Whitmore Bros. intend making extensive improvements on the Regina Steam Laundry plant and building.

An American syndicate have purchased 150 feet fronting on Victoria park and will erect a $150,000 apartment block.

Several rinks from Winnipeg will take part in the Regina bonspiel. The noted Ships Braden and Lemon will have rinks.

The Polmatier sisters gave a splendid program. They will appear in the city hall on January 17th under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias.

J. A. Kress has returned to the city and will assist in the management of the Lansdowne. The hotel will be remodelled and generally improved.

A cloud of steam from an overheated furnace caused an alarm of fire from Sporer's pool room. A broken glass door was the extent of the damage.

Rev. Canon Hill was at Maple Creek on Sunday attending the opening of a new church. Services at St. Paul's were taken by Bishop Harding.

J. A. M. Patrick of Yorkton, was in the city on Monday, and as Grand Master of the I.O.O.F. for Saskatchewan installed the officers of the local lodge in the evening.

Whitmore Bros. have purchased the Balhayne property on Hamilton street for $15,000. This property has a frontage of 75 feet on Hamilton and 125 feet on Twelfth avenue.

A. E. Ross, late of the Cocksbutt Plow Company, of Regina, has accepted a position as bookkeeper for the Davidson-Fraser Lumber Co., at Drinkwater.—Rouleau Enterprise.

S. McLeod, of Prince Albert, was in the city on Saturday returning to his home at Prince Albert from a trip east. While in the city he was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. McLeod.

Balgownie has a newspaper. The editor and publisher is J. W. Balley. The name of the paper is The Observer and it is well patronized by the advertisers of that flourishing town.

J. M. Reid, western representative of the Ontario Wind, Engine and Pump Co., was in the city from Winnipeg last week. It is probable that his company may erect a distributing warehouse in Regina.

Herman C. Bumpus, director of the American Museum of Natural History, said today that he had heard of the efforts made to launch an American expedition and understood that McMillan, Bartlee and Borup were all eager to go.

The death took place at the hospital on Saturday of Arthur Leitch, a student at St. Chad's hostel. Death followed an operation for appendicitis. His parents live at Esterhazy. The late Mr. Leitch took up mission work last summer in the Zealandia district.

Frederick W. Laidley of Swift Current is at present in Regina selling stock in the Saskatchewan Light, Heat and Power Company, Ltd., and is meeting with good success. The company have acquired the franchise granted for ten years by the people of Swift Current to bore for and supply natural gas.

At a meeting of the public health committee last week a letter was read from the city librarian charging that certain medical men were not reporting cases of infectious and contagious diseases. This referred especially to measles and Dr. Meek agreed that in the case of measles many cases had not been reported.

E. Sample, late of the city police force, has been engaged to act as constable for the Canadian Pacific Railway at the local depot and will keep the bulletin boards marked up to date. It is also reported that the company are devising a more complete system of handling out information to the traveling public, by phone and otherwise.

A despatch from Omaha, Neb., of January 4th states that William E. Knowles, M.P. was married in Omaha that day to Miss J. M. Laurie, a niece which had its beginning in Ottawa several years ago. Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Knowles left for New Orleans, where they will spend their honeymoon between that city and Havana, Cuba. Later they go to New York

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

THE WESTERN SCHOOL SUPPLY COMPANY, LIMITED

Pursuant to special resolutions passed at meetings of the said Company held at the City of Regina on the 8th and 18th days of December, A.D. 1909, by which George S. Peacock was appointed Liquidator for the purpose of winding up the said Company, the Creditors of the said Company are on or before the 11th day of March, A.D. 1910, required to send by post, prepaid to the said Liquidator, George S. Peacock, Regina, Saskatchewan, or to the undersigned solicitors, their Christian names and surnames, addresses and descriptions, full particulars of the indebtedness of the Company to them, statements of their securities, and the nature of the securities, if any, held by them, and in default of so doing within the time above limited, any rights to relief on account of such indebtedness will be barred.

DATED at Regina this 29th day of December, A.D. 1909.

EMBURY, WATKINS & SCOTT,
Solicitors for George S. Peacock, and thence to Ottawa to be present at the sessions of parliament.
Liquidator.

At a recent meeting of the board of trade a letter from the Edmonton board of trade asking for co-operation was filed without action being taken. The Edmonton people resent the action of the Lord's Day Alliance in endeavoring to have the post offices closed on Sundays. The members of the Regina board of trade evidently believe they can get along without their Sunday letters.

J. C. Kress, one of the most popular of Winnipeg's curriers, has left for Regina to take up his residence. Mr. Kress is first vice president of the Thistle curling club, and that organization feels a distinct loss in his departure. As a token of the esteem in which he was held by his fellow members, Mr. Kress was waited upon before leaving on Monday night and presented with an address and travelling bag for himself and cut glass for Mrs. Kress. Peter Lyall, president of the Thistle Club made the presentation. "Jack" is assured that a big bunch of the boys will be up to see him at the Regina hospital.—Manitoba Free Press.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS

At the meeting of Capital City Lodge, No. 1, held Wednesday evening, the installation of officers for the ensuing year took place. In the absence of Grand Chancellor Riley of Winnipeg, D. Deputy Rankin took charge of the ceremonies. There was a well attended meeting. The report of 1909 was in every way satisfactory and shows a steadily increasing membership and a sound financial standing.

The following are the new officers: Chancellor Commander—R. T. Williams. Vice Chancellor—E. W. Bull. Prelate—J. E. Nicol. Master of Work—O. Y. Smith. Keeper of Records and Seal—R. M. Houston. Master of Finance—M. W. Rescor. Master of Exchequer—S. E. Story. Master at Arms—C. W. Hilton. Inner Guard—A. Peterson. Outer Guard—A. McCallum.
