MILITARY BANQUET

Bugle-Major Will. Plumeridge entertained the bugle and drum band and a number of the officers, including Lieut.-Col. J. B. Rankin, Acting Adjt. Will Coltart, and Captains Stone, Massey and McLaren, Surgeon-Major W. H. Tye, Orderly Sergt. E. Harold Rankin, and Sergts, Lew Reid and R. Hutchison to a banquet last Monday evening in the Sergeants mess rooms over the Merchant's Bank.

The banquet was a sumptuous one and well worthy of the caterer. Bugler Jordan had his gramaphone present and gave many very enjoyable selections. After the banquet many songs and dances were indulged in. About, 10.30 the officers retired, but before doing so, Adjutant Coltart was heard to remark that he would return if necessary. The good time was continued for another hour and then the party broke up with "For he's a jolly good fellow," and "God save the King," after heartily thanking Mr. Plumeridge for, and congratulating him on his entertainment.

COMBER CONCERT

The grand concert under the auspices of the Cheerful Workers of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Comber, on Sept. 27th, was a decided success. Among those taking part were Miss Gemmel and Miss Lawrence, of Chatham; Mrs. Powell, of Tilbury, and W. White, of Toronto. Miss Gemmel played the plano in a most pleas- from morphine medicine and an invesing manner, and Chatham is to be complimented on possessing such a

One of the most pleasing features of the evening was the part taken by Mr. White, who is a hymorist of no mean character. Mr. White excels in characteristic songs and is capable of keeping his hearers in continual laughter As an entertainer he ranks with the best and the pleasant manner of his acting will be long remembered in Comber.

WEDDING BELLS.

A very pleasant event took place on Wednesday last at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Russell, of Essex, when their daughter Fanny was united in marriage to Mr. Ed. Beacom, of Learnington, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Mr. J. C. Reid, of Cottom, in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bride and groom. The bride looked charming in a dress of pale blue silk trimmed in lace and ribbons, as she stood beneath an arch of evergreens decorated with roses, and was assisted by her sister, Miss L. J. Russell, of Detroit, while the groom was ably supported by Mr. W. Hope, of Blythwood. The presents were costly and numerous. After partaking of the sumptuous repast provided for the occasion, the young couple left amid the best wishes of a host of friends for Niagara Falls and other eastern points, where they will spend their honeymoon, after which they will take up their residence in Leaming-

RECENT WEDDING

The home of Mr. Edward Murdock of Raleigh, was the scene of another pretty wedding last Tuesday afternoon, as the hands of the clock rose noward to six, when his youngest daughter Victoria became the bride of Mr. Geo. E. Claus, of Detroit. The bride looked "every inch a bride' in her beautiful gown of white Persian muslin and real lace made "en train,' wearing orange blossoms in her hair and carrying a bouquet of fragrant white roses.

The Rev. Dr. Battisby performed the eremony, it being the third occasion the kind on which the Rev. gentle-in had officiated at Mr. Murdock's. erwards at small tables decorated with palms, smilax, asters and golden-rod. The window in which the bridal couple stood while the knot was being tied was a semi-circular bank of white asters, flanked by palms and overhung with smilax.

Only the immediate relatives were present at the ceremony and at the dainty luncheon which was served afterwards a tsmall tables decorated from New York Sept. 1, which landed with pink and white asters and trails of smilax, the bride's table being dis- nia, at Plymouth last Friday, arrived inguished by white flowers.

After luncheon Mr. and Mrs. Claus ok their departure on the 9.52 Wa-ish train for their future home in troit, followed by the good wishes a host of friends in the neighborod which they have left behind. The presents were very beautiful useful, testimony to the esteem in ch the young bride is held by her the possibility of her interfering with

THE TURF

TOMMY BURNS.

W. C. Whitney has re-engaged Tommy Burns, the famous Chatham born jockey, to ride for him next season. Burns received a letter from Mr. Whitney at the end of last week, to the option in jockey's contract for next season, and that the boy could consider himself e-engaged at the old terms, $15,000 year. Burns was recently deprived Jockey Club for "constant misbe-havior at the post." Several days ago he wrote a letter to the stewards asking them to re-open his case, but the request was refused. Whether Mr. Whitney knew that Burns was set down when he wrote the letter nentioned above could not be learned, but if he did it was probably with the belief that Burns would receive license to ride again next year. If Burns was set down for the reason explained by the Jockey Club stewards, turimen are confident that the suspension will not extend beyond the present season. They say that the penalty inflicted is unusually severe, and that if Burns is permanently prevented from riding it will be due. to other causes than those made pub-
