BUY A STOVE NOW...

You certainly cannot go wrong in buying a stove at the prices we are naming. We never before made such cuts as we have made now. And then remember that prices are bound to go higher. Next year you will see you are paying from 15% to 25% more than our regular prices. This means with our reduced prices a saving of from 25% to 35%, and the coldest part of the winter is over.

Regular Prices were:
$10, 12, 14, 16, 18, 35, 40
Present Prices are:
$8, 10, 12, 14, 16, 31, 35
Next Years Prices will be:
$12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 45
Won't it pay you to buy now?

WHITELY'S SLAYER

Identified as Former Schoolmaster—Will Probably Recover.

London, Jan. 26.—The police have identified the murderer of William Whitely, the aged merchant, who was shot Thursday, as Horace George Rayner. He is supposed to have been a schoolmaster, but recently was unemployed and lived in a cheap hotel at Bloomsbury. He told the proprietor of the place that he was the son of a wealthy London business man hailing from Yorkshire, from which part of the country the late Mr. Whitely came.

The murderer was operated upon yesterday morning. His injured eye was removed, and the bullet which he fired into his forehead was extracted. The doctors believe that Rayner will recover. The motive for the crime is still a mystery.

Cattle Dying In Alberta.

Lethbridge, Alberta, Jan. 26.—The chinook of the last few days gave way at noon Wednesday to a fierce storm, which has since been raging continuously, covering the ranges with several inches of snow. The condition of the cattle is, of course, worse than ever. The big company at Raymond, it is said, anticipates the loss of 100,000. It is thought that about 25 per cent. of the cattle in the country will perish.

Horse breeders report no losses and anticipate none, as the horses can paw their way to the food.

Seven Jurors In Thaw Case.

New York, Jan. 24.—Fifty-one talesmen were examined in fast time yesterday in an effort to complete the jury which is to try Harry K. Thaw for the killing of Stanford White, and at the end of the day's session two names had been added to the jury roll, making seven in all. One hundred and one talesmen have thus far been examined, and five jurors remain to be chosen.

Killed At Level Crossing.

Ambridge, Jan. 26.—Last evening Thos. Doonan, who lives a few miles from town, and father of A. Doonan, grocer, was driving a team of horses attached to a cutter, and, in crossing the G.T.R. tracks, was struck by the express from Ottawa and killed, as were also both horses. He had been in town attending the ice races. He was somewhat hard of hearing.
