Stuart, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Parker, Mr. Seward Parkka and nicee, Miss Esther Stuart, now sum mering at Hogg's Island, enjoyed a, very delightful sail to the Shiretown on Thur day afternoon; and though their time w. limited, they report a grand time. Ti parade by the 4th Pioneer Battalion to ti Bank of Nova Scotia, accompanied I drums and bugles, was watched with musi- interest and highly enjoyed by the visitom Mrs. Austin Parker called on her autor Mr. Charles Gardiner, of Red Beact Me., is making a business trip on the land for a few days.	We have again to thank our moving picture manager, Mr. George Enos, for his generousity in giving the proceeds of an evening's pictures to the Red Cross work. Mr. James L. Savage met with a very serious accident last week. He had just started out on a fishing trip in his power boat, when somehow his arm came in con- itact with the coupling of the shaft. The flesh of his arm was badly bruised and lacerated and will be some time getting well. Mr. Martin Eldrige, of Beaver Harbor, was a recent visitor here. Mr. Waterson Hilyaud, who has been suffering from head trouble lately, went to St. Stephen last week to consult Dr. Holland. Mr. Godfon Lank, who has been away for some time is home again. Mr. Godfrey Calder has had a bad at- tack of blood poison in his hand. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Matthews; and a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Lomax, of Lepreau, who are visiting here. Rev. F. A. Currier and Mr. George Enos have gone to New River on a fishing trip. Master Clinton Lank is on the sick list, also Mr. William Newman. Mr. ALVINGSTONE Lot 5, P. E. I.
