

We Are Ready to Be Bought

Four little girls would be tickled most to death to get us from Santa Claus. We are ready and waiting to be bought. If you wait too long some one else will get us, because we are really pretty cute. Better buy us today and you will surely have us. You can take us to the closet until Christmas. We will not mind waiting in the dark - in fact, we rather like it.

You know you really ought to DO YOUR CHRISTMAS SHOPPING EARLY.

... way to lights or lucifer matches. Proceeding, the inspector draws attention to the fact that there was no "bottomer" employed in the pit on the day in question as required by the act of 1911. After pointing out the desirability of making cabins as fire-proof as possible, Sir Henry concludes: "This accident shows how deplorable it is that not only firemen, but some man or men at least in each group who are working independently should be acquainted with the roadways of the mine and should be instructed what to do in case of danger."
