A MACHINERY CASE

Supreme Court of Canada Hears Important Manitoba Appeal

Special to The Leader. OTTAWA, May 28.—In the Supreme Court today, the arguments in the case of the Fairchild Co. against the respondents in this case were heard. The respondents in this case contracted to deliver to the appellant certain machinery consisting of an engine and a caboose for use in threshing to be paid for by note. The machinery was delivered in part and the notes were given. The trial judge held that the appellant had accepted the portion of the machine delivered and that the failure to deliver the balance was only a breach of the contract, and did not preclude them from recovering. Judgment was reserved. Mr. Macleod, K.C., appeared for the appellants and C. P. Wilson and Hoekin for the respondents.

JOLLY MAY IRWIN STATES HER AGE

AND ADMITS RECENT MARRIAGE TO YOUTHFUL MANAGER

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, N. Y., May 28.—"Jolly" May Irwin, the actress, was married on Sunday to her business manager, Kurt Eisfeldt. Miss Irwin is 45 years old. Mr. Eisfeldt is 35. "I suppose I may as well confess," said Miss Irwin. "Yes, it's true, all of it," she continued. "I was married to Mr. Eisfeldt, the ceremony taking place Sunday at her home in the Thousand Islands. But say, a morning newspaper said that I was 58 years old and that Mr. Eisfeldt was only 28. That's cruel. Do I look 58 years, for goodness' sake? As a matter of fact, I'm only 45 years. You needn't smile, it's true. That is exactly my age. As for Mr. Eisfeldt, I wish he was only 25, but he is 35 years old."
