Initial Session Of Quadrennial Conference At Montreal

THE OFFICERS ELECTED

Montreal, Sept. 13.—Yesterday's proceedings at the Methodist general conference were singularly barren of striking features, a disposition to get business done in a practical and prosaic fashion, perhaps, being due to the heat which prevails. Consequently the organization of the conference has been of a strictly routine character, and the only approach to the enthusiasm occurred when Rev. S. F. Collier of Manchester, England, fraternal delegate of the British Wesleyan conference, was presented.

Rev. T. A. Moore General Secretary. There were 228 delegates on the first ballot for general secretary, and Rev. T. Albert Moore got 104. Rev. J. S. Ross, Oakville, 25; James Allen, 13, and George Steel, 12, were next in the running. On the second ballot Mr. Moore received 206 votes. Rev. J. J. Rae, Pictou; S. E. Clement, Brandon, and W. D. McCoy, Halifax, were appointed assistants, and Rev. G. H. Cornish, L.L.D., Journal clerk.

The honors were passed around at the opening service as far as possible. Rev. George Steel read scripture passages, and Rev. Dr. Henry Yarnmouth, N. S., and Justice MacLaren offered prayer. John Torrance, the Montreal millionaire, welcomed the conference to the city.

Dr. Carman's Address. Rev. Dr. Carman, general superintendent, delivered his quadrennial address and was attentively listened to. Applause broke out two or three times. This was most marked at a reference to the ministers, who are "allured to secular ventures and pursuits." In the course of his address Dr. Carman gave the following statistical summary of the quadrennium:

AND NOW THERE IS NONE.

Ind. Liberal Candidate in Bromo County Withdraws From Contest.

Montreal, Sept. 13.—Le Canada publishes a known dispatch announcing the retirement of N. W. Westover, the Independent Liberal candidate in the Bromo County provincial bye-election, thus giving the seat to W. F. Vilas, the regular Liberal nominee, by acclamation.

This was the seat held by Hon. J. C. McCormick, translated to the bench, and Vilas only got the nomination by a majority of four votes. Failing the regular party nomination, Westover decided to run anyhow, but pressure was brought to bear on him to obviate the necessity of a contest.

By-Elections Writs Issued.

Ottawa, Sept. 13.—Writs were issued yesterday for the bye-elections in East Elgin and North Renfrew. The date of polling is Oct. 4; nomination a week earlier.

Yesterday the Government telegraphed for the North Renfrew writ to be returned. Beachburg Fair, the greatest annual event in the constituency, will be held from Oct. 3 to Oct. 11, and the Government had overlooked this all-important fact. The election will take place Oct. 9.

Bartender Fined and Warned.

Ottawa, Sept. 13.—The first conviction under the new license law, whereby the bartender is held liable with the hotelkeeper, was made in Ottawa yesterday. C. M. Whelan of the Dominion House was fined $50 and costs for selling in prohibited hours, and his bartender was fined $5 and costs, with a warning that a repetition would mean the cancellation of his license.

Mr. Aylesworth Pardons.

Toronto, Sept. 13.—Thomas Hiram Lloyd, the Newmarket barrister who pleaded guilty at the December sessions last to stealing large sums of trust money and was sentenced to eighteen months in the Central Prison by Judge Winchester, has been pardoned by the Minister of Justice, Hon. A. B. Aylesworth. Lloyd served about half his time.

Boundary Line Fixed.

Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 13.—The work of fixing the Canada-Alaska boundary line has been completed by Astronomers McDermid of Ottawa and Smith of Washington at Dawson. Monuments from Yukon River to Mount St. Elias northward will be set up next spring.
