

printing office of the city for the... they have...

of the NEW YORK MARKET FOR THIS... DAYS PRECEDING

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 29. The transactions continue extremely small, and both descriptions have further declined...

MONTEAL, THURSDAY, APRIL 6, 1837. We understand that the Report of the Royal Commissioners upon the many questions which occupied their attention during their sojourn in the Province, is in the hands of the individuals in this city.

Commercial. The representation conveyed to the authorities in England by the Constitutionalists of the Province, has received the most marked attention...

As a result to the proceedings of the meeting at Bowry's Long Room, on Monday, we submit the following from yesterday's Herald, without note or comment.

As a result to the proceedings of the meeting at Bowry's Long Room, on Monday, we submit the following from yesterday's Herald, without note or comment.

As a result to the proceedings of the meeting at Bowry's Long Room, on Monday, we submit the following from yesterday's Herald, without note or comment.

As a result to the proceedings of the meeting at Bowry's Long Room, on Monday, we submit the following from yesterday's Herald, without note or comment.

As a result to the proceedings of the meeting at Bowry's Long Room, on Monday, we submit the following from yesterday's Herald, without note or comment.

As a result to the proceedings of the meeting at Bowry's Long Room, on Monday, we submit the following from yesterday's Herald, without note or comment.

As a result to the proceedings of the meeting at Bowry's Long Room, on Monday, we submit the following from yesterday's Herald, without note or comment.

As a result to the proceedings of the meeting at Bowry's Long Room, on Monday, we submit the following from yesterday's Herald, without note or comment.

As a result to the proceedings of the meeting at Bowry's Long Room, on Monday, we submit the following from yesterday's Herald, without note or comment.

jections to the exercise of such powers by the Imperial Parliament. We will not, however, concede to any party in the Colony, that Great Britain is absolutely precluded from interfering in any of her matters of domestic policy...

Among such must be reckoned the want of an amended representation in the Assembly, and the denial of Registry Offices. In the latter we are dishonorably distinguished from all other parts of the American Continent...

There is no doubt that the population of the Province, and that its population, actual and prospective, shall be so maintained as to be able to supply the deficiencies of the Legislature in this respect...

There is no doubt that the population of the Province, and that its population, actual and prospective, shall be so maintained as to be able to supply the deficiencies of the Legislature in this respect...

There is no doubt that the population of the Province, and that its population, actual and prospective, shall be so maintained as to be able to supply the deficiencies of the Legislature in this respect...

There is no doubt that the population of the Province, and that its population, actual and prospective, shall be so maintained as to be able to supply the deficiencies of the Legislature in this respect...

There is no doubt that the population of the Province, and that its population, actual and prospective, shall be so maintained as to be able to supply the deficiencies of the Legislature in this respect...

There is no doubt that the population of the Province, and that its population, actual and prospective, shall be so maintained as to be able to supply the deficiencies of the Legislature in this respect...

There is no doubt that the population of the Province, and that its population, actual and prospective, shall be so maintained as to be able to supply the deficiencies of the Legislature in this respect...

There is no doubt that the population of the Province, and that its population, actual and prospective, shall be so maintained as to be able to supply the deficiencies of the Legislature in this respect...

There is no doubt that the population of the Province, and that its population, actual and prospective, shall be so maintained as to be able to supply the deficiencies of the Legislature in this respect...

There is no doubt that the population of the Province, and that its population, actual and prospective, shall be so maintained as to be able to supply the deficiencies of the Legislature in this respect...

There is no doubt that the population of the Province, and that its population, actual and prospective, shall be so maintained as to be able to supply the deficiencies of the Legislature in this respect...

There is no doubt that the population of the Province, and that its population, actual and prospective, shall be so maintained as to be able to supply the deficiencies of the Legislature in this respect...

There is no doubt that the population of the Province, and that its population, actual and prospective, shall be so maintained as to be able to supply the deficiencies of the Legislature in this respect...

There is no doubt that the population of the Province, and that its population, actual and prospective, shall be so maintained as to be able to supply the deficiencies of the Legislature in this respect...

applied to vote as well the armament, as the measures required to meet the expense of the current year. This motion was adopted by the House...

An appeal was made to the House from this decision. It was supported on a division of 40 to 27. The resolutions were then passed...

On examination of the last Bill I perceive that the Assembly did not, as in 1833, adopt any conditions as objectionable items, but adopted another plan for effecting their wishes for the abolition of pluralities...

On examination of the last Bill I perceive that the Assembly did not, as in 1833, adopt any conditions as objectionable items, but adopted another plan for effecting their wishes for the abolition of pluralities...

