

IN THE WORLD OF AMUSEMENT

This week's programme at the Savoy Theatre continues to delight large audiences, the house being sold out for the evening performance last night. The Morris-Leckie wedding party occupied the boxes, which were filled to capacity, fifty applications for box seats having to be refused. Harry Tate and his London company, Josephine Sabel and Billy Van, are pronounced hits. The bill is conceded to be one of the strongest since high class amusement of this popular type has been introduced in Hamilton. Tate's travesty act "Fishing," is a big laughing hit, original and beautifully staged. When an audience will insist on an artist singing the chorus of one song six times in succession and whistle and hum the accompaniment, as was the case with Miss Sabel, the other evening, it is pretty good proof of the hit the act is making. Few comedienne seen here yet are better entitled to the applause received than Miss Sabel. Her gown is gorgeous, her mannerisms original and is wonderful. It is a vindication of the meaning of life, a serious, an artistic and on the whole a successful attempt to think the world into order and beauty. It matters not that this vision of metaphysics may not be the truest truth about the origin and destiny of man.

Musical Show, To-morrow.

Mr. C. H. Kerr presents his latest musical and dramatic success, "Little Dollie Dimples," among its second successful season, with the Broadway favorite, Grace Cameron, in the title role, at the Grand to-morrow afternoon and evening. This attraction is a large and important one, and the supporting company one of the largest and most expensive organizations now touring the United States. Over fifty principals, chorus and ballet and superlatives are used in this production. Two carloads of magnificent scenery, electrical effects, properties and paraphernalia are carried, and the production is said to be one of the most elaborately gowned of this season's offerings. Among the many musical successes are: "Take a Stroll," "I Am So Shy," "Most Everyone Says I'm an Awful Bore," "Loieola," "The Girl That I'd Call Mine," and twenty other big song successes. A "Good-bye" song, as sung by Miss Cameron at the end of the first act, is a most beautiful and picturesque climax, receiving from ten to twelve encores nightly.

"Cupid at Vassar."

There is a feeling of sunshine and exhilarating air about the new musical college girls' play, "Cupid at Vassar," in which Florence Gear is appearing in the part of Kate Newton. The writer of the lyrics and the musical composer have graciously worked into each other's hands with good results. A fascinating plot about a very interesting and pretty girl, plenty of good music and the finest of lyrics make of this new play a combination had to be equalled. "Cupid at Vassar" will be seen at the Grand on Monday night. Seats are on sale now.

"The Girl Who Has Everything."

Major proposition: Love is everything. Minor proposition: The girl is loved. Conclusion: "The Girl Who Has Everything." This is the logic of Mr. Clyde Fitch, and upon it he has built the play in which Miss Isabel Irving appears at the Grand next Wednesday. In manner this "Girl Who Has Everything" goes back to the best work of Mr. Fitch's earlier days. It is a study in character like "The Climbers." Like a fine gem, it is a many-sided brilliant, and set in the best manner to display its quality, and, best of all, its characters are human.

"The Top o' th' World."

On Tuesday evening next the management of the Grand Opera House will offer the new Shubert production, "The Top o' th' World," an American extravaganza. The scenes are laid in the Klondike, and in the imaginary land of Illusia. The production is said to be one of the most elaborate and handsome ever presented on the stage, and the Shuberts her songs new and catchy. Billy Van's success in vaudeville is no surprise to those who have heard him. The pretty staging of the De Faye sisters' act, a clever musical novelty, adds considerably to its attractiveness. Those partial to comedy acrobatic acts will find in the Grandchildrens, one of the cleverest of its kind, Florence Modena in her laughing hit, "Bargain Mad," and the remainder of the bill will satisfy the most fastidious.

FLORENCE GEAR.

In "Cupid at Vassar," which will be seen at the Grand shortly.

"The Road to Yesterday."

The great comedy fantasy "The Road to Yesterday," which is being presented

KATHERINE CLIFFORD,

Who will be seen in "Top o' th' World" at the Grand next Tuesday.

this week in the Royal Alexandra Theatre in Toronto, is an exceptional play, because it is a sincere attempt to interpret the meaning of life. "The Road to Yesterday" is an exception, it is claimed. In it we have a bold "face" for the most intimate problem of personality, the problem of life and death. The soul of man is shown naked, making its sublime pilgrimage through the world from age to age. Immortality is death, with as a fact of the most utter realism. The dawning man of all work in an English wayside inn, of the reign of King James I. becomes in 1903 an "artistic temperament" in a velvet jacket, lodged in a London studio. A weeping bride of Lammermoor becomes in three centuries a dreaming Cook's tourist, doing the great metropolis in a day. The old world knits itself by a thousand strands into the new. The moral rent is shown as a fabric without rent or seam. Good is forever good and bad is bad, and neither good nor bad is unrequited in the end. The circumstances of the plot may seem to be ingenious or whimsical, but the idea that underlies them and holds them together have engaged a cast of superior excellence. The two characters enacted by Bailey and Austin are as original and interesting as the famous Scarecrow and Tin Woodman in any popular extravaganza. Probably the most unique and interesting feature of the performance is the dance of the colliers, in which six diminutive dancers and six colliers take part. It is said to be the most original dance ever staged. The sale of seats opens on Saturday.

