1000

ver

M.

Dock

CON

VIAN

Stands

hite Pass Dick

mi

99999999

MPANT

Prices.

King Street

0., Ltd. 1

m. sud 5 p. m.

666666

Rout

on Tap

nanza

Saloon

Y CO.

ht Service

ATH, Mgt.

ND

Bentley's Folding Bed.

heated all improvements foaming point. and he said that such a huge Mrs. Cochran glowered. ed was out of all proportion or legitimate wish. she went down to the store, was so big in the store." nd she was just in time to get thalf price. What luck! She of the remark, but she said: ected to pay $35 for the bed, not stop to inquire.

good luck ended, and she en-were too busy to send the earned that it was a giant. She But at last an expressman who the reflected that the salesman had need to be papered when the bed fatly up, for it took up the entire

he went and waited for the bed helplessly. all the arder of a small child. time the dumb waiter blew out to see if they were trysend it up that way, but hours it came in at the en minutes or so Mrs. Bentmastodonic footsteps on he crash of falling globes, the knew that they were bringarrival at different landings ctuated by the crash of glass be fall of plaster. And on the par the bed fell on one of the Luckily he was a fat German, e escaped with a barked shin mislaid temper.

returning heads of families | sides seemed tragic to her. from their little ones by e wall of a bed. Those athletic enough climbed scaped to their apartments st had to content themthrowing kisses to their and telling them not to entley had not hitherto the expressman nthere were so many people livwith them, and the bed moved the deliberation of a glacier. in the men reached the fourth they clamored for beer, and for two bottles, which were altogether; pull !" tht in by the janitor's son.

d flat dwellers who lived above ed off some of the moulding and fell reasonable prices. third. It is probable that they, on his back. s after the bottles had been the fire escape and push."

it, and it was the nar- thieves in the night. the building. When the load, they found that it ly laughed at them. to be a Chinese puzzle to he last globe and then sat a the stairs to ponder. the opened to admit of its be-

Cochran was the opposite She and Mrs. Bentley had distant as such contiguous as could be. Their bows were as icy as the hall the doorway just one mo- light of their misfortunes and pass-man rang the bell. She and Cora bought the giant fold- jurgations and beery laughter of the They lived on the sixth expressmen had roiled the not too after carpenter came and looked at them are convicted of crimes, mostly make. "If I was a tree, and seen a

"Oh!" said Mrs. Bentley, with a size of the bedroom. But hastily made veneer of sweetness. failed that made them. Now, next will be taken to the Salem institute the tree was so skeared when it seen mation that will lead to the arrest nentley had set her heart on it, "May the men just swing the bed inpentley had set her heart on the fence a comin' that it was root to his shop is a vacant lot, and tion.

The case of McGovern is unusually to the spot."—Indianapolis News. Bentley has not been it into my doorway? I didn't supcandump it there and the owner of pathetic. He had both his hands pose it was so big. I don't think it the lot won't mind

Mrs. Cochran sniffed at the inanity

"Oh, I suppose I can't refuse. I be get it at $25, although by hope you'll quit your thumping after nes the half of thirty-five to sleep while it's going on."

"I'm sure it will only be a minute. with the reduced price of the You see, the worst is over "I should hope so," said Mrs.

per good luck ended, so time the decream of the mirror, Czar of that severnment cheated him pon a chapter of analytic format and the broken globes. And which was preserved intact, there out of his rights, or he would have then the two expressmen put their people were just moving shoulders to the bed and swung in unbroken. The carpenter sent the to be a great financier, controlling into the doorway with such vehrience pieces down on the dumb waiter and vast sums of money. Five separate expressmen that it stuck like a fat cork in a then took them away and presum- The story of Hall's mishap is a to stir their wagons when small bottle and refused to budge. "Well, this is a pretty state of to wish that it was a trundle things," said Mrs. Cochran from be- ing the door. It was so pleasant to terribly frozen. Weakened and exhind the bed. "How do you suppose be able to do it again." But at last of a furious hausted during the last of a furious just starting in business and we're going to close our front door. Then Mrs. Bentley invited her blizzard, he had wandered around was therefore inexperienced con- with that great bed in the way?"

"You von't need to close it. No for making so much trouble. one vill come in vhile der bet is the reflecter may the sattlement of the sattleme size, as one side of the room did the German laughed uproariously and about."

Mrs. Bentley, wringing her hands and $10 for damage to the hallways, than to warm the deadened extremi-

"I should think it was," came the voice of Mrs, Cochran from the oth- destroy the bed, was rather a large placed his hands in the blaze. The er side of the bed.

finally arrived after a wait he help push ?" suggested Mrs. Bent- word about it.

