Whey is plentiful at our factory just now. Henry has a good well and stoau to pump. All those good people who draw their few pounds of milk and cabbage twice as much water and whey remind us of the old fable of one hog hauling whey to many.
One of our nice young men, who has been attending all the pic-nics and other gatherings this season, wished to be called early the other morning in order to get to the Westport pic nic on time, and fearing that "uncle" would not waken him in time, he went to one of the neighbors to borrow an alarm clock. The clock was all right but the alarm would not go off, so the young lady who stops there suggested that she would act in that capacity. "Tis said that the young man started on time for the pic-nic.

garded as a star of the first magnitude in the political firmament of this province

About two o'clock on Friday morning Mr. Fraser, who had been at Owen Sound and up the lakes in the distrace of his duties as Inspector of Registry Offices and Forestry, arrived in Toronto, accompanied by Dr. Chamberlain, Inspector of Prisons and Asylums. He was feeling tired and the Dr. accompanied him to his room in the new purliament buildings. At six o'clock the morning papers were delivered and the messenger found his door closed and the gas burning brightly. Not hearing any one moving inside he called to Mr. Fraser, but receiving no answer he opened the door and found the ex-Minister lying dead in the lavatory adjoining his room. He had not retired. His coat and vest were lying on the bed, and it was evident that death had taken place not long after ae had arrived home.

The last sad rites attending the burial of the deceased statesman took place at Brockville on Sunday. Fally seven thousand people are estimated to have assembled in and along the line of procession to do honor to him whom all had honored and whom all mourned.
