LOCAL MATTERS.

FIRST OF THE SEASON.—A large butterfly made its appearance among the house plants in Mr. J. L. Edwards'

Trueman's parlor last Thursday.

A VALUABLE HORSE belonging to Mr. J. L. Black, M. P. P., died yesterday from some unknown cause. He was an excellent roaster and was highly prized by his owner.

THE CONCERT by the Amherst

Band on Friday evening is not part of the Mount Allison Course. The concert advertised in connection with that course will be given towards the end of March.

SALVATION ARMY.—The Sackville contingent have been so successful here that they are now attacking the outposts. They opened fire at Middle Sackville last Thursday evening and had a very successful meeting.

"BAD FOR THE CO."—A cow belonging to Mr. Charles Trueman got a piece of mangel wurzel stuck in her throat last Thursday and, with all efforts to remove the obstruction proving unavailing, the poor animal died the following day.

ENDED BY MARRIAGE.—What promised to be a very interesting breach of promise suit was settled out of court in Albert County on Tuesday by the marriage of Miss Jonah, of Coverdale, and Mr. Jehiel

Duffy, the parties to the suit.

COMMISSIONER'S COURT.—Jerome

Griffin, Jr., was brought before the Commissioner Cahill, on Tuesday on a charge of receiving stolen goods knowing them to have been stolen.

After an examination he was committed to jail to await his trial in the County Court next month.

THE NEXT lecture of the Mount Allison Course will be given on Friday, the 17th inst., by the Rev.

Ralph Brecken on the interesting theme "Fire-side, Myth and Saper-titions." It will be without doubt one of the most interesting and eluquent lectures of the course.

THE LOVERS of music in our community will enjoy a special treat on Friday evening next in Lingley Hall where the Amherst Band, assisted by local talent, are to give a grand concert. The programme is nearly the same as that given to a crowded house in Amherst last evening.

FATAL ACCIDENT ON THE I. C. R.—

Thos. Nollis, section foreman, I. C. R., was instantly killed last Friday between Macan and Athol stations.

He was in the act of moving a trolley which had been left too near the track when the trolley was struck by Conductor Archibald's special. Nollis, who was in a stooping position, was struck on the head by the trolley and was taken up dead.

Bale Verte.

—Work is expected to begin on the breakwater next week.

—Rev. Mr. Ackman will lecture at the Young Peoples Institute on Monday the 13th inst.

—The Band of Hope have purchased an organ with the proceeds from their concert. They, with the Division, will give a free entertainment the night before Scott Act election in Temperance Hall.

—A lecture was delivered under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. A., by Mr. Rogers, of Amherst, subject

"Scott Act." It was a most brilliant and eloquent appeal, but some thought actions and speech should agree.

—A toboggan slide was opened with great success on Saturday evening. All the young people and some who were not young enjoyed the sport very much. The club numbers about twenty members, with Ernest Goodwin as president, to whom is due the credit of being the leader in the movement.

—A very vigorous canvass is being carried on by the supporters of the Scott Act, who are doing their utmost to achieve success in the coming election. We trust the same energy will be displaced in enforcing the Act after it shall have been carried. The often, however, what is "everybody's business is nobody's," and this makes nominal prohibition simply a cover for unfettered liquor selling.

—We have had a very interesting course of lectures under the auspices of the Young Peoples Institute which your correspondent has been neglected to report. The first, by Rev. S.

T. Teed, on temperance was a very fine effort, indeed it was said by all, the Rev. gentleman surpassed himself.

The second by Rev. Mr. McKay, on "Moral Improvement" was a very learned and metaphysical discourse with excellent practical advice to young people. The third by Rev. D. A.

Steele, of Amherst, subject "The Voyage," was a graphic description of a trip to England during the Queen's Jubilee. Perhaps the most interesting part was the tribute he paid to Spurgeon's splendid gifts and personal magnetism. The fourth was to have been delivered by Dr. McCully, on "Evolution," but the gross mismanagement of the local train made it impossible to connect. It is high time the train was run to accommodate the people instead of the employees. One man holds too many offices to make it a success, and it seems singular that the driver of the locomotive should be at the same time general manager of the road. If the owners of the road really desire to accommodate the public they will run the train from the Cape in time to connect, with the