"No," snapped Mrs. Cochran. "He hasn't come home yet, and, what's more, he can't until this barrleade is victoro for Canadian-bred Shorthorn the swish of tearing wall removed. How anybody but a fool heifers was scored at the auction sale could have bought such a monstrous of Shorthorns at Chicago on Friday thing I don't see !"

be bed up stairs. So did all the At this juncture Mr. Cochran came known Canadian breeders participated dwellers. When she looked up stairs, with Mr. Bentley just bethe staircase, there were from hind him. Mr. Cochran looked puz- Canadian-bred animals for an averto four heads beneath her, all zled. Mr. Behtley groaned. He had age of $595, his highest being $1,000 come home too soon.

asked Mr. Cochran.

said the fat German joyously.

Mrs. Bentley saw no humor in the Que., $551. It was found there was the table before which he was standremark; and certainly Mrs. Cochran a great demand for superior Short- ing with his fist and replied before that there was a string saw no funny side to the bed. Both horn bulls, Mr. Cochrane selling two

> "Yes, it's me. Shall I come in?" cape," said Mrs. Cochran despairing- Mr. Dryden, who returned yesterday wrong door?" - asked Mr. Bentley of said, was a decided success.

"Sure, 'twould have shtook as fasht in anny dure," said the Irish sympathetically.

Mr. Cochran is a successful politic Nest region. cian, but he had the wrong kind of ay up, on the bed and opened a pull with him, and the only result of spiece amid groans from the the effort was that Mr. Bentley pull- be secured at the Nugget printery at heady solaced themselves with Nothing daunted, Mr. Cochran for they became very merry and said, "Let's go around by way of many of their jokes The two expressmen and Mr. Cochbut have been allowed at a ran made nothing of passing from Mrs. Bentley's parlor to Mrs. Cochs a saying that there is al- ran's parlor by the fire escape, but at the top. This did not Mr. Bentley is light headed and had the case in regard to the to be helped across-by his wife. The hallway at the top Then the two entered the Cochran a joint affair, two suits apartments, for the first time, like

Now all six combined their lly arrived with their tre- strength and pushed, but the bed on-

"Well, nothing more can be done Mrs. Bentley's. They shat now," said Cochran. "The bed is here, and it's got to stay here for the present. Now, you men might finally came to the conclu- as well go about your business. at they could not get it in un- You've done what you set out to do foor of the opposite apart- -the bed is up here fast enough." "How much do I owe you?" asked Bentley of the German. "Two dolars. I'll sent arount a carpenter if you vand." "Oh, no !" said Mrs. Bentley.

"He'll be able to move it." Back across the fire escape was Mr. Mrs. Cochran though Mrs. Bentley belped by his faithful wife, a foolish little new wife, and and they they bade the Cochrans ey thought Mrs. Cochran good night. It was such an impos sible thing that had happened that here was nothing for it but everybody felt good natured once Mrs. Cochran to open her more, just as in a blizzard or a periand let the man swing the od of excessive heat people make ersby joke one another. Next morning immediately after dear, with fire in her breakfast Mrs. Bentley went down to but the new type the bed company to see whether they bed out of Mrs. Cochran's doorway.

They had moved, and a big sign in door to my shop is a vacant lot, and tion.

Cochran, who was on the other side, sulted in his mind giving way en- Herald. process of arithmetic twenty- you get it in. I can't get my child what had come between them they McGovern's hallucination seems to neighbor into her flat and apologized here in hopes of reaching a safe re-

It was no trouble at all, my dear.

Now, Mr. Bentley seemed to think "Oh, but this is too awful!" said that $25 for the bed, $2 for delivery out any other apparent reason other together with the charge of the car- ties, Hall rushed to an open stove

Canadian Cattle Lead

Toronto, Qune 24 - A significant and Saturday, in which three well At this juncture Mr. Cochran came known Canadian breeders participat- come to New York in August to re and his lowest $300. The imported "What are you doing to the bed?" females sold by W. C. Edwards & who has just returned from England. Co. of Rockland, Ont., which includ-"Ve ain't doin' a t'ing to id," ed many mature cows with calves by their side, averaged $480, and those Bentley and Cochran laughed, but of Hon. M. H. Cochrane, of Hillhurst pretty good animals for $2,010 and to smash John Sheehan's face. "You can't except by the fire es- $43,265, an average of $527. Hon. from Chicago, expressed himself as

Sale of Coal Lands

Butte, Mont., June 20. - H. L. expressman, and the German roared Frank, of this city, has sold a threefourths interest in his coal mines at Mr. Cochran is a man of action. Frank, B.C., to a French syndicate 'Here; we four men ought to be able for $1,300,000. A payment of $85,-Bentley, being inexperienced, to move a little be-a bed. Now, 000 has been made to bind the sale. The Frank mines are in the Crow's

The finest of office stationery may

$3,00

Keep posted on local and foreign events.

