

MILITIA CAMPS WILL BE HELD THIS YEAR AFTER ALL

Opposition Let Up On Its Obstruction and Estimates Were Gone Through

Twelve Thousand Soldiers Will Take Part in Quebec Tercentenary—One Company From Each Rural Corps Will Have Opportunity to Attend.

OTTAWA, Ont., June 10.—After waiting the greater part of the day in fruitless discussion of various questions raised by opposition members by way of semi-disguised obstruction to supply, the Commons finally got down to business at five o'clock this afternoon and in the last hour of sitting did the only real business of the day, namely, the passing of the vote of one million dollars of militia estimates to provide for the holding of the annual training camps.

Most of the morning session of the Commons was taken up with a discussion of the proposed appointment of Edward Charlier, of Montreal, to the House staff of official translators. Mr. Monk moved that the report of the debates committee, recommending an increase of salaries of Hansard staff and augmentation of translating staff be sent back for further consideration. He declared that Charlier, whom the committee recommended for the appointment, had been convicted and sent to jail for libel.

Mr. Gervais, Montreal, vigorously defended the appointment. At least five members of the house, he said, had been in jail for libel or contempt of court. There was no great crime that.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier pointed out that the report of the committee had already been adopted by the house and no question had been raised as to Charlier's qualifications as translator. Discussion was continued at considerable length by Mr. Bergeron and others.

A motion by Mr. Monk to refer back a report by the debates committee to the House was defeated.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, replying to Mr. Monk, said it was not the intention of the government either to oppose or suggest any part in connection with the all red line. That was a question which should be decided for purely business reasons and which should be left altogether to the company which might undertake the service. The only condition to be considered by the government was that the service must be between the United Kingdom and Canada. The government was not aware that the legislative committee had ever expressed any opinion on the subject otherwise than stated above. While the prime minister was in England last year he discussed the question of the all red route with the British cabinet committee, and Sir

GEORGE CONNOLLY COMMITTED SUICIDE

Jumps to His Death While Crossing from Ferry from Indianatown

George Connolly, who was born on the day of the St. John fairs, June 20, 1877, committed suicide at Indianatown yesterday morning by jumping overboard from the ferry. He was a popular young man and for some years had worked as a barber in the Royal Hotel shop. A few years ago he left St. John, having obtained employment at Sackville, but since that time has made occasional visits to this city. He came down quite recently and has been living with friends on Adelaide street. Yesterday, accompanied by his niece, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cosgrove, he went on board the Indianatown ferry boat E. Ross, with the evident intention of going to Mirford. While on the way across he jumped overboard. Captain Mabee, who is in charge of the ferry for the time being, put forth every effort to rescue the young man and actually got the boat right alongside of him so that Connolly was within arm's length, but before he could grasp the hand he sank. He refused to take a line thrown within his reach and a pole which was stretched towards him. Yesterday afternoon a number of North End men grasped for the body, but were unable to find it.

Connolly had been subject to nervousness which was the cause of his return from Sackville about a month ago. He had been under treatment by Dr. McInerney and had seen the doctor the day before yesterday. His trouble was not considered as a serious nature but his action this morning was probably due to depression. The little girl, Dorothea Cosgrove, who was with him on the boat at the time, returned home in such a confused and excited state—being only a little more than four years old—that she was unable to tell much of the occurrence. It is stated that before he jumped overboard Connolly handed her his watch and chain.

Later in the afternoon the little girl was able to tell more of the tragedy. She says that he was going to jump overboard. This made her cry, but someone else said her uncle was only joking. She, however, was sure that he had slipped and fell on the deck, and he jumped over.

DR. REID, M. P. IN BAD BOX

Con. Member Cheated Government

How He Used Public Property to His Own Profit

OTTAWA, June 10.—John Offspring, carpenter of the Government ship yard at Prescott this morning gave evidence with regard to repairs made to the yacht "Dak", owned by the Conservative member for Grenville, Dr. Reid and for which, it is alleged, he had not paid the Government. The witness stated that work had been done on the yacht in 1905 and had been ordered by J. P. Fraser, Commissioner of Lights, now under suspension. A second yacht had been hauled out for Dr. Reid the same year and no charge had been made to the member for the work done.