On examination of the last Bill I perceive that the Assembly did not, as in 1833, adopt any conditions as objectionable items, but adopted another plan for effecting their wishes for the abolition of pluralities...

On examination of the last Bill I perceive that the Assembly did not, as in 1833, adopt any conditions as objectionable items, but adopted another plan for effecting their wishes for the abolition of pluralities...

On examination of the last Bill I perceive that the Assembly did not, as in 1833, adopt any conditions as objectionable items, but adopted another plan for effecting their wishes for the abolition of pluralities...

On examination of the last Bill I perceive that the Assembly did not, as in 1833, adopt any conditions as objectionable items, but adopted another plan for effecting their wishes for the abolition of pluralities...

On examination of the last Bill I perceive that the Assembly did not, as in 1833, adopt any conditions as objectionable items, but adopted another plan for effecting their wishes for the abolition of pluralities...

On examination of the last Bill I perceive that the Assembly did not, as in 1833, adopt any conditions as objectionable items, but adopted another plan for effecting their wishes for the abolition of pluralities...

On examination of the last Bill I perceive that the Assembly did not, as in 1833, adopt any conditions as objectionable items, but adopted another plan for effecting their wishes for the abolition of pluralities...

On examination of the last Bill I perceive that the Assembly did not, as in 1833, adopt any conditions as objectionable items, but adopted another plan for effecting their wishes for the abolition of pluralities...

On examination of the last Bill I perceive that the Assembly did not, as in 1833, adopt any conditions as objectionable items, but adopted another plan for effecting their wishes for the abolition of pluralities...

On examination of the last Bill I perceive that the Assembly did not, as in 1833, adopt any conditions as objectionable items, but adopted another plan for effecting their wishes for the abolition of pluralities...

On examination of the last Bill I perceive that the Assembly did not, as in 1833, adopt any conditions as objectionable items, but adopted another plan for effecting their wishes for the abolition of pluralities...

On examination of the last Bill I perceive that the Assembly did not, as in 1833, adopt any conditions as objectionable items, but adopted another plan for effecting their wishes for the abolition of pluralities...

It is greatly to be hoped that the crisis has passed. Yesterday was truly a gloomy day, and several houses associated themselves with a large barge in Wall Street, the agent of several country banks...

It is greatly to be hoped that the crisis has passed. Yesterday was truly a gloomy day, and several houses associated themselves with a large barge in Wall Street, the agent of several country banks...

It is greatly to be hoped that the crisis has passed. Yesterday was truly a gloomy day, and several houses associated themselves with a large barge in Wall Street, the agent of several country banks...

It is greatly to be hoped that the crisis has passed. Yesterday was truly a gloomy day, and several houses associated themselves with a large barge in Wall Street, the agent of several country banks...

It is greatly to be hoped that the crisis has passed. Yesterday was truly a gloomy day, and several houses associated themselves with a large barge in Wall Street, the agent of several country banks...

It is greatly to be hoped that the crisis has passed. Yesterday was truly a gloomy day, and several houses associated themselves with a large barge in Wall Street, the agent of several country banks...

It is greatly to be hoped that the crisis has passed. Yesterday was truly a gloomy day, and several houses associated themselves with a large barge in Wall Street, the agent of several country banks...

It is greatly to be hoped that the crisis has passed. Yesterday was truly a gloomy day, and several houses associated themselves with a large barge in Wall Street, the agent of several country banks...

It is greatly to be hoped that the crisis has passed. Yesterday was truly a gloomy day, and several houses associated themselves with a large barge in Wall Street, the agent of several country banks...

It is greatly to be hoped that the crisis has passed. Yesterday was truly a gloomy day, and several houses associated themselves with a large barge in Wall Street, the agent of several country banks...

It is greatly to be hoped that the crisis has passed. Yesterday was truly a gloomy day, and several houses associated themselves with a large barge in Wall Street, the agent of several country banks...

It is greatly to be hoped that the crisis has passed. Yesterday was truly a gloomy day, and several houses associated themselves with a large barge in Wall Street, the agent of several country banks...

It is greatly to be hoped that the crisis has passed. Yesterday was truly a gloomy day, and several houses associated themselves with a large barge in Wall Street, the agent of several country banks...

It is greatly to be hoped that the crisis has passed. Yesterday was truly a gloomy day, and several houses associated themselves with a large barge in Wall Street, the agent of several country banks...

It is greatly to be hoped that the crisis has passed. Yesterday was truly a gloomy day, and several houses associated themselves with a large barge in Wall Street, the agent of several country banks...

It is greatly to be hoped that the crisis has passed. Yesterday was truly a gloomy day, and several houses associated themselves with a large barge in Wall Street, the agent of several country banks...