DAILY NUGGET

and the most complete local news gathering system of any Dawson paper, and will be de

$3.00 Per Month!

livered to any address in the city for

The Nugget has the best telegraph service

You can do this by subscribing for the Crazed by Suffering.

Seattle, June 25 .- In addition to the window bore the legend, "To Be the regular passengers, the Nome er Claybank, "ran right through the Opened In a Few Days as a Ladies' City brought back eight United biggest tree I had in my place." States prisoners who were in the "Ha, ha, ha," laughed his jovial breast, light chops, light grey stripe For the space of two days that bed custody of Deputy United States neighbor, with a lively appreciation running from point of hose up bestood in the doorway while carpenter Marshal A. B. Estabrook. Six of of the merry jest he was about to tween eyes, front legs white, hind They lived on the sale of her disposition to a lit and shook his head and went away. of a petty character, and the other fence runnin', I'd dodge." Then came one who said: "I've two, Fred Hall and a man named "It did try to leave," replied Far. curled over back or left side, nose seen those beds before. They ain't McGovern, whose residence and anter mer Claybank, naught abashed by very small like a tox or coone I will worth bothering with. The com- cedants are unknown, are crazy, and the delicate wit of the neighbor but pay the above reward for any infor> frozen terribly while caught out in a Mrs. Bentley hailed the scheme as storm during the early portion of picture to a charitable purpose: a heven sent proposition. Mr. January, and eventually lost both of Critic-Why not give it to an in-Bentley was down town, and Mrs. them. The shock and exposure re- stitution for the blind "-New York materials is the best that ever came chatting with her-for in spite of tirely and he went violently insane were now quite friendly-second?d be that he is an extremely wealthy man. He says that he owns the The carpenter borrowed an axe of whole world, with the single excepthe janitor and in a half hour's time tion of Moscow, Russia, but that the was not a square foot of the bed had that. Then he imagines himself ably dumped them. Mrs. Cochran terrible one. He was found just afspent five minutes shutting and open- ter the storm had subsided, to be hausted during the last of a furious fuge, but the strain was too much and he was unconscious when rescuinvestigation showed that his handswere in a terrible condition. Withpenter for the time it took him to and before he could be reached had amount to pay for a subject of con-members had to be almost immedi-"Is your husband in there? Can't versation. So he isn't saying a ately amputated. The man never recovered from the terrible shock and the end was that he became a violent maniac; his reason is entirely gone.

Will Smash Sheehan

New York, June 21. - Richard Croker announces his purpose to well-known turiman who saw him at his home in Wantage last week and his guest, set his jaw and thumped

"Is that you, George?" she called $1,800 respectively. In all there were out.

82 cattle sold by the three Canadian chief's exclusion. He describes Mr. Croker's visitor says he has no breeders, their total receipts being Croker's resentment against Sheehan temperament and self-control Croker "What are you doing with it in the well pleased with the sale, which, he talked a long time to him about Sheehan's course in Tammany polihan's recent statement that he; Croker, got $1,500,000 out of the Third avenue railway wreck through his reputed connection with Naughton & to answer for it to me," Croker declared. "I'm going back to make him

Send a copy of Goetzman's Souve-nir to outside friends. A complete pictorial history of Klondike. For ale at all news stands. Price $2.50.

Punsters on the Farm.

"That new line fence," said Farm-

Artist-I'd like to devote my last $50 Reward.

feet white, extreme tie of tail white, belly light color, always carries tail the fence a-comin' that it was rooted and conviction of the thief and recovery of dog.

> Answers to name of Prince F. J. HEMEN.

Klondike Nugget.

Alaska Flyers

Alaska Steamship Co.

Leave Skagway Every Five Days

DOLPHIN leaves Skagway for Seattle and Vancouver, trans ferring to Victoria, June 12th, 22nd, July 2nd, 12th, 22nd. HUMBOLDT for Seattle direct, transferring to Vancouver and Victoria, June 17th, 27th, July 7th, 17th 27th.

Also A 1 Steamers Dirigo and Faration Leaving Skagway Every 18 Days.

 Pacific Packing and Navigation Co.

Copper River and Cook's Inlet

YAKUTAT, ORCA, VALDEZ, HOMER,

FOR ALL POINTS Abote Steamer Newport Note Property of Cont. Plant of Cont. Plant of Cont. Plant of Cont.

OFFICES SEATTLE CO. First Ave. and Yorlor Way. SAM PRANCISCO No. 10 Colleges Street

Did It Your Eye?

A Little Printer's Ink, if Judiciously Used, Will Do It Every Time.

Speaking of Printer's Ink, we have barrels of it, all colors; also the most complete line of Job Stock ever brought to Dawson.

How Are You Fixed

If you need anything in the Printing Line give us a call, we can supply you with anything from a calling card to a blank

Remember, Rush Jobs Are Our D elich

Jobs Promised Tomorro's Delivered Yesterday.

Che nugget Printery