The government were using 200 feet of tracks over land of the Starb Company with which Dr. Reid is connected, as an approach to the property. Questioned with regard to Dr. Reid's use of a gas tank belonging to the government, which was carried into the starb factory as he could without going outside the government's property. A pipe was connected and carried into the starb factory. Dr. Reid used gas for some new process that was being tried. Witness thought the gas was used on these different occasions and there would be about 210 atmospheres of gas pumped into the tank. Mr. Offspring was also examined as to some dredging by the government dredge in front of Dr. Reid's property. He said the dredge had taken out two cuts and his understanding was that the dredging was for the purpose of allowing coal barges of the starb factory an easier entrance.

Alexander Hoggie, accountant at Prescott, who followed, was examined as to some length as to discrepancies between the account for work done on the yacht at the time and the amount claimed. He was also asked if he knew whether the account had ever been rendered to Dr. Reid, which he answered in the affirmative. He said he was present prior to his being put in his position, and he knew nothing of it until asked recently to look it up.

QUEEN'S COLLEGE SUBJECT FOR WARM DISCUSSION

Its Relation to Church Debated at Length in General Assembly

Took Up Most of the Time Yesterday—Safeguards for Theological Faculty in Case Separation is Adopted—Encouraging Reports Received

WINNIPEG, June 10.—The question of separating Queen's University, Kingston, from the Presbyterian church caused a spirited discussion in the general assembly today, and the opinions for and against were vigorously expressed. The subject came up on the presentation of a report by Principal Patrick, Winnipeg, of a special committee appointed to advise the assembly. This report suggested leaving the matter to the university trustees, and met much opposition. The debate occupied about half the time of the assembly for today.

The first business was the reception of a report of the committee to strike 22 standing committees for the year. The list showed comparatively few changes from that of last year and was adopted with little or no amendment. A plea to detach two presbyteries to be named Saskatchewan and Abernethy respectively, from the presbytery at Qu'Appelle.

Dr. Lyrie of Hamilton presented the report of the augmentation committee, western section. Dr. Lyrie urged the necessity of supporting the fund liberally, a short discussion ensued and the report was adopted.

Rev. S. J. McArthur, New York, N. B., presented the report of the augmentation committee (eastern section). This was adopted.

"The income from all sources amounted to $10,978, and the expenditure reached $5,410, leaving on hand the large balance of $5,568. We have thus been able to meet all engagements in full to our ministers in augmented fields and face the new year in a strong financial condition. Our receipts have been $81 greater than last year, but the largest factor in the credit balance is the lower amount of our payments. Our payments to congregations amounted to $7,921, being $1,099 less than last year, and $1,484 less than we expected of grants made by the committee and estimated as our expenditure. The fact that so much less has been drawn than was voted must be attributed to the horrible mangle of all weak fields, vacancy in pastorate."

The committee notes with gratification that the action taken two years ago in the matter of self-support has been quite successful, and the growing number have advanced to a minimum of $600 per annum.

The financial statement shows a balance at the beginning of the year of $106,10, and one at its close of $2,461.99. Total receipts were $10,978.71.

The report says in conclusion: "Our greatest need is not money, as the church has liberally responded to our appeal for support. We need consecrated men who will take up the burden of the Lord in these difficult fields of operation."

A special committee was appointed to arrange for religious services by the Presbyterian Church in connection with the Quebec centenary celebration in July.

The report of the committee of the order of decessions, with important recommendations, was presented by Mr. Martin of Brantford, and adopted. R. P. MacKay struck a verbal report for the information of the assembly on the work being done at St. Andrew's College, Toronto. Dr. McIntosh of Toronto presented an overture of the presbytery of Toronto on the supply of ministers. He said there was not so much for the ministry as now. The number of applications were decreasing. A motion to appoint a special committee to consider the matter and report to the assembly was carried.

The report of the widows and orphans' fund, Eastern and the Church of Scotland sections, were received and considered at some length. They were adopted, but the report of the western section was held over.

Principal Patrick, presenting the report of the special committee to deal with the Queen's memorial said the members were unanimous in the decision reached. They had heard many persons had examined the history of Queen's carefully, and particularly the conditions which had lately arisen had justified the senate in raising the question of the change in the constitution of the university and in forwarding it through the board of trustees for the consideration of the assembly.

