Rev. D. Hannah, the Dean, who in the course of his address remarked that the gift they were offering to the Bishop was in every way a worthy one, the cope itself has been insured for £500 whilst amongst in her 95th year. Together they devoted their lives to the spiritual and social welfare of this remote village on the Berkshire Downs, identifying themselves with all the joys and sorrows of some four generations of these simple country people. Among them they have celebrated their golden and diamond weddings, and only a few weeks since, just before leaving for the winter months at Bourne-mouth, had themselves planted in the presence of the villagers two trees to commemorate the Coronation of George V., the sixth of England's Sovereigns in whose reigns they had lived. Though in recent years Sir John had been assisted by a curate, yet to the last he had taken the keenest interest in all the work of the parish, and never failed to take his part in the daily religious teaching in the parochial schools. His surviving sons include the Lord Bishop of Southwell, the Rev. Prebendary Hoskyns, the Vicar of Brighton and Colonel Chandos Hoskyns, late R.E., who succeeds to the title.
