Mill Owner Meets With Dangerous Accident.

ANNAPOLIS, N. S., Jan. 10, 1894.

B. M. Goldsmith, of the arm of H. C. & B.
M. Goldsmith, mill owners here, met with a severe accidant recently. He was at work about the engine when a stream of water from an inch-and-a-half blow of pipe struck im full in the face and cyos. There were hirty pounds of steam on at the time and he burn received was a very severe one. It is reported that no physician was called and relief experienced for some days after the yent. Then Mr. Goldsmith's brother, his martner, fell in with a man who gave him omething for the burn. The "something" roved to be a half box of Perkin's Indian for Doltment. He used it at once with It is understood that Mr. Goldsmith has written a letter to the Groder Company, giv-who even now cherish the same sentiments that awakened tory applause in 1776, Donahoe's Magazine has done a service of inestimable value in the recommendation to mercy. The a service of inestimable value in the recommendation to mercy greater far than any mere economic or political heresy. When Americans cease to trust themselves it is time for a note of alarm. This note is stuck in just the same sentiments that awakened tory applause in at home. So they found him guilty, with a recommendation to mercy. The penalty of abandonment in the first and forcibly exposing a source of danger would have been a life sentence of return home and live with Xantippe. The recommendation to mercy gave his head. Nature, however knew the Socrates the alternative of death at his value of shaving a live with a service of the church with which Mayor Kennedy is connected, says:

The Christian Guardian, the organ of the church with which Mayor Kennedy is connected, says:

The MAYOR OF TORONTO AND THE LIQUOR stable. He was sold by the New Bruns-wick government to H. McLellan of St. John. The recommendation to mercy gave of alarm. This note is stuck in just the right tone in the leading article of DONAHOE'S for May, "Is Popular Government to Fail in America?" This brilliant article is only one of the many features which place DONAHOE'S not merely among the leading Magazines but in the front rank among the leaders.

The recommendation to mercy gave Socrates the alternative of death, at his own option. The sage chose the lesser penalty and met his fate in the manner of his philosphical posterity, the Stoics.