The committee recommended the deliverance of the assembly on the subject, expressing gratification at the rapid growth and expansion of Queen's, and that success and prosperity would be continued in the future, and further that while the church was ready to maintain its present relationship it believed that the question of the character of relation should be determined by a board of trustees, which was ultimately responsible for the welfare and financial position of the university. The trustees should be authorized to take such after-consultation with the benefactors and graduates as might be deemed to be in the best interests of the institution. If the change was decided upon, provision must be made for carrying on the work of Queen's theological faculty on the basis satisfactory to the church. The committee was gratified to know that the movement to raise half a million dollars for the faculty of arts was meeting with success and hope the sum desired would soon be obtained. In view of the urgency of the case the assembly should appoint a committee to be named by the moderator, to give legal effect, if necessary, to whatever action should be determined upon by the board of trustees, and protect the interest of the church with regard to the work of the theological faculty.

The discussion on Queen's was very lengthy and spirited and continued to a late hour without being finished. The assembly adopted an address expressing loyalty to the throne and the person of his majesty the King with appropriate reference to the approaching visit of the Prince of Wales to Quebec. The address to the governor general included a tribute of the appreciation of his work in connection with the movement to convert the fields of Quebec into a national park.

SS. LADY EILEEN IS TOTAL WRECK

Body of Man Drowned in Found—Smallpox News—Narrow Escape

CAMPBELLTON, N. B., June 10.—A survey of the Interprovincial Navigation Co.'s steamer Lady Eileen, wrecked at Newport, New Brunswick, on Saturday night, was held today, and she was declared to be a total wreck. The heavy sea of the past two days has pounded her to pieces. The directors at present at Newport were met last night and other directors were communicated with in reference to procuring another steamer immediately to serve the route. Already the manager has had offers from three parties having steamers to charter, and it is likely the steamer will be running as usual in a few days.

Coroner Doherty was notified yesterday by telephone that the body of a man had been found near Lewisport Beach, near Matapedia. He made inquiries and was informed that the body was that of the owner of the steamer, which was above, Coroner Doherty did not deem an inquest necessary and gave permission to have the body removed to the hospital. The man belonged to New Mills, to which place the body was sent.

Yesterday, Dr. Luning reported to the local board of health that a young lady patient was suffering from smallpox. The inmates of the house were ordered to stay in and the house was quarantined. The young lady will be removed to the isolation hospital just as soon as a nurse can be procured. There is only one case in the hospital, and it is expected this one will be discharged today.

Joseph Daigle had a narrow escape from being killed yesterday while working on a steamer at the deep water terminus here. He was working loading deals when a guy line struck him as a sling of deals was being hoisted on board, throwing him from the deck of the steamer to the wharf. Fortunately he landed in such a manner that although receiving a severe shaking up his bones were broken. Dr. Martin was summoned and after an examination found that the man was very severely bruised about the head and neck. He will be removed to the hospital today.

FREDRICKTON GIRLS HAD NARROW ESCAPE IN RUNAWAY ACCIDENT

FREDRICKTON, June 10.—A serious runaway occurred here at a late hour this afternoon. While the Misses Thompson, daughters of Hon. Senator Thompson, accompanied by two young lady friends, were driving down Queen street in the senator's dog-cart, the horse took fright at an automobile at the head of the street and became unmanageable. Miss Margaret Thompson, who was driving, used her best endeavors to restrain the frightened beast, but without effect. The horse came down Queen street at a furious rate, the occupants holding on to their hats with their greatest difficulty. When near the Barker House the animal ran towards a telegraph pole by a Macdonald's drug store the wheel of the dog-cart struck the iron post on the sidewalk. Fortunately the post gave away and the jar was sufficient to check to some extent the horse's speed, when it was captured by a number of persons. The escape was a miraculous one.

The young ladies, who were considerably shaken up, were assisted from the carriage and driven to their homes. The wheel of the dog-cart was broken and the vehicle otherwise injured.

VERDICT OF CORONER'S JURY IN DROWNING CASE

FREDRICKTON, June 10.—The inquest on the body of the late Edward Currie, found in the Court House slip yesterday, was held this evening at the police court by Coroner Dr. Weaver. A number of witnesses were examined and the most important testimony produced being that of Emery Scott and Ross Currie, that both positively swore to the identification of the deceased, and Dr. Geo. J. McNally, who gave the opinion that death was the result of drowning and that there was no evidence of any violence. There was short consideration brought in a verdict, the substance of which was that the body was that of the late Edward Currie and that he deceased met death by accidentally falling into the river and drowning.

Sumner; vice-president, James Boyle; secretary, H. F. Hamilton; treasurer, J. H. Harris. The terms of the trustees: Senator McSweeney, Messrs. Hamilton and E. Girouard, having expired; Messrs. It is possible that the eye may be saved, but it is feared that the sight will be permanently impaired.