At Bennett's Theatre.

The success of Carroll Johnson's act at Bennett's this week is most marked, and in keeping with it is the popularity of the competition gotten up by Manager Driscoll, by which $25 is given for the best description of the act. Already 1,000 articles have been received. The rest of the show is in the same high class as the act already mentioned. "The Imposter," in which May Duryea and William Mortimer are appearing, is recognized as one of the most wholesome and laughable sketches ever produced in the city. Both the principals are well known in legitimate drama, and their reputation for cleverness has been distinctly enhanced by their present vehicle. Florence Saunders has also made a hit here. Her beautiful voice, her charming stage presence, and the catchy songs she sings are calculated to delight the most exacting audience. Banks and Brazale are pleasing daily and nightly in their instrumental act, their duet for the muted cornet and violin being especially admired. Gus Bruno's dialect stories are also a feature of the bill. The Bellong brothers, in their trick cyclist and equilibrium turn, are now eagerly awaited, and their devilry and originality never fail to secure admiration and applause. Annie and Effie Conley, with their refined singing and dancing performance, are considered by all who have seen them as two of the most charming young ladies ever seen here. The comedy magicians, Ziska and King, will long be remembered here, their act being a combination of cleverness and fun.

A Rural Drama.

A real rural drama, right from Indiana, entitled "Sis in New York," was presented at the Grand last night to a large audience. The play was among the old lines of rural comedy, but it was presented by a good company, with appropriate scenery, and was much enjoyed.

WIFE IN HAMILTON.

Escaped Lunatic Drove Cattle to Market and Sold Them.

Toronto, Sept. 12.—James Bagnell, of Mimico, the lunatic who escaped from Mimico Asylum at the end of July, and who has since won some notoriety by drifting on the lake over to Port Dalhousie in an open boat stolen from Mr. John Godfrey, and by visiting Toronto Junction with a loaded revolver in search of his enemies under the noses of the police, added another feat to his record when he returned to his old home at Mimico yesterday, rounded up several head of cattle which were in the charge of his uncle, while Bagnell's wife had come to Hamilton, drove them to the city market and got clear away again with the proceeds.

TEETER-RIGGINS.

Pretty Autumn Wedding at Beamsville on Wednesday.

Elmwood, the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Riggins, Beamsville, was the scene of a pretty home wedding on Wednesday, Sept. 11th, when their daughter, Nettie Riggins, was united in marriage to Mr. Roland Gordon Teeter, of North Grimsby. The Rev. B. D. Thomas, D. D., late pastor of Jarvis Street Baptist Church, Toronto, performed the ceremony.

The house was tastefully decorated with pink and white aster, palms and ferns.

Promptly at 3.30 o'clock, to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, the bride entered the parlor, leaning on the arm of her father, looking very pretty in a gown of ivory silk and lace, trimmed with Irish point lace and wearing the customary bridal veil with sprays of lily of the valley, and carrying a short bouquet of bride roses and lily of the valley. She was attended by her sister, Florence, as maid of honor, gowned in white embroidered mull and carrying pink roses; Miss Josephine, as bridesmaid, wearing white lawn trimmed with lace and carrying pink carnations.

The groom was attended by his cousin, Mr. Harry Teeter, of Hamilton, the wedding music being played by Miss Riggins, sister of the bride.

Among the many beautiful and useful gifts was a very handsome silver pudding dish, suitably engraved, from the B. Y. P. U. of the Baptist Church, of which society the bride has been organist for some years.

Mr. and Mrs. Teeter left on the evening train for Muskoka, carrying with them the best wishes of hosts of friends. The bride's travelling dress was of brown novelty cloth, with hat to match.

CABINET OF SILVER.

Parting Gift to Mr. R.S. Wallace of Wood-Vallance.

The employees of the wholesale and retail departments of Wood, Vallance & Co. presented to Mr. R. S. Wallace, the retiring manager of the wholesale department, a beautiful cabinet of silver, as a mark of the esteem in which he was held. The presentation was made by Mr. George Taylor. This morning the firm received a letter from Mr. Wallace, acknowledging the receipt of their gift and thanking those who were instrumental in his receiving such a magnificent assurance of respect and good will.

GREATER THAN LUSITANIA.

Plans for White Star Steamer of 40,000 Tons Registered.

Belfast, Sept. 11.—The shipbuilding firm of Harland & Wolff admit officially that they are at work upon plans for a White Star Line steamer that is to be bigger than the Lusitania. The keel of this vessel is to be laid in a few months, and she will be fitted with reciprocating engines and turbines. According to information received from another source the new vessel is to be of 40,000 tons register.

Foot Horribly Mangled.

St. Thomas, Sept. 11.—A sectionman named Butler, lately out from the old county, was brought to the Amasa Wood Hospital here "night with his foot horribly crushed. The accident happened at Shilden, where the man's car was extricated from between two bumpers of freight cars.
